2. The Dominion Succession Duty Branch has made an investigation into this estate and reached the conclusion, as I am informed by Mr. Wilcox representing the said Dominion Succession Duty Branch and verily believe that the beneficial interest in the shares in K. There were two issued shares in the said Company, one in the name of the deceased and one in the name of Jutaro Tokunaga and as a result of the said investigation it is now believed that the said Jutaro Tokunaga held the said share in his name but in trust for the said deceased and therefore the interest of the said deceased in the said Company should be increased from $6948.89 to $13897.78.

1. That I am the solicitor for the Executrix herein, who is now residing at Christina Lake, having been removed from the Coast area by Dominion authority. It is possible to communicate with the said Executrix but takes a longer time than due course of post owing to censorship regulations as I verily believe.

2. In the latter part of May or the early part of June 1942 before the Executrix left to reside at Christina Lake aforesaid, she informed me and I verily believe that the said deceased had purchased $10,000.00 worth of Dominion Government bonds in 1941 and the said bonds were purchased out of money which came from a body corporate known as K. Takahashi & Company Limited and the books of the said Company, as I am informed and verily believe, show withdrawals by the said deceased over a period of years amounting to $10,597.95 as shown by the balance sheet up to March 31st, 1942.

3. I am further informed by the said Executrix that prior to the incorporation of the said K. Takahashi & Company Limited she had operated a dry-goods store in Vancouver and upon her marriage she sold the said store and contents and advanced the money to the said deceased for the purpose of starting the said Company andproviding sufficient capital. The said Executrix claims she put in an amount in excess of $20,000.00 and none of the said amount was repaid to her. The said deceased purchased Dominion Government Bonds in his own name , but as she alleges, to be used as repayment to her of the sum so advanced.

4. I am informed by the said Executrix, Kuni Takahashi and verily believe that the said bonds were not disclosed in the Succession Duty Return in Inventory 'X' because she was of the opinion that the said bonds actually did not belong to the said deceased but belonged to the said Kuni Takahashi by virtue of the said advance, and the said bonds were so transferred and delivered to the said Kuni Takahashi early in the year 1942 by the saiddeceased.

5. The said bonds are described as follows: Dominion of Canada 3% War Loan Series K1 Numbers M35819 to M35828 inclusive amounting to $10,000.00.

6. The said deceased was naturalized as a British subject under the Naturalization Acts of 1914 and 1920 his naturalization certificate being Series E 7420 bearing date the 5th day of January, A.D. 1923 taking the place of a previous certificate of naturalization issued to the deceased on the 12th day of December, A. D. 1906.

7. I am informed by the said Executrix that later after Inventory X was filed she discovered among the effects of the said deceased three Dominion ofCanada 4½% 1941 Conversion Loan Bonds $500.00 each, amounting to $1500.00.
