JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION.

B E F O R E

(THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE H.I. BIRD, COMMISSIONER).

Vernon, B. C.,

February 24th, 1948.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

KUSUMATSU YOSHIDA.

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

APPEARANCES:

J.W.G. HUNTER, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
J.A. MacLENNAN, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.

A. WATSON, Esq.,	Secretary.
D.J. HANDFORD, Esq.,	Official Interpreter.
G. HAMBLETON, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

MR. MacLENNAN: K. Yoshida, my lord, No. 173.

KUSUMATSU YOSHIDA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

MR. MacLENNAN: My lord, I would like to apply to amend the claim. The claim on the first page is not applicable; the claimant was confused and put the same amount on the first page as on the back. He has no claim for land at all.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. MacLENNAN: I would like to amend the claim for chattels by striking out what he has in there and inserting, "Nets and gear, $1,542.25," less Custodian's sale, $533.75, leaving the claim for nets and gear at $918.50.

THE COMMISSIONER: Is that the whole claim?

MR. MacLENNAN: No, my lord, it is not. Then there are household chattels. Instead of the present figure of $612.00, I would like to reduce that to $380.25.

THE COMMISSIONER: $380.25.

MR. MacLENNAN: Yes, my lord, and a credit to the Custodian of $43.65, leaving the net claim on the chattels at $336.60, and the total claim for gear and household chattels then is $1255.10.

THE COMMISSIONER: The fishing vessel was out.

MR. MacLENNAN: Yes, my lord. I would ask to take that out with the usual reservation.

THE COMMISSIONER: The total claim is $1255.10.

MR. MacLENNAN: $1255.10, yes, my lord.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. MacLENNAN:

Q Mr. Yoshida, you instructed Mr. Leckie about your claim in this connection?

A Yes.

Q And this was prepared in accordance with your instructions? A: Yes.

Q And it is true to the best of your knowledge, information and belief? A: Yes.

Q Would you sign it, then, in verification?

A (Witness complies).

MR. MacLENNAN: I tender this, my lord, as Exhibit 1.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

THE COMMISSIONER: What does that relate to, the nets?

MR. MacLENNAN: That relates to the chattels, my lord.

MR. HUNTER: And nets.

MR. MacLENNAN: It is really both, the nets and gear. He deals with where they were stored and then he refers to a list of chattels attached to the analysis sheet of the Custodian.

THE COMMISSIONER: This exhibit covers both personal chattels as well as the nets and gear, does it? That is his total claim?

MR. HUNTER: That is correct.

MR. MacLENNAN: This, my lord, refers only to fishing gear, the details of the fishing gear are referred to as being attached to the Custodian's analysis of personal property claims sheet.

Q Mr. Yoshida, is that the claim for your nets and gear which you prepared in connection with that form you have just filed? A: Yes.

MR. MacLENNAN: I would like to tender that, my lord, as Exhibit 2.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. MacLENNAN: Unfortunately, my lord, I haven't a third copy for my friend at this time. I did take this from my friend. I let him see it before. This was prepared by the claimant himself only in duplicate.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. MacLENNAN: Q: Mr. Yoshida, you also prepared a list of your chattels, did you?

A Yes.

Q And you gave some instructions to Mr. McMaster in that connection? A: Yes.

Q And these particulars were prepared on your instructions? A: Yes.

Q And they are true insofar as you know to the best of your knowledge and belief?

A Yes.

Q Would you sign it, please, in verification?

A (Witness complies).

Q And this shows how you made up your claim for the chattels? A: Yes.

MR. MacLENNAN: I file that, my lord, as Exhibit 3.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. MacLENNAN: Mr. Hunter.

THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. MacLennan, this claim as proven now doesn't jibe with your claim as made in the claim form. Your nets and gear were valued at $1308.00 and sold at $533.75, the difference being $774.25, and you are claiming $918.50 in respect of nets and gear.

MR. HUNTER: He has amended the claim upwards, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: He hasn't proved it though.

MR. MacLENNAN: My lord, the nets and gear claim is $1452.25.

THE COMMISSIONER: $1542.00 or $1452.00?

MR. HUNTER: $1452.00.

MR. MacLENNAN: $1452.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: You haven't proved any such value, that isthe point.

MR. HUNTER: My lord, he had the witness swear to the values as shown on the analysis of personal property, of the schedule to it.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes. I am reading from the analysis now.

MR. MacLENNAN: I am sorry, my lord, the particulars are on a sheet on the back, attached to it.

THE COMMISSIONER: I see. I don't see your $1452.00 figure here anywhere, your $1449.25.

MR. MacLENNAN: My lord, I took that from my friend's file because I didn't have an extra copy and it may not have been marked. Rather than produce that as an exhibit, my lord, I have the form which does amount to that. It is a carbon copy but there are some pencil marks. If I might file this in lieu of that, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, you had better leave the analysis in as is and file the other in addition. This document you are about to file does show your claim for the gear, does it?

MR. MacLENNAN: Yes, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right, that will be Exhibit 4. This is a list of nets and gear with valuations, is that it?

MR. MacLENNAN: Yes, my lord.

(LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

MR. HUNTER: My lord, it is possibly a technicality, but the witness claimed no chattels in his J.P. form and his wife claimed those shown in our analysis. I wonder if we could just have cleared up whose they are or whether he is claiming on his behalf or whether they are really his, and so forth.

THE COMMISSIONER: You might bring that out, will you, Mr. MacLennan.

MR. MacLENNAN: Q: Mr. Yoshida, on your J.P. declaration form, when you left your goods with the Custodian on evacuation, you didn't show any chattels at all, any household furniture?

A No.

Q Your wife filed a declaration showing some furniture, is that so? A: Yes.

Q And are you claiming here for the furniture that she declared to the Custodian and left?

A Yes, those are the same articles.

Q And your wife is not making a claim in connection with those? A: No, she is making no claim for the same goods.

Q Are they your wife's, or are they yours?

A Well in the final analysis, they are my goods.

MR. MacLENNAN: I think that clears it up, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Hunter still thinks it is a little muddy.

MR. HUNTER: I wonder if she agrees with that, my lord.

It is submitted, my lord, that all personal property of any kind which was sold was sold for its fair market value. It is submitted that the claimant left his fishing equipment, nets and gear, under the custody, control or management of someone other than the Custodian appointed by himself and accordingly the Custodian is only responsible for such as came into his possession or under his control.

MR. MacLENNAN: May I ask my friend, then, to file the J.P. declaration, my lord, if it is not filed already?

MR. HUNTER: Did you identify this?

MR. MacLENNAN: No.

Q Mr. Yoshida, is that your signature on the J.P. declaration? A: Yes.

Q At the time of evacuation you signed this and completed it? A: Yes.

MR. MacLENNAN: My lord, this is a declaration dated the 15th day of April, 1942, in which he specifies that the goods were in the Imperial Cannery, No. 12, and he attaches a list of goods.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5).

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HUNTER:

Q Mr. Yoshida, how did you happen to leave the key of the house, No. 12, with Mr. Gillespie?

A There was no particular reason except that I was told to leave the key with the cannery, and so I left it with Mr. Gillespie.

Q Who told you to leave the key with the cannery?

THE INTERPRETER: I beg your pardon, my lord, I misunderstood the witness' last reply.

(Interpreter to witness).

THE INTERPRETER: A: I was not told to leave the key at the cannery, but as it was a cannery house I took it that I should leave the key with the cannery.

MR. HUNTER: Q: I see. Did you advise the Custodian that the key had been left with Mr. Gillespie?

A No, I didn't advise the Custodian.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well now, just one moment. The J.P. form, as I understand it, does declare the fact that the goods were left in this shed, does it not?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: So when the witness says he didn't advise the Custodian as to the location of the key, it is not quite a complete answer, is it?

If the Custodian gets the information as to the location of the godds by the filing of the J.P. Form, surely that is advising the Custodian as to where the goods are.

MR. HUNTER: Well, in many cases it is submitted, my lord, that we knew where the goods were, but they were not in our custody.

THE COMMISSIONER: I get your point.

MR. HUNTER: It may be that my submission is incorrect in this case, that is actually what I am trying to find out, my lord.

Q Was anything saidbetween you and Mr. Gillespie when you handed to him the key?

A No, there was nothing said.

THE COMMISSIONER: Now, Mr. Hunter, just keep in mind what information was in the hands of the Custodian at the date of the filing of the J.P. form. The "Remarks" column reads, "Personal property and fishing nets, etc., to be locked up in No. 12 house, Imperial Cannery, Steveston, B.C. Key to be given to manager of cannery". Now the man couldn't have gone much farther than that, could he?

MR. HUNTER: No, I must confess, my lord. I don't think I shall press that point.

I will call your Lordship's attention to the schedule of fishing gear which is now put in as Exhibit 4. The first page has been accounted for and was sold by the Custodian. Those which were appraised were sold for the appraisal value which was still less than the declarant's value. On the second page it will be noted that the first three items were found that are missing, and that the last six items --

THE COMMISSIONER: Wait a minute, let me get this. The first three items were found and then went missing, is that it?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, they are missing, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. HUNTER: And the last six are just unaccounted for.

The last six items were never found by the Custodian.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. HUNTER: The chattels claimed for on the back of Exhibit 3 would appear to be as declared in the wife's form, down as far as "One ¾ bed" as shown on the analysis.

THE COMMISSIONER: You are referring to Exhibit 3 or the analysis?

MR. HUNTER: The articles now claimed for on the back of Exhibit 3.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes. I don't see a three-quarter bed; I see a one-quarter bed.

MR. HUNTER: It may be marked a one-quarter bed on yours, but it should be a three-quarter bed.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, should be a three-quarter bed.

MR. HUNTER: Mr. Leckie's writing makes it look like a bid on the floor of the stock exchange.

If you refer to Exhibit 2, my lord, you will see that down as far as there they have followed the goods as shown in the wife's declaration, column 1 of the said exhibit. From then on the items appear to go over to the inventory as taken by the Custodian on the 18th of June and they have just picked out individual items and are claiming for those down on the second column of Exhibit 2. I can only refer your Lordship to the prices obtained for some of these things which I see from the auction sheets. The prices which they claim seem to be roughly double what we received. For the five window blinds; the fifth item down on Exhibit 3, they claim $4.50, we get $2.00.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. HUNTER: For one stool they claim $15.00 and we have $8.50 -- that is wrong, that is one dresser with mirror, my lord. The last item, a box of carpenter tools, they claim $15.55, we received $5.50. As far as the stern roller is concerned, we didn't sell it, my lord. It is not shown on the auction sheets. It is the one big item they claim for there.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, and that was never sold.

MR. HUNTER: That was never sold. It was apparently there when our inventory was taken. It will be seen that it was on the inventory sheet, my lord, column 2 in the analysis, so that there is no question of it having been missing, but it must have been missing at the time of the sale or else it was never sold. It may still be there.

It is submitted, my lord, that for those articles which we did not sell, for which the claimant is making a claim, his claim is exorbitant.

THE COMMISSIONER: That will include the missing articles as well?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Any cross-examination of this witness?

MR. HUNTER: No, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right. Thank you, Mr. Yoshida.

Arrangements made for storage when evacuated: Boats and gear were all stored in one room in the upstairs of Mess #12, Imperial Cannery Steveston. The row boat (dingy) and oars were on a dock outside the woodshed. The outside door of the room was locked and key left with Mr. Shillinglaw Cannery - The nine nets were coiled and placed in a large box. Other nets were hung from ceiling.

Additional Comments, if any: On the inventory attached to Custodian's analysis from my personal property I have included a column showing the cost prices of the items and the age of them at the time of my evacuation. I have allowed for the use and condition of the items and believe the values I have given represent fair market values.

Mr. Kusumatsu Yoshida,
P.O. Box 532,
Kaslo, B. C.

Dear Sir:-

We enclose herewith copy of Liverpool-Manitoba Policy #29746 covering on your nets. You sent us in a cheque for $15.00 which was the premium for $1,000.00 insurance in the Net House 700 feet East of the Imperial Cannery and South of the ditch, but this house is rated at 2%, therefore, the premium will be $20.00.

We have your letter of August 12th in which you advise that you have heard that your belongings have all been removed from the house. This is not correct. It is your Household Furniture that has been removed by the Custodian of Enemy Property, whose office is in the Royal Bank Building, corner of Granville & Hastings Streets, so that if you wish to know where your personal effects have gone to, please communicate with him. The nets are still in the house and we have insured them there. Inasmuch as the furnishings and personal effects in the house have been removed by the Custodian of Enemy Property, we feel that the proper way to cover you is to issue the policy as we have done.

We have sent the policy to the Custodian of Enemy Property and enclose herewith account for the additional premium of $5.00 for which we shall be pleased to receive your cheque.

Yours very truly,
