B E F O R E

(HIS HONOUR, JUDGE J.R. ARCHIBALD, SUB-COMMISSIONER)

Vernon, B.C.

April 22, 1948

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

TOMIGORO ISHIKAWA

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

APPEARANCES:

D.S. McTAVISH, Esq., appearing for the Dominion Government.

R.J. McMASTER, Esq., appearing for the Claimant.

T.J. MARRION, Esq., Secretary to Vernon Sub-Commission.

MRS. I.C. SMITH Official Interpreter.

G. HAMBLETON, Esq., Official Interpreter.

Mr. MCMASTER: Tomigoro Ishikawa, is the next claim, your honour.

TOMIGORO ISHIKAWA, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official Interpreter as follows:

MR. McMASTER: I would ask for leave in this case, your honour, to reduce the chattel claim to $538.50, with credits from the Custodian on the items claimed for of $34.75, leaving a net claim of $503.75.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q: Witness, did you instruct Mr. Leckie to prepare this statement with regard to the chattels with respect to which you are claiming? A: Yes.

Q: Would you be good enough to sign it, please?

A: (Witness complies)

Q: Before filing that, I would ask you to identify this page which is the first page of the Custodian's Analysis. Did you instruct Mr. Leckie to put these values opposite the items where they appear on that claims analysis?

A: The value was half the value to what he really wanted to put in, but Mr. Leckie had put it down like that and I agreed to it.

Q: Yes, and those are the pencilled values appearing on there? A: Yes.

MR. McMASTER: I would file the statement and the revised Claims Analysis as Exhibit No. 1.

Q: Witness, are the statements contained in this yellow form true to the best of your knowledge and recollection? A: Yes.

(STATEMENT AND CLAIMS ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. McMASTER: I would ask my friend if he would be good enough to produce a copy of an inventory of the chattels of this man which were stored by the Custodian.

Q: This is produced from the Custodian's file, dated October 28, 1942, in the name of this claimant, chattels from 49th and Blenheim street to Custodian safe warehouse at 7857 Selkirk Street, which shows a lits of fifty chattels. Witness, do you remember receiving from the Custodian a list of your goods and chattels from 49th and Blenheim Street which he had stored in a warehouse?

A: He has the same as that, yes.

Q: The same as this, yes. Now, are all of the goods and chattels appearing in that list -- were they your property? A: Yes.

Q: Would any of them be the joint property of yourself and your wife? A: Yes, joint property.

Q: And has she agreed you should make this claim with respect to the sale of the chattels?

A: Yes, the wife and the family agreed to do it.

MR. McMASTER: I would file that list dated October 28, 1942 as the next Exhibit.

(LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2.)

MR. McMASTER: Now, referring to Exhibit No. 1, your honour, I would point out the fact that the claim now relates only to goods which are included in Exhibit No. 2, that is, which were stored by the Custodian and shown in that list, and to certain of the goods appearing on that list, not all of them.

On form No. 1, there are just three items that are particularized as to the date of purchase and the price paid and so on. Those three items are included in Exhibit No. 2 and form part of the total chattel claim.

Your witness.

MR. McTAVISH: It is submitted, your honour, that those items of personal property sold were sold for their fair market value. It is submitted that the values claimed for those items of personal property not sold are exhorbitant. It is submitted that the claimant has already received compensation for some of the articles for which he now claims.

MR. McMASTER: Would my friend mind explaining what he means by that?

MR. McTAVISH: Yes. I will come to that in just a moment.

MR. McMASTER: Right.

MR. McTAVISH: I have here, your honour, a sheet taken from a J.P. form signed by the claimant's wife on which some of the articles now claimed for are listed. I would like to have the claimant identify this if he can.

MR. McMASTER: How can he identify it? There is no signature on it.

MR. McTAVISH: No, but he can identify the articles in there.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. McTAVISH:

Q: Did you know that your wife made out a J.P. form?

A: At first he said he had declared jointly to the Custodian, but then afterwards, he said, they got all so confused so they separated the articles.

Q: Is this the form that you completed and made out?

A: Yes, he made this out.

MR. McTAVISH: I put that in as an exhibit.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3.)

Q: Do you remember your wife making out a form similar to that form?

A: He says his wife hasn't done anything like that, has never filled in a form like that.

MR. McTAVISH: Are you going to call his wife?

MR. McMASTER: I hadn't intended to call her. I am just wondering what my friend's point is. The witness admitted or agreed that some of these chattels were the property of his wife and stated that he had authority to make the claim on her behalf. There is no claim filed on her behalf and I would take it, in those circumstances, that it should hardly be necessary to call her unless he has some special point.

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, the wife, in her J.P. form, lists many of the articles that are claimed for now by this claimant, and she places a value on those articles that is considerably less than the value claimed for.

MR. McMASTER: May I see that for a minute?

MR. McTAVISH: Yes, certainly. My point in wishing to identify this sheet as being put in by the wife is to show the value placed upon those articles at that time. Are you going to call the wife?

MR. McMASTER: I don't wish to unless I can avoid it. He lives out of town.

THE COMMISSIONER: The point Mr. McTavish wants to get in is this: the valuation made by the wife was lower than that made by him.

MR. McMASTER: Yes, that is correct, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, I suppose he should be given some opportunity to get that in.

MR. McMASTER: My suggestion is that he produce this list to the man and ask him how many of the articles that appear on the list that he has were his wife's articles.

MR. McTAVISH: He just stated that his wife put in no J.P. form.

MR. McMASTER: Well, that may be so or otherwise, but if he can identify which are his and which are his wife's on there, surely if his wife put a value on something like a box of tools or something, I am prepared to rely on this man's evidence.

MR. McTAVISH: Q: Which items on this list belonged to you?

MR. McMASTER: You had better go through them item by item.

MR. McTAVISH: Have him mark the ones which are his with a pencil, would you, on this side here?

A: I cannot distinguish which are mine and which are my wife's, because they have been all jointly declared and the Custodian has it. The only claim which my wife made was for a doctor's bill, separately.

MR. McMASTER: I think, your honour, with regard to these values that it might be wise to call the wife to identify this as the list put forward by her.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, I think that is the object of having these sittings up country, to get all the available evidence here. Unless you can agree that she put these values on --

MR. McMASTER: Well, my contention, your honour, will be, subject to examining my witness, that they were purchased withhis money and he is much more likely to know what the value is.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, but still, if Mr. McTavish wants to establish it, I think he should be permitted to call her.

MR. McMASTER: Well, if my friend wishes to call the wife, I will call her.

MR. McTAVISH: I think it is only right in the circumstances that the wife should be called.

MR. McMASTER: Would you ask the witness where she lives, please?

A: Penticton.

MR. McMASTER: Your honour, it might be solved by the claimant acknowledging these were the fair value of the items listed at the time.

MR. McMASTER: Well ask him whether they were.

THE INTERPRETER: He thinks that is really double; it shouldn't be just that. He says this and that should be joint.

MR. McMASTER: Just a moment.

MR. McTAVISH: Q: Would you ask him if the values shown there for the goods are fair values?

A: I think the value is under-valued.

Q: You think those are under-valued.

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, for what it is worth, I think this should go in as an exhibit. We have talked about it enough.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, is there an objection to that going in as an exhibit?

MR. McMASTER: Well, my friend has cross-examined on it. As long as it is understood that it is not information supplied by the wife.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, that is in order.

(LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4.)

MR. McMASTER: I am just wondering, your honour, whether it wouldn't be time-saving and perhaps satisfy this problem of the wife not being here if we took a five minute adjournment and checked the last exhibit with the claim list now filed by the claimant and see how many items are at variance. I might be able to advise him to forget about it.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes, you had better do that and see if it is really necessary to have the wife called, because Penticton is 75 miles away from here.

MR. McTAVISH: Your wife is not here with you today?

A: My wife is here.

THE COMMISSIONER: She is here?

A: She is at Penticton, at home.

THE COMMISSIONER: Oh, at home.

MR. McMASTER: Well, if we may have a five-minute adjournment, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

(AFTER A SHORT RECESS, THE PROCEEDINGS RESUMED.)

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, we have checked as best we could, and it is impossible to identify the items shown here with the items on the revised list. The only item we can really identify is the gramophone which was shown on this at $75.00 and for which the claimant is claiming $100.00. One bureau is on this original list at $18.00 and there were two in the claimants claim, for which he is claiming $25.00. On this list there are 16 chairs shown at $20.00, and on the claimant's list there were 14 chairs at $14.00. There is one trunk, clothes and bed linen, $25.00, on this list, and in the claimant's form there is one trunk shown, without listing the contents, at $5.00. They are very hard to correlate.

Q: Would you ask the claimant if he had owned a motor vessel called the "New Island"?

A: I was allowed to use it freely, but it did not belong to me; it wasn't registered in my name.

Q: Was it your boat? A: It belonged to my brother-in-law, but I was allowed to use it freely.

Q: Did you leave some tools and fishing equipment on this boat? A: Very few only, a hook and a pump were the only things left there.

Q:

Q: Did you put in a claim, claiming that you had lost certain fishing gear and equipment to the Navy?

A: I have not claimed it.

Q: Have you been paid anything by the Dominion Government with regard to any articles you claimed have been lost?

A: The Custodian has sent some money to me, but I have sent it back, I have returned it.

Q: The fishing articles shown here, then, represent all the fishing articles you owned.

MR. McMASTER: I would aks my friend if he would identify where "here" is for the record.

A: I don't remember putting any claim in for the fishing gear or anything, because I don't possess them. The only thing I possessed was a hook and a pump.

MR. McTAVISH: Q: That is the only thing in addition to what is shown on the Claims Analysis?

A: There was no fishing gear at all. I am not a fisherman, I don't possess those things.

Q: I will show you item No. 21 here on the Claims Analysis, "Boxes (21) Kitchenware, silverware, tools for fish boat and gears." Did you put in a claim for that?

A: He says there is a misinterpretation of the meaning of "gear." He says that meant only the hook and a pump in a box.

Q: Your hook and the pump were in a box, or did you leave them on the fish boat?

A: Not on the boat, but in the house with the other chattels they were left.

Q: I show you item No. 26 on your Claims Analysis, a bundle of fish gaffs. Did you leave those?

A: I have no recollection of them.

Q: You have no recollection of those items.

A: There must be some mistake.

Q: Have you checked through this claims analysis, the items shown here?

A: I can't read or write English, so my children had examined it and I just signed it.

Q: Did you own a canvas roll containing navigation charts, sea maps, etc.?

A: Yes, that is mine.

Q: But you didn't own the bundle of fish gaffs?

A: (Question interpreted)

Q: Do you know what a fish gaff is? A: Yes.

Q: You know that?

A: He says that he owned that, but he told you he didn't, but just now he says he didn't.

Q: Were this bundle of fish gaffs worth $25.00?

A: It was worth $25.00 before. Three thousand gaffs, he said.

Q: Would you say that all your fishing equipment is shown on this list? A: Yes, that is all.

MR. McTAVISH: Your honour, the notes I have from the Custodian's Department admit that the storage place at 7857 Selkirk street where the claimant's goods were stored was thoroughly ransacked at some time his goods were there, which might explain the articles shown missing on the claims analysis form.

MR. McTAVISH: That is all.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. McMASTER:

Q: Witness, you just said in your evidence that you had 3,000 hooks, is that right?

THE WITNESS: A: Yes.

Q: What sort of hooks were those, were they big hooks or little hooks? A: Yes, big.

Q: And did those hooks appear any place on this inventory that the Custodian had taken when he moved the stuff to safe-keeping?

A: You know, small box in a package. I don't know.

Q: Did you interpret the bundle of fish gaffs to mean those hooks? A: Yes.

Q: That is what you interpreted it to mean?

A: Yes.

Q: Now, who paid for this gramophone?

THE INTERPRETER: A: I paid for it.

Q: You bought it?

THE WITNESS: A: Yes.

Q: And you have stated on Exhibit No. 1 that you paid $175.00 in 1935 for it.

THE INTERPRETER: Q: With the records.

Q: And you estimate that the value at the date that you were evacuated was $100.00. A: Yes.

Q: Now, if your wife did place a value on that gramophone of $75.00, do you think that was a proper estimate of the value of the gramophone at the time you moved?

A: My wife didn't know the value of it.

MR. McMASTER: That is all.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very good, thank you.
