(HIS HONOUR, JUDGE ERIC P. DAWSON, SUB-COMMISSIONER)

Grand Forks, B.C.

May 26, 1948

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

TATSUMATSU NAKATANI

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

APPEARANCES:

HAROLD W. McINNES, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
A.E. COBUS, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.
L.A. DODD, Esq.,	Secretary to Grand Forks Sub-Commission
G.N.R. UPTON, Esq.,	Official Interpreter
G. HAMBLETON, Esq.,	Official Reporter

MR. COBUS: The claim, your honour, of Nakatani, Tatsumatsu, No. 63 on the Secretary's list, which becomes, Mr. Secretary, I take it, No. 273.

THE SECRETARY: That is right, 273.

TATSUMATSU NAKATANI, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official interpreter as follows:

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave, your honour, to amend the claim. The claimant shows his claim for a boat on the title side of the claim form, which will be left as is; that is, the boat value remains at $800.00 and the Custodian credit, $300.00, leaving a net claim for the boat of $500.00. As to the claim for articles listed under the itemized description of personal property, we have eliminated items 7, 8, 9 and 10, which are, in fact, gear on the vessel. In other words, the boat claim remains at $800.00, but we have eliminated a separate claim of $86.50 for boat gear.

THE COMMISSIONER: The $86.50 includes these four items, does it?

MR. COBUS: It does, your honour. That leaves, for the items one to six, a total of $400.00, and a credit to the Custodian for sales against the nets and lines of $65.05, it leaves a net personal property claim of $334.95.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is against the $400.00. The total of those other items is $400.00, isn't it?

MR. COBUS: That is correct, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: The balance is the difference.

MR. COBUS: $334.95 is the balance. The total claim becomes $834.95.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. COBUS:

Q: Witness, I produce to you a statement concerning nets and lines and a fishing vessel. Did you instruct Mr. Leckie to prepare this statement and is that your signature -- or your mark?

A: Yes.

Q: Are the statements contained therein true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A: Yes.

MR. COBUS: I would ask to file the statement concerning nets, lines and the vessel as the first exhibit, your honour.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. COBUS: Referring to the statement, your honour, the claimant has listed three nets, two sockeye nets and one a Japanese net, and one lead line and a cork line and a codfish line. The values in the final column are shown to total $400.00.

As to the vessel, it was known as the "TN 1136". It was a codfisher type vessel, built for the claimant in 1926. He paid $700.00 for the hull. He notes that the maintenance work done on the vessel whilst it was in his possession consisted of scraping and painting three times a year. It was in good condition when it was surrendered to the Navy and he estimates the value to be $800.00, including the gear, which is then listed in the statement under the heading "other gear." The cost of that gear, he says, is $86.50, and he estimates that its value is $50.00. However, the claim is being made for $800.00 only inclusive of the gear listed in the statement.

THE COMMISSIONER: What about the engine; was the engine included in the $700.00?

MR. COBUS: The $700.00 was for the hull only, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: Not the engine.

MR. COBUS: The $600.00 item there refers to what I omitted to go over in dealing with the statement. The $600.00 item refers to the Easthope gas engine, 8 H.P., which was installed in 1926 in a new condition.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. COBUS: The vessel was surrendered to the Navy at Steveston in December, 1941. The claimant comments that he considers the market value of $340.00 estimated by the Custodian's appraisor, Mr. Gould, in August, 1942, and the sale by the Custodian in December, 1942, do not represent the fair value for the vessel. At the time of sale he believes the vessel was worth at least $800.00. He addes that he has allowed for depreciation on the nets and lines, also on the vessel and gear.

I would ask my learned friend to produce the appraisal on the vessel "TN 1136."

MR. McINNES: That is John Gould's appraisal, is that it?

MR. COBUS: That is right. I have what purports to be a survey report dated August, 1942 at Vancouver and signed by John Gould, Marine Surveyor, respecting the vessel "TN 1136," which I file on behalf of the Crown.

(APPRAISAL MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

MR. COBUS: Would my learned friend produce the vessel statement from his file? Would my learned friend admit that the date of the sale of the vessel in question was December 30, 1942?

MR. McINNES: Yes.

MR. COBUS: And that it was transferred by a bill of sale signed by the Custodian?

MR. McINNES: That would appear to be so, from this record, your honour.

MR. COBUS: And that the selling price was $300.00?

MR. McINNES: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, that was after the Order in Council vesting those vessels in the Custodian, which was August, 1942, wasn't it?

MR. COBUS: That is correct, your honour.

Your witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. McINNES:

Q: This boat was built in 1926?

A: I think so, although I have forgotten the date when she was built.

Q: Yes. When did you buy it?

A: I had this boat built for myself, but I am an old man and I do not know the date exactly.

Q: It was built for you? A: Yes, it was built for me.

Q: So that it was about 16 years old when it was sold? A: I think it was about 16 years old. I think so.

Q: Now, you signed a "No Property" declaration, did you not, when you were evacuated?

THE COMMISSIONER: What do you call that, Mr. McInnes?

MR. McINNES: It is a Form "J". It is a "No Property" declaration, that is, that he certifies that he has no property of any kind within the protected area.

MR. COBUS: Your honour, is this being directed to the vessel or to perhaps some other portion of the claim, because, if it is being directed to the vessel --

MR. McINNES: The vessel is over and done with. We are finished with that.

MR. COBUS: It seems to be entirely irrelevant.

MR. McINNES: Don't talk absolute nonsense. How could it be directed to the vessel? We have admitted we sold the vessel for $300.00.

MR. COBUS: I am attacking that particular form, Mr. McInnes. I don't consider the question is nonsensical at all.

MR. McINNES: The man is filing a claim here for a vessel, and then he goes along and claims for gear, and he claims for a lot of nets.

MR. COBUS: Very well, Mr. McInnes, if you are pursuing the nets and lines, I am perfectly satisfied. I merely questioned your bringing that up immediately following a question concerning the vessel.

MR. McINNES: Well, your honour, if it is necessary for my learned friend's purposes that I make a direct pause between each question and indicate what I am directing it to, I will do so.

THE COMMISSIONER: You are directing your cross-examination with regard to the nets at the present time.

MR. McINNES: And the gear.

THE COMMISSIONER: And the gear. And you are producing a "No Property" declaration which you are examining on. I think that is within Mr. McInnes' rights.

MR. McINNES: Q: That is your signature?

A: Yes, I signed this. I couldn't write English, so I wrote my name in Japanese.

Q: And it appears to be dated the 3rd of April, 1942. A: I think so.

MR. McINNES: I would like to file that, your honour, as Exhibit No. 3.

(DOCUMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3)

Q: Have you a son known as Takao -- or however you pronounce it? A: I have a son called Takao.

Q: Did you file a J.P. form at any time?

A: I did not sign any form.

Q: What money did you receive from the Custodian except the money for the boat? A: I didn't receive anything.

MR. McINNES: What credit was it you gave us there?

MR. COBUS: $65.05.

MR. McINNES: You concede that, although your client says he didn't receive any money?

MR. COBUS: Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Have you any proof of that money being paid to the claimant, that $65.05?

MR. COBUS: We were instructed, your honour, that he did receive the $65.05 and the claimant was willing to credit the Custodian with the amount.

MR. McINNES: It will be submitted, your honour, that the vessel was sold for its fair market value. As far as the remainder of the claim is concerned, it will be submitted that these nets were never declared by this claimant, and it will be further submitted that his son, Takao, signed — or filed a J.P. form in which, we submit, the identical nets were claimed for and that he has also filed a claim which will be dealt with. As far as the gear is concerned, we submit that it was sold for its fair market value.

That is all, thank you.

MR. COBUS: Would my learned friend advise if the J.P. form of the son, Takao Nakatani, is in the file of the present claimant?

MR. McINNES: It is.

MR. COBUS: Would my learned friend produce that document?

MR. McINNES: Well, I have what purports to be one.

THE COMMISSIONER: Signed by the son?

MR. McINNES: I will produce what I have here.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. COBUS: Thank you.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. COBUS:

Q: Witness, I produce to you a document known as a J.P. form dated the 3rd of April, 1942, signed by T. Nakatani. Do you recognize the signature?

A: I can't recognize English. It may be the signature of my son.

Q: Do you know whether your son declared your nets or his nets?

A: They were the nets belonging to my son and to myself.

Q: And the nets that you are now claiming for, you are claiming on your own behalf?

A: Yes.

Q: Is your son claiming separately from you?

A: I do not know. I haven't heard anything of that nature.

THE COMMISSIONER: What does he mean, Mr. Interpreter -- he doesn't know whether his son is claiming, is that what he says?

THE INTERPRETER: He doesn't know whether his son is claiming.

MR. COBUS: Would my learned friend produce the personal property analysis form?

(Handed to Mr. Cobus)

I have what purports to be an Analysis of Personal Property Claim produced from the Custodian's file which I would ask to file on behalf of the Crown, and point out that in the second column, under the heading "Inventory," which is not dated is this note: "Found at Gulf of Georgia tagged "T. Nakatani" bundles of corks and net, without lines. No lead line found." In the first column is a note to the effect that his son, that is, the claimant's son, Takao Nakatani, did in fact declare three nets and certain lines and certain corks. In the final column, under "remarks," this note: "Mr. Takao Nakatani son of claimant declared nets and lines. Nets and corks found tagged "T. Nakatani" were sold and the proceeds were credited to his account. In addition to the nets and corks, a boat mattress was sold for $3.00, which was credited to Mr. Takao Nakatani."

I would ask that that statement be filed on behalf of the Crown.

That is all, your honour.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4)

MR. McINNES: Your honour, for the purposes of the record and for the information of my friend, there is in this file the net statement. It is dated January 26, 1944. It is made out to Takao Nakatani, who apparently is the son of this man. His registration No. is 03439, his file No. is 1067. It shows that the nets were sold, and a boat mattress, for a total of $68.05 which was credited to Takao Nakatani at the time.

THE COMMISSIONER: Takao Nakatani, that is the son.

MR. McINNES: To the son.

THE COMMISSIONER: This man is Tatsumatsu.

MR. COBUS: Of course, your honour, the credit has actually been shown on the Analysis of Personal Property Claim with respect to the present claimant, and those figures, I think, have already been given.

MR. McINNES: That is all.

THE COMMISSIONER: Are you filing that statement, Mr. McInnes?

MR. McINNES: I can, if your honour thinks it should be filed, the net statement.

THE COMMISSIONER: I think it might be just as well, because there is no record on the Analysis of Personal Property claim about it.

MR. COBUS: Your honour, there is no indication, of course, on that particular statement that it is worth any more than appears on the surface. There is no initial on it, as far as I know, and save for the fact that it comes out of the Custodian's file --

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, it is read into the record, and that is probably sufficient, then.

MR. McINNES: I might as well file this, your honour, for what it is worth.

(NET STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5)

THE COMMISSIONER: You have no further examination, then, Mr. McInnes?

MR. McINNES: No, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: Mr. Cobus, you don't want to ask anything more?

MR. COBUS: Nothing more, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very well.

Additional Comments, if any:
I consider that the market value of $340 00 estimated by the Custodian's appraiser in Gould in Aug 1942 and the sale by the Custodian for @ 300 in December 1942 did not represent the fair value for the vessel. At the time of sale I believe this vessel was worth at least $ 600 00. I have allowed for depreciation on nets & lines, also on vessel and gear
