(HIS HONOUR, JUDGE ERIC P. DAWSON, SUB-COMMISSIONER)

Grand Forks, B.C.

May 28, 1948

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

(MRS) TOSHIYE MINAMIDE

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING

APPEARANCES:

HAROLD W. McINNES, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
A.E. COBUS, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.

L.A. DODD, Esq.,	Secretary to Grand Forks Sub-Commission
G.N.R. UPTON, Esq.,	Official Interpreter
G. HAMBLETON, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

MR. COBUS: The claim, your honour, of Minamide, Toshiye, No. 40 on the Secretary's list, which becomes Case No. 286.

(MRS) TOSHIYE MINAMIDE, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the official interpreter as follows:

MR. COBUS: I would ask leave, your honour, to amend the claim which was originally shown under 4 (e) (ii) for buildings, $450.00. That claim is being abandoned, your honour. The item $1000.00, under 4 (e)(iii) should be crossed out as well as the figures under 4 and 5 because we have set the claim up as a personal chattels claim entirely.

THE COMMISSIONER: All this is deleted, then.

MR. COBUS: Yes, your honour. The personal property claim and the list attached to the claim should be shown revised, that is, we have struck a line through all of the writing under 5 (e) and through the attached list. The claim can be summarized as personal property under three heads, that is to say, fixtures in the amount of $365.50, stock-in-trade, $121.90.

THE COMMISSIONER: $121.90.

MR. COBUS: And household furniture and household articles in the amount of $565.00, making a total personal property claim of $1052.40.

We were unable, your honour, to determine, either from our own file or from instructions from the claimant or from the Custodian's file, the amount of credit that should be allowed. There are certain credits that will eventually be struck, but we are not able to determine that at this time.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, I will mark on the claim "credits unascertained."

MR. COBUS: That is correct, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, then, we are going to change the amount down in (f) to $1052.40.

MR. COBUS: Yes, your honour.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. COBUS:

Q: Witness, I produce to you a personal chattels statement form which is headed, (a) Store Fixtures, (b) Store Merchandize, (c) Household Furniture and Household Articles. Did you instruct Mr. Leckie to prepare this statement for you and is that your signature? A: Yes.

Q: Are the statements contained therein true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A: Yes.

Q: I produce to you now three separate lists, the first being headed "Store Fixtures" under (a), the second being store merchandize at cost price under (b), and a third under (c), household furniture and chattels. Are these three lists the lists you refer to in your personal chattels statement? A: Yes.

Q: And the information contained on the lists is true to the best of your knowledge and recollection? A: Yes.

MR. COBUS: I would ask to file the personal chattels statement, your honour, and the three lists as one exhibit.

(STATEMENT AND LISTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

MR. COBUS: Referring to the statement, Exhibit 1, your honour, the witness says that the store fixtures were left in their store at Pacific Coast Cannery, Steveston, B.C. The store merchandize was packed in three boxes and left in the store. The household furniture and personal and household articles were left in rooms behind the store. Large articles were left as they were and smaller articles were packed. The windows were covered with galvanized iron and the doors boarded up and locked. She says that in her claim form she claimed $1000.00 in connection with her business.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is goodwill.

MR. COBUS: Yes, your honour. She says that this sum included buildings, store fixtures and merchandize. "I have now been advised that I may include the store fixtures and store merchandize, and have revised my claim accordingly."

THE COMMISSIONER: So there is no claim now for goodwill.

MR. COBUS: No, your honour. She goes on to say that she has allowed for depreciation on store fixutres and on the household chattels. With respect to the store merchandize, she used cost prices as the estimated value thereof.

THE COMMISSIONER: I notice the declaration on the claim form isn't signed by the claimant.

MR. COBUS: Yes, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: There is no objection being raised to that, is there?

MR. McINNES: I discussed that with my friend. I am quite satisfied it is her claim.

MR. COBUS: I would ask my learned friend to produce the analysis of personal property claim.

(Handed to Mr. Cobus)

I have, produced from the Custodian's file, a document headed Analysis of Personal Property Claim in the name of Minamide, Toshiye. I would ask to file it on behalf of the Crown.

I think the only comment I would make with respect to the Analysis of Personal Property Claim, your honour, is that in the third column under "Details of Claim," the bottom of the typed list there has a heading "Other sales." There is no claim being made against these articles listed under the heading "Other sales."

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. COBUS: With respect to the first column, your honour, under the heading "Stored at Minamide Confectionery Store, Pacific Coast Cannery, Steveston, B.C.," which is, I believe, a copy of the J.P.L. declaration information "one gramophone and records (record player with records)" is shown under the first heading in the first group; then, towards the bottom of the form, your honour, under the heading "Declared on the husband's J.P., May 10, 1943," and under the heading, "Personal effects," about ten items down, "one Victor gramophone" is shown.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. COBUS: Q: Witness, how many gramophone's did you own, or did you and your husband own together in Steveston? A: Two.

Q: And in your claim for gramophone and records you show one gramophone motor, No. 138, and one gramophone, Victor. Those are the two gramophones, I take it, that were declared?

A: Yes.

MR. COBUS: Those two items, your honour, appear on List "C" which is part of the personal chattels.

THE COMMISSIONER: There is only one "gramophone and records" appearing under details in column 3.

MR. COBUS: Yes, but I suppose this is gratuitous entirely. Quite frequently we have found that the Japanese don't distinguish quite accurately between a singular and a plural. I mean, I am simply offering that as a suggestion, pointing out that in fact there appears to be a record of two declarations of a gramophone.

Your witness.

MR. McINNES: It is submitted, your honour, that the goods of the claimant, such as came into the hands of the Custodian, were sold for their fair market value, and with respect to the others, that the claim of the claimant is exhorbitant.

For the information of my friend, I wish to point out two matters. First, that it appears from the claim form, signed on the 25th of November, 1947, that the fixtures claimed there total $160.00 as against $365.00 now claimed.

THE COMMISSIONER: What is this, now, Mr. McInnes?

MR. McINNES: I say they are now claiming $365.00 for store fixtures, and, as I read the claim form, the original claim was $160.00.

MR. COBUS: Where would that be, Mr. McInnes? I don't see that.

THE COMMISSIONER: Store fixtures, $365.00.

MR. COBUS: Those are not store fixtures, your honour, those are not the same list as we have set up under the heading "Store Fixtures."

MR. McINNES: Well, then, alternatively, there was no claim for store fixtures at all in the claim filed.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is in the J.P. form.

MR. McINNES: No, in the claim.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. McINNES:

Q: Witness, you made your declaration on the 3rd of April, 1942, your J.P. declaration?

A: Yes.

Q: And you were evacuated on May 11, 1942?

A: Yes.

Q: So that you were in these premises for about five weeks after you made your J.P. declaration?

A: Yes.

MR. McINNES: That is all, thank you.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. COBUS:

Q: Witness, where did you sign your J.P. declaration form? Perhaps I should show it to you. Do you recall signing this form known as a J.P. form which I produce to you now on the 3rd day of April, 1942? A: Yes.

Q: And where did you make this declaration?

A: In Steveston.

Q: You were then living in the store at Steveston, were you? A: Yes.

Q: Did you continue to live in the store premises at Steveston until some time in May, after you made your J.P. declaration? A: Yes.

Q: That is, you were permitted to stay on the premises, were you; you weren't moved to Vancouver or anything like that?

A: No.

Q: But the goods that you declared on your J.P. declaration were left in the store in the manner in which you have stated in your personal chattels statement, is that correct? A: Yes.

MR. COBUS: Referring to Exhibit 2, your honour, I would point out that the Custodian shows a storage list, No. 63, taken by C.C. Robinson, dated August 25, 1942. I think there is no need for asking my learned friend to produce that storage list since it is on the Custodian's file, or his analysis.

THE COMMISSIONER: Does any question turn on whether any of the goods that were shipped were received or anything of that kind?

MR. COBUS: No, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: There were certain shipments, apparently, made.

MR. McINNES: No.

MR. COBUS: Nothing more for me, your honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right.
