PART 1, REVISED STATUTES OF CANADA 1927, CHAPTER 99.

JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

B E F O R E

(THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE H.I. BIRD, COMMISSIONER)

Lethbridge, Alberta,

March 30th, 1948.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

YOSHIO YAMAMOTO and MASAO YAMAMOTO.

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

APPEARANCES:

J.W.G. HUNTER, Esq.,	appearing for the Dominion Government.
L. S. TURCOTTE, Esq.,	appearing for the Claimant.

A. WATSON, Esq.,	Secretary.
G.N.R. UPTON, Esq.,	Official Interpreter.
T.P. HORROBIN, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

MR. TURCOTTE: The next case is Yamamoto, Yoshio and Masao.

YOSHIO YAMAMOTO, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

THE INTERPRETER: This man says he speaks a certain amount of English but if he doesn't understand at any time he will tell me.

MR. TURCOTTE: My lord, I would like to make some amendments in the claim on land and reduce it to $1785.00, that is the land value, and the buildings to $1300.00, making a total of $3,085.00, and received from the Custodian $1870.75, which was the selling price. That makes a total real property claim, $1254.25, and on the personal property I will reduce the claim to $500.00 received from the Custodian and $22.50 which brings it down to $477.50, thereby making a total claim of $1731.75.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. TURCOTTE:

Q I am showing you a statement . Is that your signature on it? A: Yes.

Q And has that been prepared by me according to what you told me? A: Yes.

Q Have you read it over? A: Yes.

Q And is it true to the best of your belief?

A Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: This is the real property statement, my lord.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

Q I am showing you another statement. Is that your signature? A: Yes.

Q Have you read that over? A: Yes.

Q And it is true to the best of your belief and information and remembrance?

A Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: This is the personal property statement, my lord.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. TURCOTTE: Will my learned friend admit that the assessed value of the land is $1486.00 and improvements, $880.00, making a total of $2306.00?

MR. HUNTER: That is correct, my lord, $2356.00.

MR. TURCOTTEE: Yes, $2356.00, that is right.

Q I understand, Mr. Yamamoto, that you had been on this land for about ten years?

A Yes.

Q And you had bought it about two years previous to being evacuated? A: Yes.

Q And it was a cultivated farm?

A Yes.

Q You show something over an acre of strawberries?

A Yes.

Q Are you sure that there was more than an acre?

A Yes.

Q And what else did you have planted there?

A Peas.

Q Now, the acre of strawberries, did you make money off them? A: No.

Q What do you mean by "no"? A: We didn't sell them.

Q I beg your pardon? A: We didn't pick those strawberries.

Q You didn't pick the strawberries?

A No.

MR. HUNTER: I think he means when he was evacuated.

MR. TURCOTTE: Q: How long had you been growing strawberries? A: For two years.

Q Oh, 2 years. You had just started your strawberries?

A Yes.

Q So they were not ready, is that the idea?

A Yes.

Q When would you have started to make money out of them? A: Oh, the second year.

Q I thought you said you had them for two years?

A Two years. Planted the first year -- two years.

Q You just planted them? What year did you plant them, maybe we can get it that way. You left in 1942? A: Yes, before that year.

Q In 1941? A: Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: I would like to point out, my lord, with reference to the strawberries, the appraiser says there was a little less than an acre, and his map, if it is correct, I think would show there was a littlemore than an acre. It is just a point.

THE COMMISSIONER: You might file the appraisal. What is it, the Soldier Settlement Board?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, my lord.

(APPRAISAL MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. TURCOTTE: That is, if my arithmetic is right, in measuring the amount of his strawberry patch, it looks to me like an acre and a fifth. He says nine-tenths. However, it doesn't make much difference. I would also like to point out it is rather interesting this land is valued at $250.00 an acre which is a very good valuation as far as land goes from Soldier Settlement Board valuations.

I don't think I have changed it on Mr. Hunter's forms, but the years for building those buildings are opposite. 1939 is the first building, and 1940 was the second. I changed it on yours, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: I understand there is no dwelling on this property.

MR. TURCOTTE: No.

Q No house ? A: No house.

Q You lived with your father? A: Yes.

Q Across the road, was it? A: No, another place.

Q Another place, I see. Now, on your chattel claim, Mr. Yamamoto, I am showing you a document. Will you tell me what that is? A: Yes.

Q What is it? What is this paper?

A All that is chattels which I left.

Q That is a list of your chattels that you left in BritishColumbia? A: Yes.

Q When did you write this? A: When I evacuated from B. C.

Q Before or after? A: Before.

Q Before. I would like to put that in, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Was that kept by himself?

MR. TURCOTTE: Q: Have you had this all the time?

A Yes.

MR. HUNTER: Is it the same as the claim?

MR. TURCOTTE: This is the same as April, 1943. This apparently was used to make that one (indicating) from the looks of it.

THE COMMISSIONER: The contents of this list were furnished to the Custodian, is that right?

MR. TURCOTTE: In 1943, after he came here.

THE COMMISSIONER: Had there been any disclosure of chattels in his J.P. form?

MR. TURCOTTE: No. In fact I think he signed a form saying he hadn't any.

(LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

Q You signed a form for the Custodian saying you had no chattels? A: Yes.

Q Why did you do that?

A Some of our people say if taken by the Custodian they won't pay anything, so I didn't like that.

THE COMMISSIONER: nYou better interpret that answer. I think I get what he means.

THE INTERPRETER: At that time there was a lot of propaganda and rumour going about that the Government or the Custodian wouldn't pay us anything for these goods, so I signed one of those forms.

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE:Q:I notice on this form, Mr. Yamamoto, that you have a horse plough and a disc and some harness, and that is not in your claim. Why isn't that in your claim?

THE WITNESS: A: No, that belonged to dad.

Q That belonged to your father, yes. You have it marked there belonging to your father -- to "Da", I suppose that is "dad".

THE INTERPRETER: Yes, he has them marked there.

MR. TURCOTTE: Q: And you have made no claim for them?

A No.

Q Now, in your claim that you have put in to the Government and also in the form that you signed two or three months ago, you put in certain values and said they were worth so much. How did you arrive at those figures that you put in your claim?

A It was the price at which I bought.

Q The price at which you bought. So that after you talked to me, I think you reduced your claim by half to what you think is probably a fair price at the time that you were removed from British Columbia, is that correct?

THE WITNESS: A: Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: I would like the Custodian to produce, or rather counsel for the Custodian, to produce a letter dated April 3rd, 1943, from A. Augustus.

MR. HUNTER: This was received on April 3rd. It has no date on it.

MR. TURCOTTE: I would like that marked, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Was it written by this man?

MR. TURCOTTE: No. It is written by a man named Augustus.

THE COMMISSIONER: What connection has he with the claimant?

MR. TURCOTTE: He is offering to buy a pile of bean sticks and refers to other chattels.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very well.

MR. TURCOTTE: (Reading). I merely point out that apparently at that time when that letter was written that the disc and the plough owned by the father and the disc cultivator shown in the claim was still on the property.

THE COMMISSIONER: They were later missing, were they?

MR. TURCOTTE: I beg your pardon, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: They were found to be missing.

MR. TURCOTTE: Apparently. There was nothing found with the exception of the bean poles and a set of harness. Then there are some notations on the bottom, "Sticks only okay as fear of being stolen. C.C.R. reports C.C.R. investigating implements." That is apparently a notation by someone in the Custodian's office.

THE COMMISSIONER: That will be Exhibit 5.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5).

MR. TURCOTTE: That is all, my lord.

MR. HUNTER: It is submitted, my lord, that the real property was sold for its fair market value. Is this Yoshio or Masao here?

MR. TURCOTTE: Yoshio.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HUNTER:

Q Is that your J.P. form? A: Yes.

Q And that is your signature on it?

A Yes.

MR. HUNTER: I will put that in as the next exhibit.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6).

MR. HUNTER: Exhibit 6 shows no personal property, my lord.

Q Do you know your brother's signature?

A Yes.

Q Would that be his signature?

A Yes.

MR. HUNTER: Apparently they started to complete a J.P. form for the brother and then they found he had nothing and had him complete one of the J forms, my lord.

MR. TURCOTTE: He shows real property on the J.P. form and then afterwards signs a form that he has nothing.

THE COMMISSIONER: He shows real property but I think the other form relates only to chattels, doesn't it?

MR. TURCOTTE: No property of any kind whatsoever. Apparently he didn't read very carefully what he signed.

THE COMMISSIONER: Put them both in together then.

MR. HUNTER: It looks as if they started to declare real property and decided against it.

I suggest they go in as one exhibit, or do you wish them attached to Exhibit 6?

THE COMMISSIONER: No, that is all right.

(FORMS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 7).

MR. HUNTER: Q: Now, Mr. Yamamoto, where did you leave these chattels for which you are claiming?

A In the storage barn.

Q In the barn? A: Yes.

Q Was the barn locked? A: Yes.

Q Whereabouts in the barn were they left? What part of the barn? A: That part, I think is the west side of the barn in the upstairs.

Q In the loft upstairs?

A No, no loft.

Q There is no loft, and you rented this property before you left, didn't you?

A To the neighbour, you know, a white man, and one to Mr. Herbert.

Q You rented the farm to Mr. Herbert, didn't you?

A Yes.

MR. TURCOTTE: I am sorry, my lord, I didn't put that very short lease in. Perhaps it should go in.

MR. HUNTER : I haven't seen it. May I see it?

MR. TURCOTTE: It is mentioned in the statement.

MR. HUNTER: Perhaps I had better read this into the record. It is dated the 20th of April, 1942, signed by the two Yamamotos, and E.H. Herbert. It says, "I agree to rent Mr. E. Herbert three and a half acres on No. 1 Road for $50.00 for 1942, and I continue to rent 6½ acres for $100.00 per year until Yamamoto comes back. He have permission to use my barn and he responsible for my implements and stocks". Then someone has crossed out the word "stocks", so it reads "he responsible for my implements and".

(LEASE MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 10).

MR. HUNTER: Q: Now was your furniture stored in the barn as well or where was it, or is there any furniture at all? That is all equipment, isn't it?

MR. TURCOTTE: There is one bed.

MR. HUNTER: There seems to be a sewing machine, too.

Q Where was the sewing machine left?

A In the barn.

Q It was in the barn, was it? A: Yes.

Q Then there is a bookcase. Was that left in the barn?

A Yes.

Q All these items claimed for, every single one of them, were all left in the barn; is that correct?

A Yes.

MR. HUNTER: It is submitted, my lord, that these chattels, not having been declared until April, 1943, were not found, and they were not found by reason of the erroneous statement of the claimant and accordingly no claim should be entertained in that event, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: There is this difficulty that the Custodian perhaps is in, Mr. Hunter; on April 3rd, 1943, these articles were in the barn according to the Augustus letter. Also in the same barn there was one horse disc, a horse cultivator, and a horse plough.

MR. HUNTER: Only one of those, I understand, is being claimed for by these claimants, the cultivator.

THE COMMISSIONER: Only the cultivator?

MR. TURCOTTE: Yes, my lord. The only thing I suggest is this, that having received that letter and also the claim in 1943 there should be something in the Custodian's file to show that they made some effort to locate these chattels. I looked it over rather carefully and I couldn't see anything in it. There may be something in the big file, but there isn't anything in the file Mr. Hunter has here.

THE COMMISSIONER: Of course that defence will have to be substantiated, Mr. Hunter. You are only declaring it now.

MR. HUNTER: Yes, that is correct, my lord. It is submitted that the bean poles which were sold were sold for their fair market value. I should file the analysis, my lord. It isn't of great value but it may assist.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 9).

MR. HUNTER: That is all, my lord.

Description of Storage of Goods: We left chattels in big building. Herbert rented part of farm on which building situated. Herbert agreed to be responsible for implements but crossed out stocks (which meant rest of our chattels). We made a list of our chattels before we left coast. We sent list to custodian in April, 1943.

General Statement as to Chattels not Described above: In all our chattels we have put down their value to us. We believe that if they had been sold under ordinary conditions in 1942 they would have sold for approximately one-half of values shown or for approximately 500 00 and we reduce our claim to $500 00 or $477.50 after crediting 22 50 for bean poles and harness.

Additional Comments, if any: We signed forms saying we had no chattels. Some other Japanese told us we should not disclose chattels because Government would take everything.

Farm Appraisal Report

Remarks: This property has no dwelling. The Japanese owner built the little horse stable & the vegetable storage shed within the last year & a half. Mr. E. H. Herbert has the North half rented, which he has cropped to potatoes. His wife informed me her husband has the North half & the sheds. She did not know the actual consideration, but stated it was arranged to square a debt the Japanese owed him.

Mrs. Lysak informs me that she paid $50.00 for the strawberry crop & that a Mr. Ricketts nearby has the balance rented, which he has cropped to peas and potatoes. He was not home at time of visit.

This property would subdivide nicely East & West, either 3 parcels or two & would be quite in keeping with similar parcels on the East of No. 1 Road.

(FOR ORCHARD LANDS ONLY)

REMARKS: re general lie of land, fertility of soil, irrigation, drainage or dyking and reclamation.

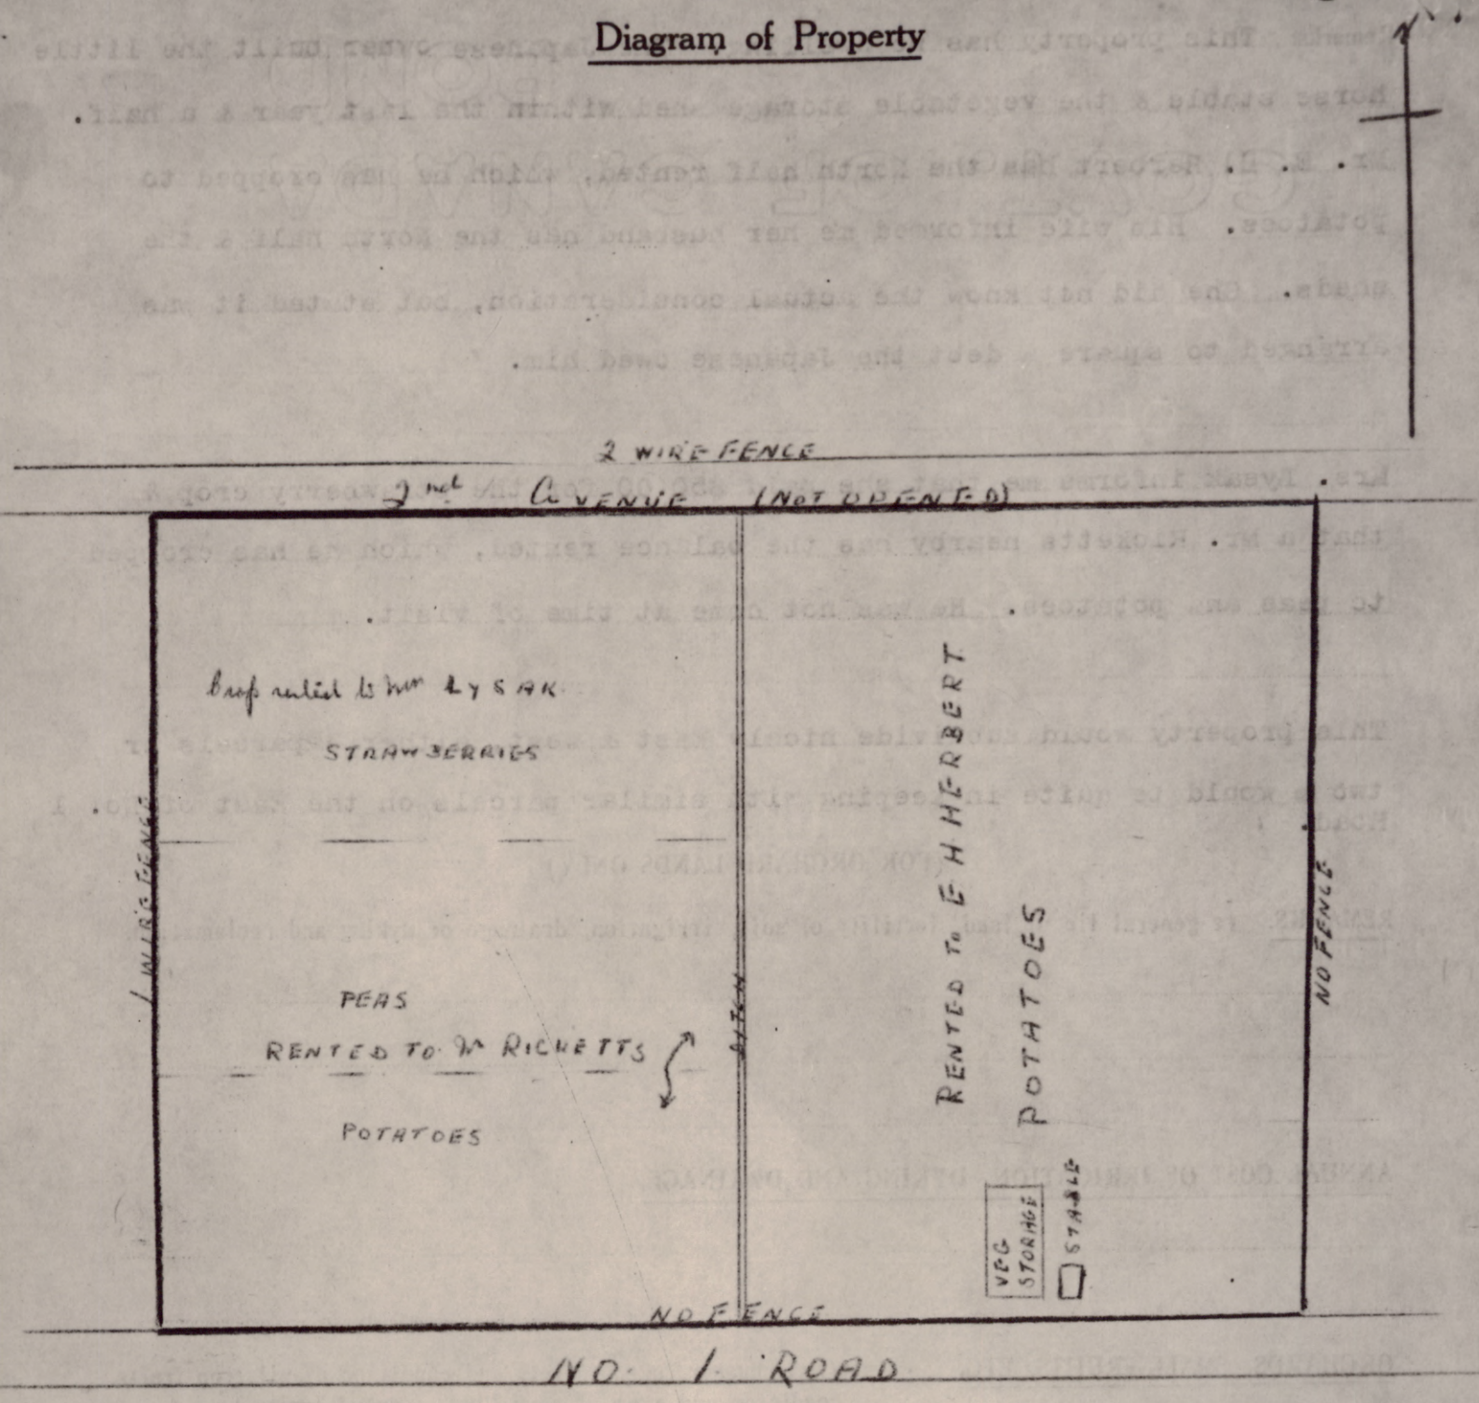

ANNUAL COST OF IRRIGATION, DYKING AND DRAINAGE.

ORCHARDS, SMALL FRUITS, ETC. (Give number, age, variety and condition of all tree fruits, condition and area of each kind of small fruits.)

Laying on south west side of 609 No 1 rd. Lulu Island, next to Peter Lysak property, a Large brown painted barn, owned before, by Y. or M. Yamamoto, a pile of(bean sticks) what I would like to buy.

Mr Herbert don't use them, because he not planting beans and I am intending to plant 8 acres of beans, if I can get sticks. I tried to get from sawmills, but they said me, that there is no more lumber avalable for sticks.

I also wrote to Y. Yamamoto c/o J. White box 171, Magtate Alberta, but dont get reply.

I will offer for sticks $ 12.00 cash and if I get will be more feed for country.
