S.R. HOWARD, Esq.,	Official Reporter.

THE SECRETARY: Case No. 646, Toyokichi Domae.

TOYOKICHI DOMAE, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. VIRTUE:

Q Now I am showing you a statement of your claim, Mr. Domae (indicating). Will you look at it, please?

A Yes.

Q Is that your signature?

A Yes.

Q Was this claim prepared in my office by you with the assistance of an Interpreter?

A Yes.

Q Did you prepare it carefully? Listen, did you prepare it carefully?

MR. RICE: You mean, Mr. Virtue, did you prepare it carefully.

THE INTERPRETER: A: There are six rooms in the house instead of four as he previously said.

MR. VIRTUE: Q: Oh, six rooms?

A Yes.

Q But is the rest of this claim correct and true?

A Yes.

Q Are the values you have put on your property fair values? A: Yes.

Q And you believe thisclaim to be all true and correct?

A Yes.

MR. VIRTUE: I will offer that as an exhibit.

(SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

MR. VIRTUE: I would ask my learned friend to produce a letter writtem by this man dated December 5th, 1942.

MR. RICE: Yes.

(Letter to Mr. Virtue).

MR. VIRTUE: All right, thank you. Have you the list of July 23rd, 1942, Mr. Rice?

MR. RICE: July, 1942?

MR. VIRTUE: July 23rd, 1942.

(List to Mr. Virtue).

MR. VIRTUE: Q: I show you a paper dated July 23rd in the year 1942, signed with a Japanese signature (indicating). Is that your signature?

A It is my wife's signature.

Q But that was signed for you, signed by your wife for you? A: Yes.

MR. VIRTUE: I will offer that as the second exhibit.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Is that a letter?

MR. VIRTUE: It is a list, sir, of the property, signed by his wife on his behalf.

(LIST MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. VIRTUE: Mr. Rice, may I have the letter of August 14th, 1942, his letter?

MR. RICE: His letter of August?

MR. VIRTUE: Yes, August 14th.

MR. RICE: Here is one August 15th.

MR. VIRTUE: Yes, August 15th, 1942.

Q Now here is a letter dated August 15th, 1942, written by you to the Custodian; is that your signature? A: Yes.

Q And is this list signed by you (indicating)?

A Yes.

MR. VIRTUE: All right, I will put in the letter and the list as one exhibit.

(DOCUMENTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. VIRTUE: My learned friend has a summary taken from the Vessels Records, that is the tidex of it, covering the history of the fishing boat and showing when it was sold.

MR. RICE: Is this the one (indicating)?

MR. VIRTUE: That is it. I would just like to put this in. It is from my learned friend's records and it is a summary taken from Vessels Records, dated August 26th, 1944, showing the sale of this vessel for $345.00, the owner's valuation being $1000.00, and the date of sale November 23rd, 1942.

MR. RICE: Does it show the appraisal?

MR. VIRTUE: It shows the appraisal -- well, no.

MR. RICE: $175.00 and $220.00?

MMR. VIRTUE: No, it has just the J.F.V.D.C. valuation of $345.00.

(SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

MR. VIRTUE: All right, thank you, Mr. Domae.

MR. RICE: I am submitting, your Honour, that the real estate was sold for its fair market value. I am submitting that the Japanese Fishing Vessels Disposal Committee disposed of the fishing vessel referred to in this claim and that part of the claim is therefore not within the terms of reference. I am submitting that the chattels sold and disposed of by the Custodian were sold for their fair market value; the other chattels were taken over by the Navy and never came into the Custodian's possession and the Custodian is not responsible for the same.

I am submitting that other chattels which would appear to have been lost or abandoned or not accounted for, if the Custodian is responsible in any manner for these, and I contend he is not, the claim made for the same is exorbitant.

I wish to submit as an exhibit an analysis of personal property claim.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5).

MR. RICE: I also wish to submit a summary of the real and personal property showing the assessed value.

(SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6).

MR. RICE: I also wish to submit as an exhibit a copy of an appraisal of the real estate made by C.N.W. Evans of R.H. Rowe & Company, Limited, of Nanaimo.

MR. VIRTUE: Well I just take the position that that is put in solely for information and not as evidence at this stage.

(APPRAISAL MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 7).

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. RICE:

Q I show you a J.P. form (indicating). Is that your signature? A: Yes.

Q And that is the list as it was attached to it at the time that you signed it, a list of your chattels? A: Yes.

MR. RICE: I wish to submit, your Honour, the J.P. form as an exhibit.

(J.P. FORM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 8).

MR. VIRTUE: Has my learned friend a copy of that?

MR. RICE: No, I don't believe I have.

MR. VIRTUE: I think probably you have it at the back of your file.

MR. RICE: No, I haven't.

MR. VIRTUE: All right.

MR. RICE: Q: I show you a letter purported to have been written by you to the Custodian on December 5th, 1942 (indicating). Did you write that letter or did you cause it to be written for you?

A My son wrote this for me.

Q Your son wrote this for you?

A Yes, my son wrote this for me.

Q And you requested your son to do it, did you?

A Yes, I can't write well, so that he wrote it for me.

Q On your instructions?

A Yes.

MR. RICE: This is a letter, your Honour, dated December 5th, 1942, "Thanks for the letter which we received on December 1st,"--

I am not sure of the date,--

"As it mentioned in your letter that you cannot take the responsibility for the things we told to you on August 15th it is "that we left these fishing equipment to Mr. Tom Liston of Vancouver Avenue, items such as anchors, 25 pound, 30 pound, 20 pound, 10 pound. New anchor rope, 30 fathom, binoculars, two pairs. Two new water tank, metal one, 30 gallon, 25 gallon. Three wooden box full with used lead line for we had three boat things. These all in that 3 box.

"We wrote to Mr. Liston whether they are still keeping the things in their house or not."

"He told us that he took all the things he kept to Japanese School where they belong. So will you please ask for sure to Mr. Liston."

I wish to tender that as an exhibit.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 9).

MR. RICE: Q: I show you another letter (indicating). Is that your signature?

A No, not my writing.

Q Whose writing is it, do you know?

A That is my son's.

Q Your son's writing?

A Yes.

Q But your son wrote a letter to the Custodian for you at your request and on your instructions?

A Yes.

MR. RICE: This letter, your Honour, is dated April 17th, 1948, in which the claimant lists his personal property.

(LETTER MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 10).

MR. RICE: I do not know whether it has any effect at all, but I wish to tender the survey report of John Gould respecting the vessel in which the vessel is valued at $175.00 and the estimated market value of $220.00.

MR. VIRTUE: I am inclined to think that these should only be filed for identification. I am afraid later on there might be some question that we stood here and let these things go in as exhibits. For instance, at the final hearing, the Crown may not call this man and his report will be in as an exhibit, and I think it should be marked for identification only. In other words, it is not evidence.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: We have been letting them go in for what they are worth.

MR. RICE: If my learned friend doesn't want me to produce it, I won't produce it.

MR. VIRTUE: I think they should be produced, pardon me, Mr. Rice, as that was the understanding that the Crown would show its hand at this hearing and I think that it is quite proper that they should be produced and marked for identification, but to mark a document as a straight exhibit in a case may later on cause some confusion or argument when it comes before the Commissioner considering the effect of these things, so that I would prefer from now on that these things all go in in this way simply for information and be marked for identification only.

MR. RICE: I would prefer not to deal with them at all and let Mr. Gould give his evidence at the Coast.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: That might simplify the matter.

MR. VIRTUE: Oh, no, I think they should be marked for identification.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: We have been letting them go in right along as exhibits.

MR. VIRTUE: I have done that, too, your Honour, in the hearings held here in the spring.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I do not think that we should at this late stage in the hearings change that procedure.

MR. VIRTUE: I will admit my responsibility for it as much as anybody else, because I was here in the spring when that was done, too, and it is a practice that has grown up, I think, but it would perhaps put the record in better shape if we, from now on, adopted what, in my opinion, is a sounder method of dealing with this information which is to simply have these things go in and be marked for identification only.

Now, my learned friend was not present at the Coast when the procedure was discussed but I had that privilege, and the general plan that was arranged by counsel, together with Mr. Justice Bird, that the claimant would appear and present his evidence in person and that it would not be necessary to present any corroborative evidence of his friends and neighbours as to the values, because, generally speaking, the Commissioner intended to take values for what they were worth at the face amount, and with regard to the final assessment, and then that the Crown would furnish the Commission by way of information for the claimant's counsel what might be called an outline of the Crown's case so that the claimant would then have an opportunity on his one appearance before the Commission, which is his only appearance, to answer anything that the Crown intended to bring out later on.

Now that was the sole object and the real object of presenting these things on the part of the Crown at this stage, and consistent with that I believe it would be better practice to have these things marked for identification.

MR. RICE: I won't bother putting it in at all.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: All right.

MR. RICE: If my learned friend doesn't want it as an exhibit.

MR. VIRTUE: Why should my learned friend take that attitude at this time? In other words, he will be breaking the understanding that was entered into by Crown counsel at the Coast.

MR. RICE: I am not trying to break any understanding at all.

MR. VIRTUE: Although Mr. Justice Bird directed it to be done and it was agreed to by counsel on behalf of the Government that it would be put in, and now my learned friend says he won't bother doing that, simply because we ask that it be done in a different way.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: It is merely a survey report of the boat.

MR. RICE: Yes, your Honour.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. RICE: Your Honour, you will recall yesterday that my learned friend was putting in as exhibits memoranda from the Custodian's file that were unsigned and nobody knows where they came from, but still he put them in as exhibits.

MR. VIRTUE: That is something different when we put it in as part of our case.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: I am going to continue the practice we have been following throughout and let the Commissioner deal with it as he thinks proper and best.

MR. RICE: The Commissioner has a well trained mind so far as legal matters are concenned, your Honour, and when it comes to a question of proof he will see that proper proof is made before he lets these things go in.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: We will let it go in subject to your objection, Mr. Virtue.

MR. VIRTUE: All right, sir.

(REPORT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 11).

MR. RICE: Q: You effected certain repairs to your dwelling in 1936 that you say cost you $139.00. Have you a record of those repairs?

A No written record.

Q No written record? A: No.

Q How is it that you remember today that the $139.00 is what you paid for property that you purchased in 1936?

A It actually cost $220.00 in all to repair the house out of which $81.00 was payment for the carpenter's work.

Q Did you pay the carpenter $81.00?

A Yes.

Q Have you a record of that?

A No, I have no record left.

Q No record? A: No.

Q If this house cost you $220.00, why did you swear that the material cost you $139.00?

MR. VIRTUE: I am sure my learned friend does not consciously wish to be unfair to this witness, but that is not what he said. My learned friend is putting forward to him something now that he has not said in his statement. He has said plainly in his statement that the material cost $139.00 and the labour $81.00, making a total of $220.00.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: That is what he is putting to the witness.

MR. VIRTUE: That is what he is taking up, but he has not said that.

MR. RICE: I have been trying to find out how he arrives at those figures.

MR. VIRTUE: But you said to him why if the material cost you $139.00, why do you say that it cost you $220.00.

MR. RICE: I might have misunderstood him because I understood him to say that the material cost $220.00 and the carpenter $81.00.

MR. VIRTUE: No, he did not say that. He said the other.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: No, that is right.

MR. RICE: Q: You can give me no explanation how you arrived at the amount of $139.00?

A There was a lot of work to do. I had to repair the wharf and repair the piles which had grown rotten and altogether I paid the $220.00 out of which $81.00 was the charge for the carpenter's fees.

Q You are just speaking from memory, is that it?

A Yes, I remember.

Q And then again in 1937 with regard to your addition of two rooms, you say the material cost you $280.00. H ave you any record of that?

A No, I have no record or proof but I remember that that was what was to be paid.

MR. RICE: I might call my learned friend's attention to the fact that his addition that he has here of $803.00 for personal chattels should be, I think, $785.00, unless there is something wrong with the adding machine.

MR. VIRTUE: We won't quarrel about that.

MR. RICE: That is all.

MR. VIRTUE: That is all, thanks, Mr. Domae.

For the record I want to call attention to Exhibit 6 headed, "Claim on Real and Personal Property" under (3) the fishing vessel "T.D." valued by the owner at $1000.00 was appraised for the Custodian by marine surveyor John Gould in August, 1942, at $220.00, appraised for the Custodian, and sold on November 23rd, 1942, for $345.00. That is on that form there, sir. Then in addition on the anabysis form again the vessel is shown as valued at $800.00 and sold for $345.00, so that I do not see how the Custodian can now take the position that he does.

MR. RICE: $800.00 is your client's value.

MR. VIRTUE: That is what I say, valued at $800.00 and sold at $345.00. Now that is as far as the boat is concerned.

Also for the record I wish to call attention to a statement on the analysis opposite a considerable number of items, "Taken by Navy". Now, my learned friend says that it was taken by the Navy and the Custodian is not responsible for it. I merely call attention to that fact, your Honour, because we do not care by whom it was taken, the Navy, the Airforce, the Army, or somebody else, if it was under the Custodian's authority he was responsible for it. That is all, sir.

TOYOKICHI, DOMAE No. 07930

In reply to your letter of the 21st ultimo, I regret being unable to sign the inventory as taken by your agent at Nanaimo as it is incomplete. In addition to the articles mentioned, there are many other items, see my list attached showing other goods to which no reference is made by your agent. Please investigate further and advise me of the results.

Of the articles shipped to me, the list is correct except that I received only two sacks of Rice, and not three as mentioned.

Yours truly,

620 1236 Stewart Avenue.

Lot 1 of D.L., or Section 1, Plan 3892 -

This lot which is of a triangular shape, and apparently has the waterfront cut off, as it is leased to the G. Fardarlone Co. who have a wharf running parallel to the road a few feet out in the water. The building is partly built on the steep bank and is very old and practically of no value, but there is a fairly new portion built on piles which I am sure will be below the high water mark, and this portion would be worth about $125.00.

The lot without the waterfrontage facilities, would be worth about $100.00, but as I have stated before it appears to me that anyone purchasing some of these properties would probably find that a considerable portion of the buildings were not on the lot at all, but below the high water mark.
