Attention Mr. Kennedy

Manorah Life Assurance Company,
Rogers Building,
Vancouver, B.C.

Dear Sirs:-

Re: Policy No. P77149 - Mr. and Mrs.
Richijiro HAGANE

Referring to your letter of August 5th and further to our telephone conversation of yesterday's date. On June 15th you wrote us asking for instructions in connection with an application for surrender of the above numbered policy. On June 26th we advised you that we had referred the matter to your policyholder, Mr. HAGANE, to ascertain his wishes in connection with disposition of proceeds of the policy. On June 30th we received word through the Internment Camp that the policy for which Cash Surrender had been applied was a policy in the name of his son, Toshio HAGANE.

In referring to Toshio HAGANE'S File (Internee 462) we find that his Policy No. P111,380 has been cashed in and a cheque amounting to $61.93 sent to this office in your letter of July 3rd.

According to advice from your office both written and verbal, there seems no doubt that Mr. Richijiro HAGANE and his wife are applying for surrender of the above numbered policy jointly covering their two lives. Under these circumstances I suggest and advise you to proceed with the surrender of this policy No. P77149, sending the cheque to cover the Cash Surrender Value to this office.

Yours very truly,

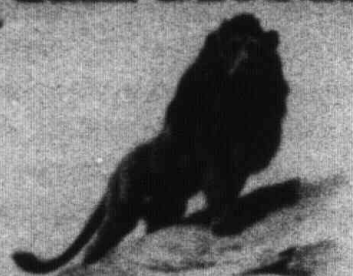

S.M. Gibson,
Insurance Department

Dear Sir:

Attention: K. W. Wright - Counsel to the Custodian

Your File No. 462 Legal Section P/W A-381, Hagane, Toshio
Our Policy No. P111,380

We wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 28, 1943, addressed to our Vancouver Office. Our cheque covering the net cash surrender value of $61.90 is enclosed and you will note that it is made payable to the Custodian, Department of Secretary of State, Canada, for Toshio Hagane and Kichijiro Hagane.

Your file "A-381"
In this particular case you have advised us of the internment of the assured and we filed our usual form "D" in May, 1942. You have also advised us in connection with another policy No. P97149 of the internment of Kichijiro Hagane, the beneficiary and our usual form "D" in connection with this other policy was filed with you in June, 1942. Where we have definite evidence that the assured and beneficiary are enemies and under the control of your office we feel that your office has the power to give the necessary discharge that is required when endorsing the cheque. You will note that on the back of the surrender cheque a discharge endorsement appears.

However, it is not always clear to us whether or not the assured and the beneficiary are both internees. We understand that if a party should be merely a Japanese national evacuated from the Coast that we still require the personal discharge of such party but payment is subject to instructions from your Department. In at least one case recently we drew our cheque intentionally payable to the beneficiary personally and to the Custodian for the assured as your Department had not advised us that both the assured and beneficiary were interned as enemies and so under the control of your office with your office having the power to act for and give discharge. However, in the particular case we have in mind your office endorsed the cheque for both parties. At the moment of writing we have not the particular file before us and cannot tell specifically how it was disposed of. It does, however, illustrate our particular problem.

If our assumption is correct that a personal signature of a person who is merely evacuated from the coastal area should be obtained in order to provide a valid discharge would it not be possible for you to advise us definitely regarding each party involved, that is whether an internee for whom the
