GENERAL SUMMARY

File No. Int. 600

December 12, 1946.

Re: Jiro KIYONAGA, Reg. No. 06207

On April 18, 1942, this man signed a declaration to the Custodian, in which he stated that he owned no property of any kind left in the protected area. No real property or chattels are revealed by his file.

However, following his internment on May 16, 1942, KIYONAGA signed a Statement of Assets and Liabilities (May 30, 1942) in which he reported the following assets:

Bank account in Royal Bank of Canada, Cumberland - $150.00 (approx.)
On June 10, 1942, the bank informed us that the credit balance in this account was $115.74. On August 24, 1942, a cheque for $46.83, drawn on this account was sent to the Manufacturers Life Assurance Company in payment of premium on life policy. On September 16, 1942, cheque for $69.30 was received from the Royal Bank of Canada, Cumberland, to cover the balance to the credit of this account. This sum was placed in KIYONAGA's account in this office.

He reported one $100.00 Victory Bond. This bond was received from his mother, Aki KIYONAGA, on June 22, 1942, and placed in safe-keeping by this office. Coupons to the total value of $13.50 have been cashed and the funds credited to his account. On November 22, 1946, the bond was returned to him.

He reported 10 $5.00 War Savings Certificates, but later stated that there were only 9 Certificates. The 9 Certificates were received from his mother on June 22, 1942, and placed in safe-keeping. These were returned to KIYONAGA on November 22, 1946.

He declared a Manufacturers Life Assurance Policy on his own life ($1,000.00). This policy was received in this office and was sent to the insurance company on June 15, 1945, along with the Discharge Form, for cash surrender value. Cheque for $95.05 representing the cash surrender value was received on June 28, 1942, and credited to Jiro KIYONAGA's account.

The account of Jiro KIYONAGA was credited with the sum of $4.49, received as refund of one per cent wage deductions for first six months of 1941.

On September 21, 1945, a remittance of $178.59 was sent to Kihel KIYONAGA, father of Jiro, at the request of Jiro KIYONAGA. The account was debited with the sum of 75 cents cost of shipping the bond and War Savings Certificates to Jiro KIYONAGA on November 22, 1946. At this date there is a credit balance of $3.00 in this account.

This file reveals no other property of any kind.

This file reveals no liabilities.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

Re: P/W P-1389 KIYONAGA, Jiro

Dear Mr. Read:

Acting on the instructions contained in your letter of the 18th instant I have obtained from Mrs. Kiyonaga a $100.00 Victory Bond and 9 $5.00 War Savings certificates. Mrs. Kiyonaga informs me she has no knowledge regarding 10 certificates, as her son (Jiro) handed her 9 certificates only. The Bond and 9 certificates are enclosed herewith together with her signed testimony regarding one missing certificate.

During the course of my interrogation Mrs. Kiyonaga disclosed the fact that she held 10 War Savings certificates, the property of her other son (Kitagi) also interned, and believing this indicates where the misunderstanding has occurred, I have accepted these 10 certificates from her and have issued the usual receipt. These additional certificates are enclosed herewith.

Yours faithfully,

Re: P/W P-1389. KIYONAGA, Jiro

In your letter of June 12th, you advised me that the above noted Internee had handed $50.00 worth of War Savings Certificates to his Mother, Mrs. A. Kiyonaga of Hastings Park.

Upon approaching Mrs. A. Kiyonaga to obtain these certificates for safekeeping, she advised me that her son left only $45.00 worth of War Savings Certificates in her care.

Will you kindly parade the above noted Internee in this connection.

Re: File No. Int. 600
Policy #773,932 - Kiyonaga, Jiro

In reply to your letter of March 27th, 1945 we wish to inform you that this policy was issued as a Twenty Year Endowment in the amount of $1,000 on September 12, 1939. Premiums are payable annually on the 22nd of August each year and the first premium became due in August 1939. Dividends are allotted annually and are applied as a reduction in premiums each year. The premiums for the years 1939 to 1942 were paid by the policyholder but premiums for 1943 and 1944 were unpaid and were advanced as a loan against the policy in accordance with the Automatic Premium Loan provision. The premium indebtedness with interest to date amounts to $101.55.

If there is any further information required please do not hesitate to write to us again.

Dear Sir:

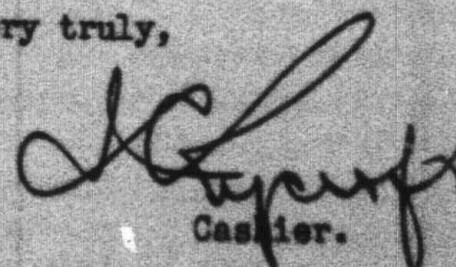

Re: Policy #773,932 - Jiro Kiyonaga.

Your letter of April 30th addressed to our Head Office has been referred to us for our attention.

We notice that the contract is to be terminated and you have requested the required surrender form for completion by the insured and beneficiary. This form is now attached and should be signed by the insured and his father, Kihei Kiyonaga, and both of their signatures should of course be witnessed by some disinterested party.

The gross cash value is $197.00 and the indebtedness amounts to $101.95 leaving a net cash surrender value of $95.05. This discharge form along with the policy for cancellation and your consent to make payment of the proceeds should be submitted to us or if you prefer direct to our Head Office. Unless you advise otherwise our cheque will be made payable jointly to the insured and the beneficiary but it will be sent to your office for delivery.

Yours very truly,

Cashier.

Dear Sir:

Attached is Custodian cheque for the sum of $3.00 representing all the funds standing to your credit with this office. Your file reveals the following information:

The sum of $69.30 was received from the Royal Bank of Canada, Cumberland, B. C. as credit balance in your savings account on September 16, 1942.

The sum of $95.05 was received from the Manufacturers Life Insurance Company as cash surrender value of your life policy #773,932.

The sum of $4.49 was received as refund of one per cent wage deductions for the first six months of 1941.

Your account was credited with $13.50 from Victory Bond coupons cashed while your bond was in Custodian safety-deposit box. This Bond and your nine $5.00 War Savings Certificates were returned to you on November 22, 1946. The cost of forwarding these Securities was 75 cents, which was charged to your account.

On September 21, 1945, at your request a remittance of $178.59 was made to your father from your funds.

The total amount credited to your account was $182.34. The total debits were $179.34, leaving a credit balance of $3.00, the amount of the enclosed cheque.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the protected area, which came under the control of the Custodian, and your account with this office is being closed.
