Dear Sir:

Re: P/W P-1401, KATO, Kazuo.

Upon an examination of this Internee's affairs it appears that he made an application to the Bank of Montreal for the purchase of a $100.00 Victory Loan Bond, upon which he paid $10.00.

The Bank of Montreal advised me by letter today that they are unable to return the $10.00, but they suggest that the Bond be sold and the balance turned over to the Custodian of Enemy Property for and on behalf of the above Internee.

You might kindly tell the Internee that I propose following the suggestion of the Bank but if the Internee has any other ideas would you please ask him to submit them.

Yours faithfully,

Edgar T. Read.

MEMORANDUM TO ACCOUNTING DEPARTMENT

Re: Kazuo Kato

Some time ago, the file of the above party, registration number 10903, as transferred from the Evacuation Section to the Enemy Section because it was thought that this party had been interned. It is now discovered that the Kazuo Kato who is interned, bears registration number 09236. I am therefore, returning the file to the Evacuation Section and would ask you to issue a cheque for $26.27 to the Bank of Montreal covering $2.60 transferred from that Bank to this office and $23.67 forwarded as proceeds from the sale of a Victory Loan Bond.

MEMORANDUM TO MRS. O'BRIEN

Re: KATO, Kazuo

I am returning herewith, "J.P." Form completed by the above noted on March 23rd which was transferred into the Enemy Section of the Office because it was thought that Kazuo Kato was an Internee. I am also attaching correspondence which has been written in connection with the affairs of this man and which I think should be on his file. It has now been discovered that Kazuo Kato, whose registration number is 10903 on the "J.P." Form is not the Kazuo Kato who has been interned.

It will be noted from the correspondence, that $2.60 was transferred from the Bank of Montreal to this Office in view of the fact that we thought this man was interned. You will also note that a cheque for $23.67 was received; being proceeds of the sale of a Victory Loan Bond which Kazuo Kato had started to purchase.

Under date of July 31st we received a letter from the Bank of Montreal requesting that the $2.60 and the $23.67 be returned to the Bank. Under to-day's date I have written a memorandum to the Accounting Department, requesting them to issue a cheque for $26.27 payable to the Bank of Montreal on behalf of Kazuo Kato, registration number 10903. I have also written the Bank forwarding this cheque to them.
