Dear Sir:

Re: P/W A-125. NISHIHAMA. Shigeharu

Information which the Custodian has is to the effect that the above noted man is the owner of a fishing boat.

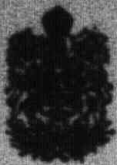

It would be greatly appreciated if you would advise this office of the name of the boat, specifications and licence or registration number.

Since Mr. Nishihama has been interned, all his assets have vested in the Custodian and it is, therefore, requested if this boat is registered at your Port, that you make a notation on your records to the effect that no change in the ownership of the boat should be made without the consent of the Custodian.

Dear Sir:-

Your File 863.

The gasboat recorded under number 455 is in the name of YASHIMATSU NISHIHAMA. The application on file is signed in that manner. This no doubt is one and the same man, but nevertheless there is a difference in the name.

Description of the boat is as follows:-Length 34feet, Breadth 8feet, Depth 2feet 9 inches and with an approximate tonnage of 4 tons. Liense was issued in 1929.

However Gasboat under License 455 will not be allowed to change ownership, insofar as we are concerned, without your consent.

We have received the following letter from Shigeharu Nishihama:

"Will you please be kind enough to send me the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), out of the account of Mr. Yonetaro Yamamoto, Reg. No. 5249, who is at present residing at Lemon Creek, Slocan, B.C. He is my debtor and I am his creditor. I had lent him the sum of Two Hundred Dollars on May 4th, 1942 at Steveston, B.C. while he was suffering from financial embarrassment at that time. He has always been appreciating my kindness and always willing to pay back the said amount to me. According to the letter dated March 29th, this year, what I received to-day he has frequently reported to you, in asking, to send the said amount directly to me and no doubt you are fully aware in this respect. I am, therefore, respectfully asking you again to send me the said amount out of his account at your earliest convenience.

Awaiting for your answer".

We would appreciate your contacting Mr. Yamamoto in this regard.
