File No. 1040

Yoshiichi SHIN

Reg. No. 10645

This man, who was evacuated on March 26, 1942, signed a declaration to the Custodian on March 23, 1942.

In his declaration he reported the following:

Kitchen Utensils for cook house (30 persons) $150.00 left in care of Dumaresq Bros. Ltd., Allison Harbour. On May 2, 1942, Dumaresq Bros. Ltd. advised that these were in their warehouse and they had no objection to storing them. No further action has as yet been taken in regard to these utensils by this office, but it is possible that these have been shipped as SHIN had asked Dumaresq Bros. to ship March 23, 1944. 6 Boxes of Grocery Stocks, etc. at Union Wharf, Vancouver. According to information supplied by the Union Steamship Company, December 22, 1942, these were delivered and freight paid for. Yoshiichi SHIN inquired about these on December 7, 1942, but on being informed of the Union Steamship Company's statement he did not make any reply, and he has not referred to these boxes again.

3 rowboats and a large quantity of logging tools, in the care of Dumaresq Bros. Ltd. Dumaresq Bros. Ltd. advised this office on May 2, 1942 that these were the company's property. Yoshiichi SHIN has confirmed the statement of the company, December 7, 1942.

22 J.P. Lawson Outboard in care of S. Z. SHIN, Whonnock (Sidney Zentaro SHIN, father-in-law of Yoshiichi SHIN, File 9401) The files of Sidney Zentaro SHIN and his wife show no record of this outboard.

In addition to above the file reveals that 5 boxes and 2 cartons belonging to this man are at 992 Powell Street, according to undated, unsigned memo placed on file, apparently early in 1943, while memo of November 22, 1944, shows one box of drugs and lotions received from Allison Harbour and stored at 992 Powell St. This last box was sold at auction November 22, 1944, for the net sum of $24.44, which was credited to this account.

The matter of chattels of this man at 992 Powell St. will be gone into when the man complete the inventory of stock at that warehouse.

Dear Sir:

In reply to yours of April 24th 1942,
regarding effects left in our care by Yoshiichi Shin.

Kitchen utensils for thirty men are the property of Y. Shin. The 3 rowboats, sundry axes, saws, hammers, wedges &c are the property of Dumaresq Bros Ltd.

Shin was given a contract to fell and buck timber on our Seymour Inlet logging operation.
The Company to supply boats, tools &c. Shin was to return these items in good condition on the completion of his contract. During the life of the contract Shin was to pay for any replacements at his own expense.

At the time of his removal these tools were in approximately the same condition as when he began his contract. Therefore, these tools are the property of Dumaresq Bros Ltd.

We have stored his cookhouse equipment in our warehouse, where it is safe and is not causing us any inconvenience. To the best of my knowledge we are not storing the effects of any other evacuated Japanese.

Yours truly

Dumaresq Bros Ltd.

Dear Sir:-

In your Registration Form dated 23rd of March, you declared a number of logging tools and kitchen utensils for thirty persons, left in the custody of the Dumasq Bros., Ltd., Allison Harbour, B. C. We have written to Dumasq Bros. and asked them to confirm that your property would be safe.

We have now received their answer which runs as follows:

"Kitchen utensils for thirty men are the property of Y. Shin. The 3 rowboats, sundry axes, saws, hammers, wedges etc., are the property of Dumasq Bros. Ltd.

"Shin was given a contract to fell and buck timber on our Seymour Inlet logging operation. The Company to supply boats, tools etc. Shin was to return these items in good condition on the completion of his contract. During the life of the contract Shin was to pay for any replacements at his own expense.

"At the time of his removal these tools were in approximately the same condition as when he began his contract. Therefore, these tools are the property of Dumasq Bros. Ltd. ✓

"We have stored his cookhouse equipment in our warehouse, where it is safe and is not causing us any inconvenience." ✓

Please confirm that this is a correct description of the position and that you have no claim on the boats and tools.

You also declared a number of debts owing to you as per attached list.

June 23rd, 1942

We cannot trace these debtors without their full names and particulars of their last known addresses. Please let us have all the information you can about them.

Yours truly,

R. P. Alexander

P. S.

Among your debtors we notice the name of H. Kayahara. Would this be a Mr. Hajime Kayahara? If so, this man is deceased, and we are anxious for any information you may have about his property, surviving relatives, or claims against him. Would you be kind enough to give us an answer on this point?

Dear Sir:

In reviewing your file and bringing it up to date we wish to draw your attention to a few items found therein.

It is noted by a letter from the Provincial Collector that you owe the Department of Finance the sum of $2.52 "being balance of unpaid 1% deductions from employees wages." In case this is still unpaid please forward same direct to "Provincial Collector, Vancouver, B.C.", or authorize us to pay same from your funds on hand with the Custodian.

Your Accounts Receivable, as listed on your J.P. registration form, are as follows:

1. Toshimasa MAKINO.
2. Kikuo KIMURA.

These two have been referred to you, and we are taking no further action.

3. H. OHTANI. This has been paid, and you have been so advised.

4. Kuniyoshi FUKUNAGA - $140.00. Is this still owing to you? It has not been paid into us.

5. Hajime KAYAHARA - $40.00. Is this amount still owing to you? As you likely know, he died suddenly in March 1942. In his effects there was found an account of yours of $44.71 receipted as paid. It may be that this refers to the $40.00 item you lodged against him.

We would ask that you let us have a complete reply to all the foregoing, so that we shall understand just how these accounts stand at the present time.

Yours truly,

Re: Yoshiichi SHIN

Chattels on this file are accounted for as follows.

(1) Items left with Dumaresq Bros., Allison Harbour. The Japanese agrees, December 7th, 1942, that he has no claim on the rowboats and logging tools declared. As to the kitchen utensils left with them, Mr. Dumaresq telephoned the other day to say that Mr. Shin had asked for them to be sent and that he was arranging this.

(2) Groceries left at Union Wharf, Vancouver. In the absence of any answer to ours of December 22nd, it may be assumed that these have been received.

(3) 2½ HP Outboard motor left with Mr. S. Z. Shin at Whonock. This does not appear either on files 9401 or 9402 on which latter the inventory of Mr. S. Z. Shin's farm appears. It may be packed in one of the boxes and later come to light.

Dear Mr. Matheson,

Thank you for your letter of December 18th with cheque which I did not receive until to-day as we are isolated, and mail is not delivered often.

With reference to the claim of $2.82 held against me by the Provincial Collector of B.C., I had a contract with the Dumaresq Bros. Ltd., Allison Harbour, B.C., to fall and buck logs. They took charge of all my bookkeeping. Therefore, I do not know if this claim has been paid. Will you please inquire about this matter to the company? If this claim is still pending, please deduct same from my credit balance and make the settlement.

With reference to my cooking utensils, it is still left in care of the Dumaresq Bros. Ltd. Will you, while writing them, ask them to send the utensils to me. Please use the credit balance on my account for expenses. If that is not sufficient, I will send any balance necessary as soon as you notify me.

Please let me know if you are still holding my $100 Victory War Loan Bond.
