Yoshitaro MORI

P/W A-662

Securities: In his declaration to the Custodian, Yoshitaro MORI stated that he was the owner of $50.00 worth of War Savings Certificates, and on September 17, 1942, ten $5.00 War Savings Certificates were forwarded to this office by the Internee for safe-keeping.

On July 19, 1943, the above Internee requested the Custodian to obtain the cash surrender value of his War Savings Certificates. Application was made through this office on August 3, 1943, and on September 7, 1943, the account of this Japanese was credited with the sum of $41.52, which balance was subsequently liquidated by remittances to the Internee at the Camp.

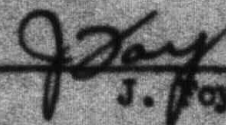

Life Insurance: On March 22, 1943, the Custodian in Ottawa advised this office that a 20-year endowment Manufacturers Life Insurance Company Policy, issued on the life of Sadajiro TAGUCHI, amounted to $1,000.00. Beneficiary of this policy was the insured's wife, Nobu Taguchi, in Japan. Sadajiro TAGUCHI was killed in an accident in April, 1941, and died at the Salmon Arms Hospital. In July, 1941, the Japan Office of the Insurance Company sent the Head Office a Claimant Statement, completed by the beneficiary, and an order authorizing them to pay the proceeds of the policy to one, Yoshitaro MORI, a nephew of the policyholder. As payment of these funds was not made to the nephew before war was declared on Japan, the proceeds of the policy were paid to the Custodian in Ottawa where they are being held for the account of the beneficiary, Nobu TAGUCHI, widow, in Japan.

On July 15, 1946, our Ottawa Office advised us as follows:

"The beneficiary of this policy is Mrs. Nobu Taguchi who resides in Japan and Mr. Yoshitaro Mori has no interest in this policy".

No property interests, other than those mentioned above, are found on this file.

Dear Sirs:

I have received your letter of reply dated June 17th, 1949, and have been told there is no trace of account in the name mentioned.

I am sorry and to write that I did not inform you the full particular of the account.

The company of the insurance policy is The Manufacturers Life Insurance Co. Vancouver and the name of the insured is (SADAJIRO TAGUCHI), his policy number I do not remember.

The beneficiary or the person to whom the money was to be collected was his wife (NOBU TAGUCHI).

At the time of SADAJIRO TAGUCHI'S death his wife was visiting Japan and could not contact the insurance office.

So I (YOSHITARO MORI) had the responsibility of reporting the insurance policy into the custodian office by my name before leaving for Japan.

So will you please be kind enough to search the records again and sent the money as soon as possible. I am enclosing copy of which I have sent to the custodian office.

Hoping and anticipating for a favorable return.

I remain

Yours truly,

"YOSHITARO MORI".

Dear Sir:

On the 16th of February last the Manufacturers Life Assurance Company reported a $1,000. 20-year endowment policy issued by their Vancouver office in November 1928 on the life of one Sadajiro Taguchi, of which the beneficiary was his wife, Nobu Taguchi, who has resided in Japan since 1936.

The insurance company has advised us that at the time the policy was issued the assured was living at Mission City, B.C. In April 1941 he suffered an accident and died in the Salmon Arms Hospital. After satisfactory proof of death was obtained, in July 1941 the Japan office of the insurance company sent the Head Office Claimant statement completed by the beneficiary and an order authorizing them to pay the proceeds of the policy to one Yoshitaro Mori, a nephew of the policyholder living at Britannia Beach, B.C. The payment was not eventually made to the nephew before war was declared on Japan and the proceeds of the policy have been paid to this office.

As the deceased might have left an Estate in British Columbia, I think it would be advisable if you could contact the nephew, Yoshitaro Mori, and find out all the particulars of whatever has been left by his uncle at the time of his death.

Yours truly,
