1	1/2 HP Motor, no name	20.00
1	Bending Clamp	2.00
1	Sanding Disc	1.00	63.00

All the goods valued in this list with the exception of Parcel No. 1 and the Bandsaw in Parcel No. 2 are of a class which has a very limited market and consequently have little resale value, for instance, Parcel No. 2 consists of a lot of incomplete equipment which has been assembled for a special purpose and can only be used by someone for the same purpose or rebuilt into a complete unit by supplying all the missing parts.

Parcel No. 3 has been very hardly used, a lot of the vital parts are broken and all are more or less obsolete.

Parcel No. 1 is a nice little unit but is only toy equipment and useful only to a Pattern Maker or some similar craft.

Our advice on all this equipment would be to sell it for the best offer as with the return of normal times when new equipment will be available much of it will have no value.

I am enclosing herewith Mr. Willis' report which is self-explanatory. The second offer, being from the Pacific Metal Company, is attached. As the engines total in the neighbourhood of seven tons, this will be the higher bid and I recommend its acceptance.

I am enclosing herewith my letter to the Pacific Metal Company accepting their offer and if this is in order, would you kindly pass it out for mailing? I should mention that the Toranosuke Niki engine is thought to weigh about two tons so that it will fetch approximately $7.00 and from the file, you will see that it has been valued at $50.00 only.

We have your letter of September 9th relative to the above.

Regarding the assets belonging to the deceased which have been reported to the Custodian, please be informed that Toranosuke Miki on the 3rd day of April, 1942 declared to the Custodian that he owned one $10.00 War Savings Certificate in his own possession and $3800.00 in the Royal Bank of Canada, East End Branch, Vancouver, account No. 1899. Subsequently a fishing vessel "T.M. #2" was reported through the Japanese Fishing Vessel Disposal Committee as having been sold on April 1, 1942 and the proceeds in the sum of $195.50 paid to T. Miki on April 4, 1942. Fishing vessel "Arrandale M" was also reported as having been sold through the Japanese Fishing Vessel Disposal Committee on December 28, 1942 for the net sum of $2,117.29 which was credited to Toranosuke Miki's account with the Custodian. From this credit as requested from time to time, sums were remitted to the Japanese, leaving a credit balance at the time of his death of $1411.63.

Various claims were filed against this man which he denied and they were accordingly referred back to the creditors.

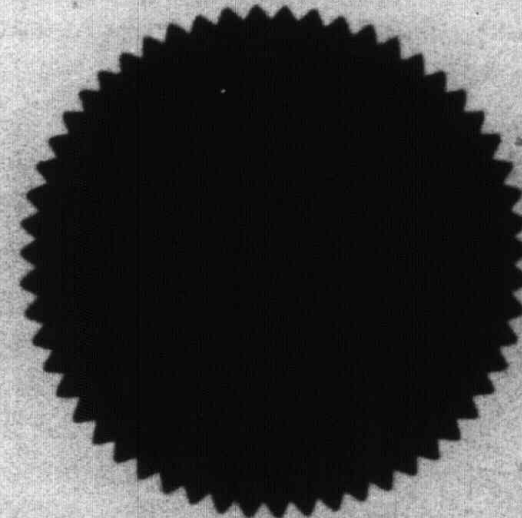

As suggested in the last paragraph of your letter, the Custodian, upon production of notarial copy of Letters Probate and Succession Duties releases, will be pleased to remit to the personal representative the funds at credit of this account in this office.
