I acknowledge with thanks your letter of September 19th and a cheque of $569.88 for nets and gear at the Canadian Pacific Cannery net house and chattels stored at House #2, Canadian Pacific Cannery.

I have asked Mr. Hirose to write to your Department regarding chattels left in trust to Mr. & Mrs. John A. McKinney #2 Road, Steveston, B.C. The chattels in question are mostly wedding presents and I would like to have them sent out here now that I have a suite of my own. Please look into this matter and give authority to Mr. McKinney to ship the chattels to us as soon as possible.

Mr. Kenichi NISHI,
Reg. No. 03426,
699, Burrows Ave.,
WINNIPEG, Man.

Dear Sir:

As requested in your letter of August 29th, 1946, we enclose herewith a statement of your account, together with Custodian cheque in the sum of $569.88. As this is your total balance with this office, we are now closing your file.

Your file has been reviewed and it is noted that when you made your declaration to the Custodian on April 2nd, 1942, you declared nets and gear at the Canadian Pacific Cannery net house and chattels stored at House #2, Canadian Pacific Cannery.

Nets and gear inventoried by the Custodian in your name were sold for the sum of $520.50 and this sum credited to your account with the Custodian. Chattels inventoried in your name were sold for the net sum of $39.73 and this sum credited to your account with this office.

According to information supplied to this office you were the registered owner of the fishing vessel the "Sparkling Sea" which was sold through the Japanese Fishing Vessel Disposal Committee for the net sum of $740.00 and this was paid to you on April 25th, 1942.

On March 6th, 1946, your account was credited with the sum of $5.90 being a refund of subscription to War Savings Certificate made in December of 1941 in the name of "Stevenson Fish". Your account has also been credited with the sum of $4.15, being the balance of your savings account in the Royal Bank of Canada at Steveston.

You declared one $5.00 War Savings Certificate which you stated you had lost. This was not brought under the control of the Custodian.

You also declared a sickness and accident insurance policy, allowing the sum of $50.00 per month, taken with the Tanaka Insurance Agency, the policy in your own possession. This policy was not brought under the control of the Custodian.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the protected area which vested in the Custodian, and in

TO: Government Counsel

The following goods appearing on Custodian Inventory No.25, dated July 27, 1942, are unaccounted for:

2 heater stoves
Galvanized Tank
Water Tank
5 drums

Only 1 stove, however, was recorded in the B.C.Packers Record Book by the Japanese.

A roll top desk appears on the Custodian Inventory but as Mr. Nishi did not list a desk in the Record Book referred to above, this item was transferred to Chattel Suspense account.

Chattels as per letters of March 21/46 and August 31/46 were left by Mr. & Mrs. Nishi with a Mrs. McKinney, Steveston, B.C. At request of Mr. Nishi, Custodian gave consent to Mrs. McKinney to ship these goods direct to the Nishis in Winnipeg, Man., shipping expenses to be borne by the Nishis. (Oct. 8/46).

(THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE A.G. BUCKINGHAM, SUB-COMMISSIONER)

Dominion Government.S.M. CHERWIAK, Esq., Appearing for the Claimant.

G.N.R. UPTON, Esq., Official Interpreter.

20 MARK H. PEARCE, Esq., Official Reporter.

K. Nishi
In Chief.

KENICHI NISHI, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

MR. CHERNIAK: Your Honour, I ask leave to amend in this case. This is an upwards amendment of the nets. The reason will be given in the Exhibit which I will file. It is just a matter of bad addition, it is just poor arithmetic that caused this error. The total value of the fishing nets and gear $927.00; the Custodian's sale price $520.50, and the loss on the fishing nets and gear is therefore $406.50.
As to the household equipment, the total value $215.00; Custodian's sale price $52.05 and the loss would be $162.95. The total loss is, therefore $569.45.

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. CHERNIAK:

Q Mr. Nishi, I show you two typewritten statements, one of which has a list attached to it, also typewritten; were these prepared in accordance with your instructions?

A Yes.

Q And are these your signatures on each of the documents? A Yes.

Q Do you swear the contents to be true to the best of your knowledge and recollection?

A Yes.

MR. CHERNIAK: Your Honour, I tender as Exhibit 1
the Personal Chattel Statement relating to fishing nets and lines and as Exhibit 2, the

K. Nishi.
In Chief.

Personal Chattel Statement relating to the various household goods and on behalf of my learned friend I will file his Analysis Sheet as Exhibit 3.

(PERSONAL CHATTEL STATEMENT (Fishing gear etc.) EXHIBIT 1.)

(PERSONAL CHATTEL STATEMENT (Household goods etc.) EXHIBIT 2.

10

MR. CHERNIACK: Turning now to the fishing nets and lines, Your Honour. Exhibit 1 sets out that the Claimant has set down the age at evacuation and the original value of each item on the Custodian's Analysis Sheet, Exhibit 3. The inked writing on Exhibit 3 is that of my learned friend and is a copy of the notes made on my copy of the Analysis Sheet and indicates, opposite the net, the age of the net and the price is shown. The cost means original value because in some cases these nets were made by the Claimant.

20

Your Honour will note on Exhibit 3 the total of the nets that were reported to the Custodian from a list of furnishings by the B.C. Packers. That list totalled $697.00, but on Exhibit 3 is the Custodian's comment that the correct addition of the above list is $927.00 which is the value for which we are claiming.

30

Exhibit 1 sets out that up to the time the Claimant saw the Custodian's file he had no list of the nets and lines he had, since he had lost

K. Nishi,
In Chief.

all his papers while travelling around. The values he had previously shown were based on memory and on the impression that the total came to about $670.00. He now finds that the total value is $927.00, the Custodian received $520.50, leaving a loss of $406.50 and he states that he therefore instructed me to ask leave to amend. Your Honour will note from Exhibit 3 that the J.P. Declaration shows fishing nets valued at $680.00 and it goes on to say that 'Following is an extract of list of fishing gear and list of furnishings entered into B.C. Packers Limited. record books by Mr. Nishi,' and that then sets out the claim which is being made, based on the valuations given by the Claimant at the time of evacuation. I think it would be proper to ask my learned friend to produce the original of that list or, if it is only a copy of Exhibit 3, to put on the record the date of that list of the B.C. Packers.

MR. FERG: I will produce from the Custodian's file, Your Honour, a statement made on January 27th, 1944, or rather, June 17th, 1945 - the other reference is 'see net statement January 27th, 1944'. It was received from the B.C. Packers on June 17th, 1945. That can be filed.

MR. CHERNIAK: Your Honour, my learned friend has produced a statement and I don't quite agree with him as to the correction, as to the dates. The letter sets out in pencil 'Received from B.C.

K. Nishi.
In Chief.

Packers June 17th 1943.' The next comment is 'See net statement January 27th, 1944', just what that statement is I don't know but it just seems to be a reference and I submit that this is an indication that this list was received by the Custodian on June 17th, 1943.

(NET STATEMENT, EXHIBIT 4.)

MR. CHERNIAK: Your Honour will note from Exhibit 3 that many of these nets were sold by tender. I see a few of them which were sold at the price stated by the Claimant, some others were sold for less. There is then a list of six items, consisting of both nets and cork line which are shown as declared and not found and I think the Custodian ought to give us the information as to the date on which they looked for these goods in as much as the B.C. Packers had already given them a list of these goods. They were not specifically declared by the Claimant but rather by the B.C. Packers from its records.

20
MR. FERG: Your Honour, I will put in a net statement, dated January 27th, 1944. This statement sets out a list of nets which have been sold and it also sets out a list of nets not accounted for.

(NET STATEMENT, EXHIBIT 5.)

30
MR. FERG: And I will file a further statement of March 18th, 1946, which states 'The following table is an extract from the record books received from the British Columbia Packers Co., Ltd.,

6.
K. Nishi,
In Chief.

covering their Pacific Cannery Net House. The Japanese fish collectors were instructed to have the Japanese fishermen enter into these record books the nets which were left by them in the company net houses." This includes household goods as well as nets.

(NEXT STATEMENT, EXHIBIT 6.)

10
MR. CHENNIAK: On the surface, Your Honour, it would appear that it took the Custodian quite some time to check these nets themselves and I think that the amount of time it took them would have a bearing as relating to the items which are shown declared and not found. That will no doubt be gone into at the adjourned hearing when the Custodian is being cross-examined.

20
Your Honour will note on Exhibit 3 the comment by the Custodian relating to the fact that the claim had originally been made for a lump sum and had no itemised nets and it sets out further that a request had been made to the Claimant to itemise his claim and that they had received no reply. They have since received a reply, Your Honour. I don't know whether my learned friend has it or not on his file, that reply, however, gives an itemised list totalling $945.00. It is not sufficiently clear to indicate specifically the nets for which claim is being made and the explanation for same is given in Exhibit 1 and that is that the Claimant

30

7.
K. Nishi.
In Chief.

has no records and had no records for some considerable time and not until he saw the Custodian's file recently was he able to make his claim in the proper form.

19
Turning now to the question of the chattels, Your Honour, Exhibit 2 first mentions the items claimed per letter August 16th, 1948 as per list attached. The letter dated August 16th, 1948 was sent to the Commissioner giving an itemization of his household chattel claim and all that we find is that two items set out in that letter, the gramophone and dresser were never inventoried and we are therefore withdrawing our claim for those two chattels.

THE COMMISSIONER: That reduces your claim to $215.00 from $260.00?

MR. CHERNIAK: Not exactly, the Claimant estimated $260.00 for his chattels without actually making out a list for same. When he was requested by the Custodian to itemize his claim he did so and arrived at a total of $260.00, that was on August 16th, 1948. This list was made up completely from memory. When we sat down to go over the Custodian's file, we then find that of the $260.00, two items valued by the Claimant at $95.00 had not been inventoried by the Custodian and had not been specifically declared.

THE COMMISSIONER: What are those two items?

20
MR. CHERNIAK: A gramophone and a dresser. We

8.
K. Nishi.
In Chief.

10 therefore did not include these two items in the claim set out in Exhibit 2 but since the Claimant has now found a list of other items which were inventoried by the Custodian he has therefore set out these other items, under the heading additional items in Exhibit 2 and he explains at the foot of Exhibit 2 that he had lost all his lists and had made his claim by memory. Now that he has seen the Custodian's Analysis Sheet he has added the inventory items which he had previously omitted and withdrawn the claim for the gramophone and dresser which had not been found. The point of that is simply this, Your Honour, that the Claimant had no list with him. He lost all his papers. He didn't have any copies of the Custodian's Inventory and he could only estimate roughly the value of the chattels which he had left. Now that he has had an opportunity to have access to the Custodian's file for the first time since evacuation, he has seen a list of chattels and on the basis of that list he was able to make out the claim which is set out in Exhibit 2, indicating there, to the best of his knowledge the approximate date of purchase and the prices paid and his valuation at date of evacuation. Thank you, Sir.

20 MR. FERG: It is submitted Your Honour that the property sold was sold at its fair market value and that the claim made for articles not accounted for by theft or other causes, that the prices claimed is excessive and unreasonable.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY MR. FERG:

Q Mr. Nishi You left your fishing nets and equipment and your household furnishings with the R.C. Canning Company? A Yes.

Q And did you get a receipt for them?

A I obtained a receipt but I lost it.

10 Q Now the Custodian wrote you about the fish nets on the 5th of June, 1945?

A Yes.

Q In which he asked you to complete - he sent you an enclosed net form in order to assist further in identifying your nets left with the R.C.
Cannery he asked you to sign the net form and return it to him? A Yes.

Q And you replied to that letter; I will show you
a letter, is that your letter?

20 A Yes.

Q That is your signature? A Yes. I sent this letter after I had been going about all over the place.

Q At any rate it is your letter?

A Yes.

(LETTER, EXHIBIT 7.)

MR. CHERNIACK: Could it be read into the record?

THE COMMISSIONER: Yes.

MR. FERG: This is an undated letter to the Japanese
Evacuation Section, The Office of Custodian, 506

30

K. Nishi,
Gr-Rum.

Royal Bank Building, Hastings and Granville St.
Vancouver, B.C. "Dear Sirs, Referring to your file No. 1468 dated June 5/43, Please refer to the Canadian Pacific Cannery on account of my Fishing net inventory.

All fishing nets left with that above
mentioned Cannery, and all named my name,
Yours very truly Kenichi Nishi #05486."

10

Q Now, in other words, by letter Exhibit 7, you didn't sign the net statement and return it to the Custodian that he had mailed to you on the 5th of June?

A Yes, I didn't sign it, I returned it.

Q You referred them to the books of the Canning
Company with respect to the nets?

A Yes.

20

MR. FERG: I would just like to put in the record,
Your Honour, I have a copy of a letter to the
B.C. Packers from the Custodian dated June 5th, 1943 asking for a net inventory and the result of that request was net statement, Exhibit 8, being received by the Custodian.

Q When you left your nets with the Canning Company
Did you put your name on each net?

A Yes, sure.

Q Did you sign it? A K. Nishi.

Q Did you put a valuation of each net on it?

A Not on the tag, I put my name.

Q You didn't put a valuation on those nets?

30

A No, not the price.

E. Nishi.
Gr-Exam.

Q On any of the articles that you left with the Canning Company?

A Yes.

Q You didn't leave all of your chattels with the Canning Company, did you?

A I left everything with the Canning Company.

Q You left some goods with a Mr and Mrs. McKinney?

A Yes, I left some with those people.

Q And you didn't say anything about it until 1946? A Yes.

10

Q Are any of the articles that you are now claiming for, or, were any of the articles you are now claiming for left with Mrs. McKinney?

A No.

Q- Now in the inventory of articles unaccounted for, it appears that there were two heater stoves, a galvanized tank, a water tank and five drums.

MR. CHERNIAK: Your Honour, may I ask that that question be asked a little more clearly, I don't quite follow it myself.

MR. FERG: I will put it this way:

Q The following goods, appearing on the Custodian's Inventory number 25, dated July 27th, 1942 are unaccounted for, two heater stoves, one galvanized tank, water tank and five drums; you only recorded one stove with the B.C. Packers?

THE COMMISSIONER: They don't appear at all on this Analysis.

MR. FERG: Apparently they have turned up - - -

30

MR. CHERNIAK: There is no inventory on the Analysis

K.Nishi.
Cr-Exam.

as to the statement of the B.C. Packers as to what goods were left there

THE COMMISSIONER: These are the only goods for which you are making a claim?

MR. CHERNIAK: That is correct, Sir, that is the only list we have been able to obtain.

MR. FERG: I will withdraw that question, Your Honour.

Q Now, with regard to fish nets, how long have you been a fisherman?

A Fifteen years.

Q And in the course of those fifteen years you have bought and used fishing nets extensively I suppose? A I have bought nets but I haven't sold any.

Q You have bought them and used them extensively?

A Yes.

20

Q Now the type of fishing net that you carried on with, what would the average life of a fishing net of that kind be? A For a four to five

- ply net, four to five years.

Q Were your nets four to five ply?

A Yes.

Q All of them? A No, some are eight ply Spring nets.

Q Would you say - or - what would you say the life of an eight ply Spring net would be?

A Eight ply, about six years and ten and 12 and fourteen ply, ten years or more.

30

Q Does your net statement show which nets were four

K. Nishi.
 Or-Exam.
 Re-Exam.

and five ply and which were ten ply?

MR. CHERNIAK: Might I explain Mr. Ferguson, the first figure on the nets shows the ply.

MR. FERG: I see. All right, thank you Your Honour.

MR. CHERNIAK: Just a few questions if I may, Your Honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: Alright.

RE-EXAMINED BY MR. CHERNIAK:

18

Q Your Honour, my learned friend asked the Claimant about this letter received from the Custodian requesting a list of fishing nets, dated June 5th, 1945. I would like to point out that in the J.P. Declaration form, according to Exhibit B, the nets were declared on April 2nd, 1945. There is also an indication that evacuation - - - When did you leave your home?

A About the 15th of April, 1945?

Q I see, and then did you go to Hastings Park?

20

A I went to my Mother's place in Vancouver.

Q And how long were you in Vancouver?

A Two months.

MR. CHERNIAK: I think that must be a typographical error in Exhibit B which shows May 29th, 1945, it should be May 2nd, 1945.

THE COMMISSIONER: Do you want me to change it?

MR. CHERNIAK: It is not my Exhibit, it is my learned friend's, Your Honour.

MR. FERG: I think that is correct, Your Honour.

20

THE COMMISSIONER: Alright.

K. Nishi.
Re-Exam.

MR. CHERNIAK: I therefore want to indicate for the record, Your Honour, should the Custodian say that they did not get around to checking the B.C. Packers until June of 1943 because the Claimant wrote them at that time in answer to their request for a fishing net statement, I just want to point out it appears in the J.P. Declaration as having nets in the packing Company.

10 Q Mr. Nishi, you told Mr. Ferg that when you tagged your nets you didn't put the prices on the tags, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Now the B.C. Packers sent a list of nets to the Custodian showing your valuations, were those valuations not given to the B.C. Packers in a separate list? A Before I went away I gave the B.C. Packers a book where the prices were down.

20 Q And those prices shown there are the prices you put down yourself? A Yes.

MR. CHERNIAK: I think I have already indicated, Your Honour as to the household goods, that no claim is being made for goods left at the home of McKinney who was mentioned by my learned friend.

THE COMMISSIONER: All the claims you are making for household goods are made for goods received or goods left in the B.C. Packers?

MR. CHERNIAK: Yes, Your Honour.

30 THE COMMISSIONER: And shown in Exhibit 5?

K. Nishi,
Re-Exams.

MR. CHERNIAK: Yes, Your Honour.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very well.
