GENERAL SUMMARY

File No. 1605

Hatsu KITAMURA, Deceased
(Mrs. Shotaro)

Reg. No. 07474

Hatsu KITAMURA died at Slocan, B. C. on December 11, 1944. She is survived by her husband, Shotaro KITAMURA, file #11888, and three daughters, Eiko Elsie, file #1603; Fumiko Alice, file #3018; and Haruko Helen, a minor.

Mrs. KITAMURA declared no assets to the Custodian but, upon her death, the Custodian was advised by the Family Beneficiary Society that the deceased had an insurance policy in their Society in the amount of $2500.00 under which her husband, Shotaro, was the beneficiary.

Mr. KITAMURA signed an authorization for these funds to be paid to the Custodian for his account. From these funds, with the approval of Shotaro KITAMURA, Legal fees in the amount of $5.00 were paid to Locke, Lane, Guild and Sheppard and the sum of $40.00 paid to the B. C. Security Commission to cover the funeral expenses of Hatsu KITAMURA. The balance was remitted to Shotaro KITAMURA on March 28, 1945.

No claims, other than those mentioned above, appear on this file.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information

SCHEDULE A.

Affidavit of Value and Relationship

(This affidavit is to be made by the applicant, or one of the applicants)

"Succession Duty Act" British Columbia

(Sections 12, 13, 31, 32)

In the

In the Matter of the Estate of Hatsu Kitamura (Regn. No. 07474) , deceased.
I, SHOTARO KITAMURA, of Slocan, in the Province of British Columbia, Farmer,

That I am the ~~applicant's~~ husband , make oath and say:—
of Hatsu Kitamura of Slocan, B.C. who died on or about ~~the 11th day of December~~ the 11th day of December , 1944, domiciled in British Columbia.

~~That I have made full, careful, and searching inquiry for the purpose of ascertaining what real and personal property and effects the said Hatsu Kitamura was possessed of, or entitled to, at the time of her death, together with the market value thereof respectively.~~

That I have, according to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, set forth in the Inventory herewith exhibited, marked "X," a full, true, and particular account of all the real and personal estate of the said Hatsu Kitamura , or of which the said Hatsu Kitamura was possessed, or to which she was entitled at the time of her death, and of all other property, income, and interests required by the form of the said Inventory to be set forth therein, together with the market value as at the date of death of each and every asset forming part of the said real and personal estate and of the other property, income, and interests particularized in the said Inventory. The said Inventory includes all real and personal estate over which the deceased had a general or limited power of appointment. The gross value of the said estate, property, income, and interests as at date of deceased's death was $2500.00

That I have included in said Inventory every security, debt, and sum of money outstanding due or payable to or standing to the credit of the said deceased at the time of her death, and in estimating the value thereof I have included all the interest due, payable, chargeable, and accruing due thereon up to the death of the said deceased.

That, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory, the said Hatsu Kitamura was not, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, at the time of her death possessed of or entitled to, any debt or sum of money, or any security, pledge, or undertaking for the payment of any money to him on any account whatsoever, or to any leasehold or other personal estate, goods, chattels, or effects in possession or reversion absolutely or contingently or otherwise howsoever.

That in the said Inventory is included all the property of the said Hatsu Kitamura situate outside of this Province, as well as the property situate within the Province.

That, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory, the said Hatsu Kitamura was not, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, at the time of her death seised of, or entitled to, any real estate in possession, remainder and reversion absolutely or contingently or otherwise howsoever.

That, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, the said deceased did not voluntarily transfer by deed, grant, or gift made in contemplation of her death, or made, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after her death, any property or any interest therein, or income therefrom, to any person in trust or otherwise by reason whereof any person is or shall become beneficially entitled in possession or expectancy in or to the said property or income thereof, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory.

That, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, the said deceased did not at any time within two years previous to the date of her death transfer by way of donatio mortis causa, or purporting to operate as an immediate gift inter vivos, whether by way of transfer, delivery, declaration of trust or otherwise, any property whatsoever, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory.

That, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, the said deceased did not at any time previous to date of her death transfer any property of which property the bona fide possession was not assumed by the donee immediately upon the gift, and thenceforth retained to the entire exclusion of the donor or any benefit to her by contract or otherwise, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory.

That, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, the said deceased did not transfer or cause to be transferred to or vested in her self and any person jointly any property to which he was absolutely entitled by purchase or investment, or in any other manner whatsoever, so that the beneficial interest therein, or some part thereof passed or accrued by survivorship on her death to such other person, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory.

That, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, the said deceased was not at the time of her death a party to any past or future settlement, including any trust, whether expressed in writing or otherwise, whether made for valuable consideration or not, as between the settlor and any other person, and not taking effect as a will whereby an interest in such property, or the proceeds of the sale thereof for life, or any other period determinable by reference to death, was reserved expressly or by implication to the deceased, or whereby the deceased reserved to her self the right by the exercise of any power to restore to her self, or to reclaim the absolute interest in such property or the proceeds of the sale thereof, or otherwise resettle the same or any part thereof, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory.

That, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, no annuity, policy of insurance, or other interest had been purchased or provided by the said deceased, either by h ~~OT~~ self alone or in concert or by arrangement with any other person, save and except what is set forth in the said Inventory.

That I have in the Inventories, respectively marked "X" and "Y," hereto annexed, set forth the assets, debts, and liabilities of the deceased and the names of the several persons to whom the property of the said deceased will pass, the degree of relationship (if any) in which they stand to the deceased, their places of domicile and residence and their addresses so far as I can ascertain them, and the nature and value of the property passing to each of these persons respectively.
