Dear Sir:-

Mr. Kenjiro Kondo, an evacuated Japanese, claims he is the owner of a three-room house on rented land on Dyke Road, E. Richmond, B.C. He was unable to describe the land more particularly.

If the property is known to you will you please advise me of the name and address of the owner of the land so occupied, the assessed value of the house and amount of unpaid taxes, if any.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir; Re: KONDO, Kenjiro - Reg. #00441

I visited the above noted Japanese, Kondo, on the 20th of April, this, being my third visit to this residence.

As no detailed inventory was made in this case on former occasions, I now enclose this for your information.

1 box heater
1 round table
5 kitchen chairs
1 baby chair
2 kettles
1 Singer Sewing Machine #115 - value about $35.00
Chest of drawers (6)
Double bed with furnishings complete
1 Lounge
1 Gramophone
2 Coleman Gas Lamps ($5.00 each new)

This man has had no notice yet as to date of evacuation and I advised the wife in case of their notice of removal to have all their windows securely battened up and proper locks for all the doors.

I was informed that the owner of most of the property around that locality was a man named Low Singh #19 Road had offered to act as Caretaker in the absence of the occupants.

Cont'd -2-

In nearly every case I learned that it is not the intention of the occupant to take any considerable quantity of their household effects and in reply to yours of the 21st instant I am advising them to case, crate and label those articles which they are unable to take with them.

Yours sincerely,

W. M. Munnandale

Dear Sir:-

In your registration form of March 22nd, you declared household furniture for your three-room scow house at Dyke Road, Richmond. We understand that before evacuation, you sold or took away all your furniture except the following:

- 1 Bed,
- 1 Gramophone (old)
- 1 Table,
- 1 Chair,
- 1 High chair.

The Chinese who owns the land against which your scow house lies, holds the key and is looking after the above which we understand are not worth moving to storage. If the above is satisfactory to you, please write a letter to us confirming that this is so.
