Dear Sir:-

Re with R.C.M.P. subject
Re Joji Nakanishi and Kaneichi
Nakanishi vs. S. Enomoto and
Rikimatsu Otsuji

We are enclosing herewith copy of Judgment dismissing this action with costs and Allocatur showing the costs having been taxed at $741.50. Under the Judgment and Allocatur the costs are payable not by the infant plaintiff but by his next friend and co-plaintiff, Kaneichi Nakanishi; also these costs are awarded to the Defendants but the costs are in fact the property of Royal Plate Glass and General Insurance Company of Canada. The Royal Plate Glass Company insured a car owned by one Defendant and driven by the other, whereby the Defendants were indemnified against public liability, and the insuring company undertook to defend any such action. The Insuring Company did undertake the defence of this action, has paid the costs and succeeded in the defence. Therefore, if there are any monies of Kaneichi Nakanishi which are available for his creditors we would be obliged if this sum would be paid out therefrom to the Insuring Company.

Yours truly,

We acknowledge your letter of the 28th ultimo. The situation in this connection is that the above named Nakanishi brought an action in the Supreme Court against two other Japanese, named Enomoto and Otsuji for damages suffered by Mr. Nakanishi's infant child, Joji. The trial was completed on April 14, 1942 before the Honourable Mr. Justice Manson, when decision was reserved. Since that time no decision has been rendered, and we are unable to ascertain when the Judge intends to give Judgment. Possibly the war situation is having some bearing on the decision. We do not know the reason for the delay, and presumably all we can do is wait until the Judge makes up his mind. In that action we claimed for the hospital expenses and for the amount of the account of Doctors Whitelaw and McIntosh. The hospital bill is for $406.75, not for $411.75, according to our records and copy of the account which was rendered to Mr. Nakanishi. In addition to these claims, there are two others which we acknowledge. One is that of Dr. Edward J. Grey for approximately $100.00. It was $60.00 up to the time of the trial, and we understand subsequent services were rendered. Mr. Nakanishi also gave us written instructions to pay $30.00 out of the proceeds of the Judgment (if any) to T. Okutsu, formerly of 226 Powell Street, and the former landlord of Mr. Nakanishi.

111.75 is according to "Inv. a file"

We shall communicate with you when we hear further in connection with this Judgment.

Yours truly,
