Dear Mr. Spain:

Re: Policy #244,666 - Takemi TERADA.
Your File No. 2,000.

We wish to acknowledge your letter enclosing Policy #244,666 on the life of the above Japanese, and the Cash Surrender Discharge forms which have been signed in duplicate by your Department.

We are sorry to advise you that as only three years had been paid on this policy, when the 1942 premium fell due and was not paid, the policy lapsed. The date of lapse was the 20th of November 1942. There is, therefore, no cash surrender value available to the insured and we are returning the discharge forms to you.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

Re: Policy No. 2,200,679 - Jukichi Terada
Your reference: - 2000

On May 23rd you submitted to us the above numbered policy together with application for Cash Surrender Value. At that date we could not locate any record of this policy in our office but submitted the policy and application form to our Head Office thinking that the policy might still be in force and the records held in some other Branch.

We are now advised by our Head Office that the policy was issued on June 10, 1935 but the Assured paid only the first premium and the policy lapsed in June of 1936, in view of which there is, of course, no surrender value in the policy.

Yours faithfully,

C.E. May,
Branch Secretary.
