Re: Mr. & Mrs. Hideya FUKUSHIMA

Although Mrs. Hideya Fukushima signed on August 5th that the list of that date covered all her belongings in the restricted area, it does not appear to include all the furniture inventoried by Mr. Hinton. In the interests of economy, no check of this should at present be made since it may be assumed that either Mr. Hinton has moved everything to the Willows or anything not moved is cared for by the tenant.

Mr. and Mrs. Hideya FUKUSHIMA,
Registration Nos. 07633 & 10051,
Tashme, B. C.

Dear Sir & Madam:-

Thank you for your letter of March 26th. We are taking up direct with Yonejiro Hirahara the question of his things originally stored at 973 Caledonia Street and since moved to the Willows.

It now appears that the list signed by your wife on August 5th included some of Yonejiro Hirahara's things. These either have been or probably will be sent to him. Our records also seem to indicate that this list did not include some of your furniture. In any case, everything is being properly cared for either by your tenant or in storage at the Willows.

We note your request for photographs and assure you that there is no question of selling items of sentimental value. We enclose our form letter No. 107 instructing you how to apply for shipment of these items.

Yours truly,

Mr. H. C. Hinton,

Victoria, B. C.

Dear Sir:-

Re: Mr. & Mrs. Hideyu FUKUSHIMA

We recently received an enquiry from the Supervisor at Tashme where Mr. Hideyu Fukushima is located asking if there were any goods for him at Willows Park. Unfortunately, this letter was overlooked in this office. We have now heard from the Japanese direct that he wishes us to send him everything belonging to him kept in the Willows Park. This, however, does not include anything still left at 973 Caledonia Avenue.

We see from the list of Japanese personal belongings stored in the Willows that a number of articles are stored there in the name of Mrs. Hideyu Fukushima less one or two subsequently shipped and we think, therefore, it will be in order for you to ship the balance to this Japanese at Tashme. Please bill these right through advancing any freight or cartage and send us particulars of the cost together with that of your own time which we will then immediately refund from this Japanese' credit in this office. He is hoping to receive these things before Christmas.

On reference to Mrs. Hideyu Fukushima's file, we see that there may be one or two items belonging to Mrs. Yonejiro Hirahara included with the Fukushima things. We believe, however, you have since been able to separate these as we see a manuscript addition to the former's list in the inventory of items stored at the Willows.

Yours truly,

H. F. Green

Dear Sir:-

Re: Catalogue No. 892
973 Caledonia Ave.
Mr. And Mrs. Hideyo FUKUSHIMA

These premises are now in course of sale and we see from yours of December 16th, 1943, that the only remaining belongings here consist of a stove and coffee table. Please have these moved to one of Messrs. Maynard's auctions as soon as this can conveniently be arranged unless, of course, the tenant or purchaser (refer to Messrs. Wise & Company for the latter) wish to buy them, in which case it will be in order to have them appraised.

Yours truly,
