CHATEL SUMMARY

File No. 2048

July 27, 1945.

RE: Tokujiro TSUKADA

Mr. Tokujiro TSUKADA registered twice, first on March 30th, 1942, at which time he listed many personal effects, then again on April 21st, 1942, when the list was reduced to 8 items. The items listed on the first registration were supposed to be in storage at the Buddhist Church, 715 West 7th Ave., and those listed on the second registration at 755 W. 7th Ave. Between the time of registration and evacuation on June 29, 1942, he evidently changed his mind and left a large portion of his chattels in the care of a Mrs. Finnigan, 745 West 7th Ave., and a number of these were shipped to him through the B. C. Security Commission as shown on release forms on file.

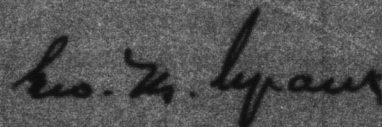

The church at 715 West 7th Ave. was entered by thieves and vandals on several occasions, and it was decided that the contents should be moved to auction to prevent further depredations.

Most of the Japanese apparently thought that churches and schools would remain sacred and inviolate and that their chattels, if stored there, would be found exactly where they were left. In most cases, therefore, they failed to label, ticket or mark their names or registration numbers on the goods. Under such circumstances our field staff was obliged to exercise extraordinary discrimination in the segregation of the chattels.

Mr. TSUKADA was advised by us on March 21, 1945, of the condition that existed and we sent him a copy of the auction sheet showing what had been recovered and his credit balance with us for same.

On July 15th, 1945, we received a letter from his son Masao, asking that we remit the proceeds of sale of chattels to his father. There does not appear to be any reason why the funds, amounting to $12.23, should not be remitted.

Mr. Tokujiro TSUKADA,
Registration No. 01362,
c/o Mr. Masao TSUKADA,
43 Murray St.,
TORONTO 28, Ont.

Dear Sir:

In compliance with the request contained in a letter from your son dated July 15th, we are enclosing cheque for $12.23, representing proceeds of sale of your chattels at auction.

We have reviewed your file and note that you registered twice at the Custodian registration bureau, first on March 30th, 1942, and again on April 21, 1942. On the first J. P. form you declared an extensive list of chattels stored at the Buddhist Church, 715 W. 7th Ave., and on your second J.P. form you just listed eight articles, principally clothing, stored at 755 W. 7th Ave. Later it transpired that you had apparently changed your mind and left the majority of your personal property with a Mrs. Finnigan, 745 W. 7th Ave.

Custodian releases were issued and the U. C. Security Commission effected shipments to you on different occasions. Everything left in our protective custody has therefore been shipped to you, or sold at auction as per list sent to you some time ago.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the protected area which vested in the Custodian, and in order that you may confirm this and acknowledge the cheque, we are enclosing a stamped addressed envelope for convenience in replying.

Yours truly,
