April 15/47

RE: Seisaburo TSUJIMURA, Reg. No. 07194

A claim in the sum of $.65 was filed against TSUJIMURA by Kikujiro TANAKA, File 10727. TSUJIMURA denied this claim in his letter of Nov. 22/42. We advised TANAKA of this in our letter of Dec. 2/42. TANAKA stated that particulars of this debt could be found in his account books. These account books were checked but no claim was found against TSUJIMURA. No further action was therefore taken in the matter.

There are no other claims on file against TSUJIMURA. There are no claims on file against his wife.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 2054

April 15/47

RE: Seizaburo TSUJIMURA, Reg. No. 07194

This file reveals that TSUJIMURA owned no real property in any protected area of B.C. and did not carry any Fire Insurance.

CHATELS: TSUJIMURA made his declaration to the Custodian on March 17/42 and was evacuated on the same day. He declared chattels as shown on the Chattel Schedule on file, at 546 Powell St. Goods as shown on the Schedule were removed from this address on Oct. 23/42 by the Custodian. Of these goods only a counter and some bamboo shelving were sold at auction for the total net sum of $1.59. A clothes dryer, crib, carton of books, and a bdle of wooden trays inventoried by the Custodian are missing. a pedal sewing machine, garden tools and carpenter tools declared by TSUJIMURA were not found by the Custodian.

The registered owner of this property was Washiri OYA, deceased, who had apparently been residing in Ontario for some years before his death. According to information on this file, the rear of the building in which Mr. and Mrs. TSUJIMURA was in such a dilapidated condition that the Building Department of the city ordered that it be demolished. Judging from the condition of the building, it is more than likely that the chattels owned by TSUJIMURA would be of little value, and it is possible that the chattels inventoried by the Custodian and marked as missing, were not saleable. It is also possible that any other articles found in the building may have been considered not worth moving.

The only other person who appeared to live in this building was the Rev. T. TATSU, and there are no chattels sold on his file. Part of the building also appears to have been used as a Gospel hall, at least the directory lists the Foursquare Gospel Lighthouse at 546 Powell St.

VICTORY BONDS:

He declared a $50.00 Victory Bond which he stated he had cashed. He also said he had some War Savings Certificates for his children. These were not brought under the control of the Custodian.

BANK ACCOUNT:

He declared an account in the Royal Bank of Canada, Coal Harbour, in the sum of $5.00. This was not brought under the control of the Custodian.

No property interests other than those mentioned above are found on this file.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.
