Dear Sir:-

At the time of my evacuation from Vancouver I turned over to the R.C.M.P. a Chevrolet sedan delivery truck, 1941 model.

It was designated in their files as T-124.

Subsequently it was sold through your office for the sum of $900.00 and I received a statement (file N^o 2061) saying that the money was being held in your trust account.

Since then I have heard nothing from you regarding this sum, although it is now 1946 and the period of emergency apparently over.

I would like to add here that I am Canadian born and did not sign for repatriation.

Needless to say, I must have funds to re-establish myself here in Eastern Canada and am rather continue to have the men released from your custody immediately.

I have checked the film and give it
your careful consideration.
I am hoping for a favorable reply,

Respectfully yours,
Dwight D. Eisenhower

Dear Sir:

Your letter (filed) dated

April 2nd arrived today.

Accompanying it was the anticipated check to cover the sale of my car. The amount ($79.51) is in conformation with the statement previously supplied me by the Custodian's Office.

Those other items which you mention and which I had declared to the custodian at the time of registration is in my possession. Therefore, the receipt of this check fully liquidates my account
held in your care.

I appreciate the prompt attention which you gave my request.
