Dear Sir,

I am writing today to acknowledge your letter to me of January 2th, concerning my chattels still remaining in care of Stewart & Welch Ltd's Superintendent at Great Central.

The Bed and Spring is of little value to me here. So if any one in the community wishes to purchase this at a reasonable price, I would be pleased to surrender, rather than see it wasted.

Could you kindly, together with the amount received be sent to me whenever convenient.
