Dear Sir:

Our client, Mr. Harry Wong, attended our office with a Mr. Nagataichi and advised us that he had purchased from Mr. Nagataichi his business known as the Tourist Confectionary Store of 900 Pender Street West, for the sum of $650. He further advised us that he had paid this money some days previous to calling at our office. We thereupon advised him that a Bill of Sale was necessary.

We are instructed by Mr. Nagataichi that he did not register with your office, and we are advised by a clerk in your office that not having registered it is not necessary to obtain from you a permit for this transaction. However, as we have not a copy of the regulations we would be pleased to receive from you assurance that our client's action is correct, or in the alternative a permit as we have not filed the Bill of Sale which we, subsequently to our client's attendance at our office, drew and had completed by all parties.

Yours truly,

IAN CAMERON & CO.,
