Dear Sirs -

My parents are here in Lyatta, living in a very small house. In order to make the house a little larger, we have bought some lumber, & I have written a check. But the check has been returned, without being cashed saying they did not have an account of mine. Later I required about this account, and the Royal Bank of Canada, East End Branch in Vancouver replied, that the balance account of $299.35 has been transferred to the Custodian of Enemy Property on May 20th 1942.

Dear Sir:

Some time ago you gave us a cheque in payment for lumber amounting to $88.85 which was drawn on the Hastings & Main or East End Branch of the Royal Bank in Vancouver.

We have passed this cheque for payment and have a letter from the bank stating that they cannot trace where you have an account in either of these branches, in fact, they state they checked up with various banks in Vancouver but failed to locate your having an account there.

We might state that Mr. Archie Stuart of Lyalta called for this material a few days ago and as we did not care to let the material go without the money, Mr. Stuart put up the cash so that you now owe him for the material as he has paid us the $88.85.

Yours very truly,
