CHATEL SUMMARY

Re: Josuke TAMEMOTO

Reg. No. 03559

Evacuated April 18/42

Before evacuation, Josuke Tamemoto declared on April 13, 1942, chattels to be stored at House No. 13 belonging to the Great West Cannery at Steveston.

On September 21, 1943, on a Custodian Release Form, he requested the shipment of certain articles from the upstairs house No. 10, Great West Cannery. We cannot find any record of these being shipped, but on the files taken from our Steveston Office we find that all the chattels situated in House No. 10, Great West Cannery, were removed on July 22, 1942, under the name of his son, Tetsuo Tamemoto - File No. 9252. A list of the items removed was submitted to Tetsuo, which he returned, signed as belonging to him.

Although Tetsuo Tamemoto declared that the personal property of his wife would be left in a house on No. 2 Road at Steveston, it appears that proceeds from the sale of chattels removed from Great West Cannery House No. 10 were credited to him when they should have been credited to his father, Josuke Tamemoto.

On the file of his son-in-law, Goichiro Yonemoto - File No. 1733, there is a letter from Josuke Tamemoto, dated January 26, 1944, to Mrs. Myrtle Miller, the tenant of Yonemoto's house, in which he requests shipment of different articles belonging to him and stored in her care. The Custodian, on March 27, 1944, made a shipment to Josuke Tamemoto, as per list of same date on file. We do not know if he removed these goods from the Great West Cannery House No. 10, before evacuation, to the home of his son-in-law.

On the list of chattels removed from the house of Goichiro Yonemoto, Mr. Robinson, the Custodian's agent, has marked 3 rolls of linoleum as belonging to Josuke Tamemoto. These were auctioned and credited to his account. Also auctioned, in Tamemoto's name, was a garden hose and 3 kitchen chairs, which on the auction sheet, are also identified as belonging to Josuke Tamemoto.

Josuke Tamemoto also declared 1 piano, and in a letter from him to Mrs. Miller, the tenant of the son-in-law's house, we find that he has agreed to sell the piano to Mrs. Miller for $80.00. A cheque in the amount of $295.00 was received from Mrs. Miller on February 18, 1944, which included different items sold to her by Yonemoto in the amount of $215.00. The $80.00 included in this cheque, making a total of $295.00, should have been credited to the account of Josuke Tamemoto, however, this was not done, and as most of the funds of the son-in-law, have been paid out the balance of his account is only $58.74. We are transferring this amount to Josuke Tamemoto's account and are writing him to make the adjustments with his son-in-law, Goichiro Yonemoto.

The above Summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file:
