MEMORANDUM

TO THE FILE:

Re: Yukiharu TADOKORO - Regn. No. 01873

Mr. TADOKORO left certain goods with Mrs. G.W. Magee, 6608 Laburnum Street, Vancouver, at the time of evacuation. Mrs. Magee died during the summer of 1948, and her daughter, Miss Magee, telephoned yesterday afternoon and advised us she has sold the property at the above address and as she must vacate around the 16th of this month, she wished to know what she should do with the remaining articles consisting of:

1. A small dresser
2. Several cardboard boxes.

On instructions from Mr. Shears, the writer advised Miss Magee by telephone at Fairmont 1236, that it would be in order for her to carry out any arrangements made with Mr. Tadokoro for disposing of the goods, but that the Custodian would not at this time take any action regarding the articles left in her care. Miss Magee stated she would write Mr. Tadokoro.

c/o C. D. Peterson,
Welling, Alta.

Dear Sir & Madam:-

On July 13th we wrote to Mrs. Yukiharu Tadokoro about her effects left behind in Vancouver and on July 20th to Mr. Yukiharu Tadokoro. We had an answer from Mrs. Yukiharu Tadokoro on August 4th giving us the following information.

(1) Things left at 6237 West Boulevard: Mrs. Magee tells us that nothing was left here except three bed springs which as you did not declare them to us and as they were worthless, have been disposed of by Mrs. Magee. She tells us that she tried to sell these bed springs for you but was unable to do so, the second-hand man eventually agreeing to take them away in the hope that later he might be able to recover cartage. With regard to the other things said to be left at 6237 West Boulevard, Mrs. Magee reports that Mr. Yukiharu Tadokoro, when calling at her house at 6608 Laburnum Street and leaving some things with her, had a truck piled with the rest of the furniture which he asked her to store. She said she could not do so and believes that he subsequently removed this to Steveston.

(2) Things left with Mr. C. A. Boden, 2194 W. 49th Avenue being gas range, automobile chains and jack: These are complete and we are getting Mr. Boden's acknowledgement. ✓

(3) Things left with Mrs. C. W. Magee being a bureau, trunk and mirror: These are in order and we will likewise get Mrs. Magee's confirmation. ✓

(4) Your sewing machine said to be left with Mrs. Jeans being the daughter of Mr. Adams left at 2255 West 49th Avenue: There is no such address so please give us more information in order that we may look after this piece of property.

Gentlemen:

I have been asked by John Y. Tado-koro, a Japanese residing in this district who was formerly evacuated from your Province, if I would write and request permission for him to have shipped from his former home in Vancouver, a combination radio and phonograph to his temporary residence in this district.

He reports that a friend of his residing somewhere at the coast has already made application for the same thing but to date his request has not been granted.

We have done some business with this party and it is in response to a request he has made of us that we are writing you at this time. Will you kindly let us know the status of the situation concerning his request and we will be pleased to convey to him the information you pass along to us.

Yours truly
