PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File 2850

Re: Tsumoru HANADA - - Reg. 00439

September 16, 1946.

CHATELS:

Tsumoru HANADA did not declare any personal effects, but on February 3rd, 1943, our fieldmen reported that some effects inventoried by them on the property of Kamakichi NAGASAKA, file 5599, appeared to belong to HANADA. As the result of our enquiries to HANADA, he claimed that

|                               |                                   |
|-------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1 trunk                       | 1 wooden box containing glassware |
| 1 wicker basket               | and china.                        |
| 1 homemade dresser containing | 1 cloth bag containing clothing.  |
| gramophone records            |                                   |
| 1 wooden box containing       |                                   |
| books and tools.              |                                   |

were kept at NAGASAKA'S place.

The Custodian was unable to definitely identify these and although Mr. NAGASAKA was requested by the Custodian in successive letters to indicate the items on his inventory, he did not do so and it may be assumed that HANADA'S effects were either shipped to K. NAGASAKA by the tenant, (L. Accarias,) on the property, or were sold at auction with NAGASAKA'S effects.

BONDS AND

SHARES:

The declarant surrendered while he was interned - 12 - $5.00 War Savings Certificates and 28 Shares of Canadian Pacific Railway stock. These were returned to him by registered mail on July 2nd, 1943, after his release from internment.

BANK DEPOSIT:

Royal Bank of Canada forwarded the Custodian on June 4th, 1942, the balance of HANADA'S Savings account - $1.17, and this was credited to him.

LIFE

INSURANCE:

Declarant surrendered his Sun Life Assurance Endowment policy number 439168 while interned. The beneficiary was his wife Kiyoe HANADA (In Japan). The policy was returned to him after his release and at his request to Sun Life Assurance Co., the maturity value of $1067.49 was left with them on deposit. The Custodian did not object to this. Two annuity payments of $37.36 on Sun Life policy #2366837 (not declared) were mailed to HANADA on October 3rd, 1944 and October 1st, 1945 respectively.

WAGES:

The file reveals that wage cheques due HANADA were sent by the Department of Mines and Resources to B.C. Security Commission August 12th, 1942.

No other personal property other than the above are revealed on this file.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

Dear Sirs:

Re: HANADA, Tsunoru,
Reg. No. 00439

Re your letter of October 3rd, ~~we~~ not consider it to be of any useful purpose for Hanada to come to Vancouver. There are apparently several lots of Japanese effects stored in the Nagasaka place and Hanada has no authority to interfere with these.

We suggested some time ago that he write to Nagasaka and ask him to indicate on the list just where his things could be found, we also wrote Nagasaka along the same lines, but have received no reply.

I believe the best thing would be for the B.C. Security Commission to get in touch with Nagasaka and ask him to clarify on his inventory all chattels and belongings of other Japanese.

Re: P/W A-1372 - HANADA, Tamsorn
Policy No. 439168

Dear Sirs:

According to information supplied to the Custodian, the above party has been interned and his Life Insurance Policy, has, therefore, vested in the Custodian.

By an arrangement with the Canadian Life Officers' Association, policies of this nature are held in suspense and premiums accumulate, but under the Regulations they are not cancelled.

If any funds are available, the Custodian, at the request of the internee, will arrange to pay the premium and if the internee does not desire that the premium be paid, then we will advise you and discuss the question of cancellation.

Yours truly,

K.W. WRIGHT.

For the Authorized Deputy of the Secretary of State and/ or the Custodian.
