Dear Sirs,

We have a two year old echoe net with old lines belonging to one of our Japs T.Miki.

One of our old time fishermen would like to buy this and is offering $75.00 for it which is a fair price.

Would you get in touch with the proper authorities to see if they will accept this price.

If you cannot get off a reply by return mail would you wire us via Beaver Cannery.

Re: MIKI. Toshichi

Confirming our telephone conversation yesterday in which we advised you that your Good Hope Cannery's offer of $75.00 for net belonging to the above, was not accepted by the owner who has telegraphed us from Greenwood. Would the fisherman like to make another offer, or shall we write to Toshichi Miki to know what price he will accept?

letter of April 24 addressed to you under File #3032
in regard to claims lodged against the above by ✓ O. KONDO Co., $30.53, and Matsu TANAKA (Steveston

both these claims are in order.

MIKI contends that Matsu TANAKA, who is now resident in Grand Forks, is an old friend of his and has told him not to worry about the claim.
With reference to the balance of $85.00 which the Custodian states is standing to Miki's credit, would you please request the Custodian's office to
