PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 3607

September 10, 1945.

Re: Shigeo HAYAMI, Reg. No. 03114 (Deceased)

When this man registered with the Custodian on April 10, 1942, he declared no property of any kind whatsoever. However the file reveals that he was the owner of the following:

CHATELS: On March 19, 1942, prior to the date of HAYAMI's registration, Hygrade Radio Limited reported that HAYAMI had given them the following goods to dispose of at the prices shown:

Article	To net
1 only Universal Mike	$15.00
1 " R.C.A. Mike	20.00
2 " DX1312 Speakers	35.00 each
1 " 60-Watt Jefferson Amplifier	75.00

Shigeo HAYAMI did not leave the protected area until October 28, 1942, and as he did not report ownership of these articles to the Custodian at any time, it would appear evident that he had disposed of them himself and had received payment. As a matter of record, Hygrade Radio Limited reported, on July 13, 1945, that they had paid cash to HAYAMI for the first two articles, and had delivered the remaining three to Mr. J. Dempster, for the B. C. Security Commission, on September 2, 1942. Delivery to Mr. Dempster was proven by receipt held by Hygrade Radio Limited. The files of the B. C. Security Commission reveal no record of the shipment of these articles, but at the time of the delivery to the Commission, HAYAMI was at Hastings Park, where Mr. Dempster was employed, and it is assumed that the articles were handed to HAYAMI by Mr. Dempster, and disposed of by HAYAMI before his evacuation.

RADIOS: The three radios, reported on in Specified Articles Summary, were first reported to the Custodian by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in August 1942. Offers to purchase the Westinghouse and Deforest Crossley radios were referred to the owner, who replied that he wanted $20.00 net for the Deforest Crossley, and that he had spent $22.05 on the Westinghouse radio just before its surrender. These radios were appraised in 1942. The prices obtained when the radios were sold were considerably in excess of the 1942 valuations. For details see Specified Articles Summary.

The file contains no evidence of any other personal property of any kind belonging to this man.

The above is certified to be in accordance with information on file.
