Mr. Genjiro KURODA,
Registration No. 07287,
121 Ross Avenue,
Toronto, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

With further reference to our letter dated April 21st, 1949, copy of which is attached hereto, we wish to state that we have examined more carefully the Shrine listed in your name and have found several papers inside of the same, two of which are marked "KURODA" according to two Japanese in Vancouver who made the translation. This would appear to positively identify the Shrine as being the one for which you have made a claim. This Shrine is in good condition and will be forwarded to you on receipt of your request.

In the meantime, however, you might forward to us a detailed description of your Shrine and idol (Buddha statue, etc.), or photographs of the same, in order that we may complete identification of these items referred to in your claim.

Your early attention to this matter is expressly requested.

Yours truly,

W. J. Johnston,

We duly received your letter of the 11th ultimo, enclosing the bills you received from the Vancouver General Hospital and note that the final amount shown is $134.15. In accordance with your request, we have paid the Hospital the sum of $135.00 from your account and are enclosing, herewith, their receipt No. 20508, for a similar amount, together with our cheque for $10.00 in your favour which amount will close your account in this office.

PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 3907

September 4, 1947.

Re: Genjiro KURODA, Reg. No. 07287

This man signed a declaration to the Custodian on April 14, 1942. He was evacuated on August 25, 1942.

REAL ESTATE

KURODA declared a five-room house at Deep Bay, built on property owned by Canadian Colliers (Dunsmuir). No ground rent had been paid on this house since 1928. KURODA had no equity in the house and did not receive any money from the Colliers for the house.

CHATELS

KURODA declared a few pieces of household furniture and effects and thirteen boxes of store merchandise, all left in his house at Deep Bay. The stove which he declared was sold to the B. C. Packers Limited for $75.00. KURODA's receipt for this amount is on file under date of May 4, 1942. According to Matt Brown's report of August 13, 1942, the remainder of the chattels which KURODA declared were shipped to Vancouver on May 30, 1942 and stored at 992 Powell St. An inventory of the goods is filed under date of June 8, 1942. The inventory lists a considerable number of items which KURODA did not declare. No inventory was taken at his house as the goods had been shipped out prior to Matt Brown's inspection. However, as KURODA operated a store at Deep Bay and owned a five-room house, it would appear obvious from the nature of the goods inventoried that they belonged to him. KURODA was residing in Vancouver at the time of his declaration and as there were no other Japanese of that name living at Deep Bay it may be presumed that these goods were Genjiro KURODA's property. A signed list of the goods in storage was received from KURODA on October 28, 1942.

A release form dated June 9, 1942, requests shipment of twenty-two cartons of groceries, two boxes of wool, and a tub of sauce. There is no confirmation of shipment on file or on Department of Labour shipping records.

Chattels identified as the property of KURODA were sold at Vancouver Auctions 32, 33, 34, 35, 58, and 59. The majority of the goods auctioned were dishes, cutlery, and small miscellaneous articles which would, in all probability, be the contents of the large number of cartons and boxes inventoried (see chattel schedule.)

Two oil cans were sold at Steveston Auction 22 under the name G. KURODA. Steveston auction files reveal that the oil cans were the property of Genjiro KURODA, Vancouver.

Mr. Spain's memo of October 14, 1944, states that one tank belonging to KURODA was shipped to Steveston for sale. As this memo is dated the day after the oil cans were sold it is presumed that these were shipped with the tank and that Mr. Spain did not write his memo on the same day as the goods were shipped. There is no record on file of the sale of the tank. All available auction information has been examined and no evidence of the sale was found.

The total proceeds of the sale of KURODA's chattels amounted to $191.86 and this was

Mr. Spain's memo of July 4, 1946, states that there were two rolls of film stored at 604 E. Cordova which were the property of KURODA. These were brought to the office on July 9, 1947 and KURODA was advised on September 5 that we were holding the rolls for him.

BONDS

KURODA reported seven $5.00 War Savings Certificates. These were not brought under the control of the Custodian.

LIFE INSURANCE

KURODA reported two Life Insurance Policies. These did not come into the possession of the Custodian. On September 13, 1944, we advised KURODA that we had received a last call notice of premium due from the Monarch Life Insurance Policy and that as he had no funds standing to his credit with the Custodian, we would be unable to help him make the payment.

This file reveals no other property of any kind.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

MEMORANDUM

File No. 3906
Case No. 2227

1st December, 1949

Re: Genjiro KURODA, born. No. 97227

The above Japanese is claiming $122.00 for a Buddha Statue, etc. (Japanese).

A Shrine in the name of KURODA was shipped prepaid to Genjiro KURODA on the 30th November, 1949.

Several letters had been written to KURODA by the Custodian asking for a description of his Buddha Statue in order to properly identify the Shrine, but no reply was ever received, and as his name "KURODA", was found on several papers inside the Shrine, it has been forwarded to him and the amount of $122.00, removed from the "Recorded now missing" Column of the Claims Analysis.

New Receipt.

DEFENCE BRIEF

Genjiro KURODA

File No. 3907

Case No. 1057

PERSONAL PROPERTY CLAIMS

1. Claim for Goodwill

$2,000.00

Abandoned and put on a different basis. See Transcript p. 6. See now claim 2.

2. Claim for building which claimant owned on rented land.

$2,000.00

The Commissioner does not appear disposed to view this as a personalty claim in view of the fact that the foundation was sent into the ground. See p.7, line 12 et seq. It is respectfully suggested that our best defence is to pursue this line of thought particularly since it is by no means certain what was done with the house.
The personal property summary simply states that Kuroda had no equity in the house and did not receive any money from the Colliery. Mr. Hunter's submission, at page 10, was that the building was attached to the real property and therefore did not belong to the claimant.

The Commissioner at page 10 tells Mr. Best that he must, to support his claim, produce documentary evidence of a right to remove the building.

3. Chattel Claim

$2045.90

(a) Goods valued by claimant at $1313.82.

Sold at Auction

Sale Price

$221.65

Witness: - Mr. Wills

Witness: - Mr. Harris - Custodian representatives at auction.

(b) Goods valued by claimant at $324.75.

No record at any time.

Witness: - Only witnesses who might be able to throw any light on these goods Mr. Gerard, Manager of Canadian Packers, and Matt Brown, who reported on these goods. However, Brown did not actually see the goods as they were shipped to Vancouver prior to his inspection by B.C. Packers.
(See Report).

Note:- Please refer to the "remarks" column on the new P.P. analysis also.

Mr. Hunter did not plead agency on this count. However, it is suggested with respect that counsel might consider the agency angle.

(c) Goods valued by claimant at { $91.00. 63.50 received more money

Abandoned

Witness: - W.G.B. Thompson, Auctioneer, certified that a showcase was of no value. Certificate is on claim file.

Witness: - Wm. Wills, Custodian representative, abandoned said showcase. Mattresses claimed for were also abandoned. There is no certificate. It was customary to abandon mattresses unless they were good enough to sell.

(d) Goods valued by claimant at $17.00.

Unsold

This refers to motion picture film which is still in the office of the Custodian. Presumably the claimant can have it if he wants it.

(e) Goods valued by claimant at $299.33. ap 14.42

Long stolen etc.

Note: This man remained in B.P. until Aug 25/42. He agreed as inventory of his goods Sept 28/42 which includes Buddha, etc. and which did not include the idol. See documents of prop. A.H.

No indication of what happened to most of these. But see the remarks column on the new analysis. Particularly with regard to the Buddha, etc., which may still be on hand should the claimant care to furnish sufficient particulars to identify it.

Note that $46.05 was obtained from sales not related to the claim.

PART I. REVISED STATUTES OF CANADA 1927. CHAPTER 92.

JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

(THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE H. I. BIRD, COMMISSIONER).

10

Toronto, Ontario,
May 19th, 1948.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF SHUZO KURODA.

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

20 APPEARANCES:

J. W. G. HUNTER, Esq.,

appearing for the Dominion Government.

E. A. BEST, Esq.,

appearing for the Claimant.

A. WATSON, Esq.,

Secretary.

MRS. F. L. HANFORD,

Official Interpreter.

T. P. HODGKIN, Esq.,

Official Reporter.

Toronto, Ontario,

May 11th, 1948.

MR. BEST: My lord, as far as Kuroda's claim is concerned, there is just one thing to be said that I now have the list with valuations of the chattels which the claimant tells me is the same list as is claimed for on the claim, but on the claim there are no valuations and there are a great many differences. I mean, on the claim, for instance, there was just a list of cartons. Now, there are said to be things such as a gramophone—

THE COMMISSIONER: Just a moment, could I have the Kuroda claim, Mr. Secretary? It is No. 42 on the list. Just let me see it for a moment.

MR. BEST: This is a rather technical claim, my lord, in that it is broken down into three specific claims. This man conducted a sort of general store and post-office at Deep Bay.

THE COMMISSIONER: Just a minute now. No. 42 does not show any personal claim at all.

MR. BEST: That is correct, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: But actually there is?

MR. BEST: It is wrong on the list, my lord. The way the thing is set up, actually there is no real claim because a house that is claimed for is not on land which he owned, it is on land which he leased.

THE COMMISSIONER: Oh, I see.

MR. BEST: And in view of your Lordship's ruling, there is no claim for goodwill but there is a claim for a long list of chattels which amounts to about

Discussion.

MR. HUNT: I have the list, I think now.

MR. HUNT: It is all dependent on your Lordship's ruling. There is also a small claim for bills receivable which I am afraid will not be acceptable.

THE COMMISSIONER: What is the situation from the point of view of the Government with regard to the chattel claim? Did you sell these goods?

MR. HUNTER: Everything claimed for is shown as sold, with the exception of three items. One is No. 70, a dresser, which is shown as abandoned -- both are shown as abandoned -- and No. 99, a bundle of pictures which are shown as unsold and in storage at 604 East Cordova.

THE COMMISSIONER: There is nothing in the way of our proceeding with that claim?

MR. HUNT: Well, only this, my lord, that I didn't want to take my learned friend unaware again because the list that is now being given to me doesn't really seem to give very well here because while, say 50% of it does, a lot of cartons which apparently contained such things as phonographs with a valuation opposite. If my friend is ready to go on, all right, but I realize it may be a little surprising to him to learn that these items were only listed as cartons, and so on.

THE COMMISSIONER: He must have found out what was in them, or rather the Custodian must have.

MR. HUNTER: They merely show four small boxes sold at auction. I don't know who drew it up, but actually this is a rather peculiar analysis, my lord. It doesn't show any values or anything else.

Discussion.

MR. BEST: I have the list, I think now.

MR. HUNTER: If it would be of no value to your Lordship at all, there is no point in using it. I think a new analysis would have to be drawn.

THE COMMISSIONER: Perhaps we had better not attempt to go on with it.

MR. BEST: I have these lists with the valuations of the chattels, my lord, but I realize that Mr. Hunter probably wouldn't recognize a lot of the items which the claimant says were in these boxes that are merely shown as cartons.

THE COMMISSIONER: You see, all this preparatory work has been done in Vancouver by the Custodian's staff and it just throws an added burden on Mr. Hunter to be doing it here without having the benefit of the same intimate knowledge of the file as they have in Vancouver. I will leave it to you, Mr. Hunter.

MR. HUNTER: I think it would be of no value to you at all unless we have another analysis.

THE COMMISSIONER: Do you want to have it drawn in Vancouver?

MR. HUNTER: I am not sure, my lord. I would like to.

THE COMMISSIONER: Think it over and you can let me know tomorrow, but I agree that it is just a waste of effort to start on something that is not in shape. We will hold it over to be spoken to tomorrow. Now, thinking in terms of the presence of the claimant, it is improbable that you will be able to go on tomorrow, is that not the situation, Mr. Hunter?

MR. HUNTER: Unless it turns out to be a great deal easier than I think.

THE COMMISSIONER: I think we would be safer standing it over. Suppose we put it down to be heard on Thursday, if you are in a position to do it with the instructions you have now.

MR. HENYER: Very good, my lord.

(PROCEEDINGS ADJOURNED UNTIL MAY 19th, 1946).

May 19th, 1946.

10 (PROCEEDINGS RESUMED PURSUANT TO ADJOURNMENT)

MR. BEST: You may recall, my lord, this case was up the other day and was adjourned until today.

THE COMMISSIONER: I recall it.

SHUNJIRO KURODA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. BEST:

Q Mr. Kuroda, is that your signature?

A Yes.

20 Q And was that form prepared upon your instructions?

A Yes.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

Q Mr. Kuroda, I understand that you conducted a sort of general store or tobacconist business, together with a poolroom at Deep Bay, British Columbia; is that correct?

A: Yes.

Q And it is as a result of having conducted that business prior to evacuation that you are making your claim now?

A: Yes.

30 MR. BEST: I should explain perhaps, my lord, that on the original claim as filed, there was $2000.00 claimed for the business and goodwill. In view of your Lordship's ruling, we are having to abandon that claim as such, but put it on a little different basis, my Lord. You will notice in Exhibit 1, the claimant is claiming for a frame building which was erected on land owned by the Canadian Collieries, and he now, in effect, is claiming for that building, together with his loss of the business on the same basis as one or two other claims your Lordship has heard where he admits he sold the stock of his business in a rather isolated spot. As I understand it, Deep Bay is somewhere up the Coast on Vancouver Island.

In Chief.

THE COMMISSIONER: Near Bowen.

MR. BENT: Yes, near Bowen.

THE COMMISSIONER: The building is erected on land of the Canadian Colliery Company? How do you propose to sustain a claim for the building? Was it a portable building?

MR. BENT: As I understand it, it could be moved.

THE COMMISSIONER: You better adduce some evidence to support it.

MR. BENT: I shall do so, but I wanted to make plain the nature of the claim and why it hadn't been claimed in view of the fact that the Custodian didn't take over his business as a going concern, and he did sell the stock on a forced sale.

THE COMMISSIONER: The claimant sold the stock.

MR. BENT: Yes, my Lord, he did.

7
G. Eureka,
In Chief.

THE COMMISSIONER: You say that the Custodian sold the building?

MR. BEST: I say, my lord, that frankly we don't know what has happened to the building, but it was, as I understand it, a building that could be moved off the Canadian Collieries' land for the right of occupancy which the claimant was paying I think $5.00 per month.

10 The accounts receivable, again I am afraid, are outside the scope of your Lordship's ruling so we shall have to abandon those, I think.

THE COMMISSIONER: Q: Eureka, did you erect the building at your own expense? A: Yes.

Q: When? A: Oh, about 12 years ago.

Q: That would be about 1930? A: Yes, about 1930.

Q: And what was the nature of the foundation of the building? A: The foundation? 20

Q: Was it built on dials? A: A wooden foundation, he says.

Q: Set into the ground? A: Yes, set into the ground.

THE COMMISSIONER: That finishes it, does it not?

MR. BEST: I suppose, my lord, there may be some question as to whether even if it were built on piles it could be moved.

30 THE COMMISSIONER: Q: Had you any arrangement with the Colliery Company that permitted you to remove the building after the end of your right of occupation?

A There was no agreement.

THE COMMISSIONER: Perhaps I should not undertake to conduct your case for you, Mr. Best. Go ahead, if you have any questions that might be helpful. You might get a little different answers.

MR. BEST: Q: Mr. Kuroda, at the time you built the building, that land was owned by the Canadian Collieries. Did you make any arrangement at all as to what was to happen to it?

THE COMMISSIONER: We just had the answer. He said there was no arrangement.

MR. BEST: Maybe I can put it this way:

Q Were you content, Mr. Kuroda, that the Canadian Colliery take your building if you left it?

THE COMMISSIONER: I disallow the question. If you can establish that there was an agreement whereby he had the right of occupying that piece of land with this building and to remove it at the end of his tenancy, whatever it was, then you will have something upon which you can found a claim; but it is immaterial whether he was content or not, if he had not an understanding or contract with the owner of the land.

MR. BEST: That is right.

Q You never had a written agreement about leasing the land on which the building was built?

A There was an agreement signed that the house was his but he has mislaid that paper. He doesn't know where it is.

9
G. Kuroda,
In Chief.

Q Was that the same document which stipulated you should pay $5.00 per month rent for the land, Mr. Kuroda? A: Yes. He didn't rent from the Canadian Colliery direct. Mr. Grauer had given him this agreement or made this agreement with him whereby he was given permission by this Mr. Grauer to build this house. It wasn't direct from the Canadian Collieries apparently.

Q Who is Mr. Grauer? A: The manager of the Deep Bay Cannery Company.

THE COMMISSIONER: I think there is some confusion here, Mr. Best. So far as I am aware the Canadian Colliery Company had nothing to do with Deep Bay at all. The Canadian Colliery Company operates in the vicinity of Cumberland, and it is a coal mining concern. Now, I think that your statement is wrong when it refers to the Canadian Collieries. It probably is the Deep Bay Cannery.

MR. BEST: I see, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: And it is more than likely the Deep Bay Cannery had not title to the land on which this place was built. It was probably built on Provincial Government land.

MR. BEST: I see, my lord. I suppose there is no point taking further time. The witness says he lost his copy of the agreement. It may be we can produce it.

THE COMMISSIONER: If you can produce some further evidence to show he had the right to remove it from the land, I will authorize you to file it at a later date. On the face of it, he cannot substantiate the claim, certainly on the material before me at the moment.

MR. BENT: Apparently he can't tell us much more about it.

Q Mr. Kuroda, is that your signature?

A That is my signature.

Q And was that form prepared upon your instructions?

A Yes.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

10 Q Mr. Kuroda, you are claiming as well as for this building for certain chattels which you left in the community house at Deep Bay, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And the attached list with the values opposite it is the complete list of your chattels, is that correct?

At Yes.

MR. BENT: I don't think there is anything further there, my lord. It is probably a question of valuation of these chattels.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Just before we leave the question of this building, the right I am giving you now is to file documentary evidence, if any is available, to establish the right to remove the building. It is not a matter of adducing further oral testimony.

MR. BENT: Yes, my lord, I understand that.

THE COMMISSIONER: Very well.

MR. BENT: It is submitted, my lord, that this building was attached to the real property and accordingly did not belong to the claimant. It is submitted that the stock-in-trade having been sold by the claimant himself, no goodwill attaches. It is submitted that chattels sold by the Custodian were sold for their fair market value. It is submitted that for chattels not sold that the claims for same are exorbitant. Unfortunately, my Lord, I very much regret that this file became misplaced and was put in the return box for Vancouver and has gone back to Vancouver, so that I am not in a position to file proper analysis at this time.

10 THE COMMISSIONER: Well that is something that can be corrected later.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. HUNTER:

Q You stored these chattels in a community hall, is that true? At Yes.

Q Who did the community hall belong to?

A To the Japanese community.

Q Who was in charge of the hall? At I can't seem to get him to understand.

20 Q When you people stored your goods in there and left, did you leave anybody in charge of the hall? That is, did you arrange for the cannery people to look after it or did you arrange for anyone to look after that hall?

At The manager of the cannery was asked to look after it.

Q And did he agree to look after it?

A Yes, he agreed.

Q What was his name?

At Gerard.

Q Mr. Gerard?

At Manager of the B.C. Packers.

Q This Canadian cannery there was one of the B. C. Packers', was it? What do you call it again, -- the Cove Bay Cannery? A: The Deep Bay Cannery.

Q And that was a subsidiary of B.C. Packers, was it? A Yes.

Q What did Mr. Gerard undertake to do in connection with this building?

A Well he agreed to look after the building and they handed him the key.

Q I see. Did he agree to look after the chattels?

A When the Custodian took over the chattels, he handed them the key.

Q I see. In the meantime he was in charge of them, is that it?

A: Mr. Gerard said he would look after the property.

MR. HUNTER: It seems to me largely a question of value. My learned friend has a copy of the analysis here, and apparently everything was sold.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: I see.

MR. HUNTER: I would submit, however, in case it is otherwise, that some of this personal property was left under the custody, control or management of someone other than the Custodian appointed by the owner and accordingly only those chattels which came under the custody, control or management of the Custodian are within the terms of reference, my lord.

30 THE COMMISSIONER: I wonder if Mr. Best would file the analysis so that the record might be as complete as possible?

MR. BRET: Yes, certainly, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: Perhaps you could arrange to have it replaced for him from your file at an later date, Mr. Hunter.

MR. HUNTER: Yes, I will get off a letter to Vancouver.

MR. BRET: It doesn't show the individual amounts on the analysis. It just shows that practically everything was sold, and the total, my lord.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

THE COMMISSIONER: Any re-examination?

MR. BRET: No, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: That is all, thank you, Mr. Kuroda.
