HASHIMOTO, Masaki

Gentlemen:

The above has declared to the Custodian that he left some boxed carpenter tools at your Cannery at Bella Bella, in the care of the Cannery watchman. He further declared that he valued these tools at about $1000. Would you kindly confirm that you are holding these tools and that they will be safe-guarded? If the watchman holds the key of the boxes, we should like an inventory, but otherwise it will probably be best to leave them packed. If it is not convenient for you to look after these tools, please arrange to have the box labelled and shipped to the Custodian at Vancouver. Freight for our account.

Dear Sir:

Re: P/W A-26. HASEGAWA, Masaki.

According to information supplied to the Custodian, the above noted internee has $5.00 worth of War Saving Certificates in his possession. Would you kindly parade the internee and ascertain the name of the party holding this security on his behalf in order that the War Saving Certificate may be forwarded to this office for safe-keeping.

Also according to information supplied on the JP form which this internee filled out on April 17th, he left a box of carpenter tools valued at $1,000.00 at the B. C. Packers Cannery, Bella Bella, B.C. This office wrote to the B. C. Packers at Bella Bella on April 24th and received a reply from them on May 2nd stating that they had no tools for the above noted internee. It would be appreciated if you would ask the internee if he removed these tools from the Cannery before his internment and if so, where they are at the present time, and if he wishes them to remain there.

Sir,

Jiro KATAGIRI

I acknowledge with thanks your letter of the 30th. ultimo and I shall be glad to do what I can to dispose of the items inventoried in the year 1942 by myself.

I infer from the second paragraph of your letter that you wish me to confine my efforts to obtaining offers for the goods inventoried, might I suggest that, as prospective purchasers would most likely be Indians, it would be a very lengthy process to have to follow up and obtain payment from bidders after the time elapsed in obtaining approval from you of each offer.

If you will allow me to accept what I consider reasonable cash offers for the various saleable items and forward the marked inventory and cash to your office on completion, I will proceed with the sale immediately.

Yours faithfully,

Thank you for your letter of the 9th instant and somewhat in line with the valuations which you placed on

In view of your remarks in regard to prospective

Dear Sir,

Re: Jiro KATAGIRI - Reg. #10752

I thank you for your letter of the 13th. instant, and I am very sorry to have been so long in the disposal of the chattels on the inventory.

I was able to sell all the tools in one lot for $50, and the winch and boat carriage were bought in by the B.C. Packers, but the Lumber, having been considerably pilfered in the years of its storage, was much more difficult to obtain the original value
I placed on it.

The items sold, and which comprise all of the saleable

Winch & Boat Carriage.....	35.00
Lumber.....	95.04
	$185.04

Re: Oscar Bainbridge's appraisals

On July 8, 1948 the writer phoned B.C. Packers to try to determine if Oscar Bainbridge knew machinery well enough to make his valuations of the personal property of Jiro KATAGIRI (June 1942) a reliable guide to the true value of this property.

B.C. Packers informed us that Mr. Bainbridge is in charge of the Company Store at Namu Cannery, and that in this work he deals with carpentry and boat-building tools. The B.C. Packers stated that Mr. Bainbridge's valuations should be a fair and reliable guide to the worth of these goods.

Re: Masaki HASHIMOTO - Reg. No. 04764.

We are in receipt of your letter of the 12th instant and note that although you did not mention any third party interest in the chattels declared by you in your "JP" form, tools belonging to Masaki HASHIMOTO were included in the list.

Having no record of the contents of the different packages, we cannot check the items now mentioned by you as belonging to Mr. Hashimoto and have no way of ascertaining what relation these bear to the total amount ($50.00) realized from the sale under the heading of "Tools". Should the whole of the money realized ($50.00) be transferred to the credit of Mr. Hashimoto, or does a certain proportion of it belong to you? We enclose an addressed envelope for your convenience and would be obliged if you would let us have a prompt reply to this query. In the absence of any reply from you within, say, a fortnight, we will transfer the whole sum ($50.00) to our Chattels Suspense Account.

Would you please place a "hold" on $50.00 in the account of the above Japanese.

Naoshi HASHIMOTO declared tools left in care of Jiro KATAGIRI; Hashimoto is now claiming $50.00 for loss of these tools. KATAGIRI has been written and asked about these tools, and if HASHIMOTO has any claim to ownership of them.
