Dear Sir:

We have been advised by the B. C. Security Commission to ship to your address at Raymond, Alberta all personal effects together with ceremonial effects found in the Buddhist Temple at New Westminster. Mrs. Pennington came to the Temple and selected all articles and prepared them for shipping. She has written you and is sending, we believe, a list of the shipment.

We may also advise that the Steinway Grand piano has been taken by Mrs. Pennington and will be cared for by her pending its ultimate disposal.

Will you please note that there was a printing machine found in the basement of the Temple which was tagged in the name of 'Nishi' and it is included in his list of chattels - however, Mrs. Pennington insists that it is the one belonging to you and if it is found that it is not yours, will you please advise us.

Mrs. Iverson,
Custodian,
Vancouver, B. C.

Dear Sir;

I am writing to you about the Heintzman piano that was left at the New Westminster Buddhist Church. I have heard that there has been considerable damage done to it but now repaired. I want this piano in the position of Mrs. Harris of 411-6th St. New West. until we return. The Buddhist Church Board has left everything in my hand and gave me the right to move what ever things I wish.

The reason why I want Mrs. Harris to keep the Heintzman for me is because I know her personally and she is someone that I could trust. Another reason is that I would know.

at all time, the where abouts of the piano if left in her care and I'm certain that she could keep it for me in good condition since Mrs. Harris is a music teacher and has taught my daughter for many years.

Please give the Heintzman into her hand and not anyone else. I have also written to Mrs. Harris about this matter.

Yours truly,

Rev. S. Ikata
