Dear Sir:

Re: Teunetaro AIDA

Mr. Aida, who was previously employed in Cumberland by the Port Alice Pulp Mill, has declared to us that he is holding safety deposit box No. 79 at your branch. Would you please be good enough to advise us whether or not box rental charge is in arrears and if so, what amount is due, or when rental charge becomes due, and the cost of annual rental.

Mr. Aida declared to us on April 17, 1942 that he had on deposit with you approximately $950.00. We would appreciate your advising us at this time whether or not this account has been closed or if still maintaining the approximate present balance.

Thanking you in advance for this information,

Yours truly,

R. P. Alexander,
Manager.
