There is a list of missing articles on file which should be checked. I think for instance the sewing machine and tape-the book are worth while value to make further inquiries on.

The history shows that Landstrom & Smith had the original items which included one of four implements. They apparently submitted to the FBI.

File shows that on Oct 9/43 Bureau asked for shipment of a sewing machine and book - was this actually shipped or is it missing?

It is noted in the records that the newspaper has the key. (This might be in the book or the book.)

File shows that there had been effects at this place and that there was a sewing machine.

Finally, although the file shows that pilfering had occurred, there is no definite report about it, and Landstrom & Smith, and B. Hall should be questioned as to their responsibility.

RE: Hisashi MATSUO
Mrs. Tsuneharu AMADATSU
Mr. Tsuneharu AMADATSU
Dennison Rd. Mt. Lehman

Mr. AMADATSU left his effects on the Dennison Road property, Mt. Lehman, and there is an inventory on both his file, No. 4410 and on MATSUO's file, No. 4522, covering both of their effects. There is a letter on File 4522, dated May 21st from MATSUO however, in which he states that the only property of the AMADATSUS left at his place consisted of one double bed, one single bed, and three boxes of mechanic's tools. MATSUO in this letter also confirms receiving the shipment referred to in our memo of May 15th on all files, and as it appears on the files that the MATSUO property was vacant and a great many of the effects stolen, it may be assumed that recovery of chattels is covered by our sales sheets dated May 17th, 1944, on which none of AMADATSU's goods are shown. Files 4410 and 5382 can therefore be considered complete insofar as chattels are concerned.

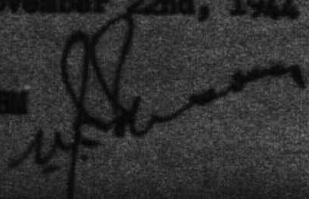

File 4522 awaits further report from Mr. Anderson.

We are assuming too, that the sewing machine declared by Mrs. AMADATSU was the same one declared by MATSUO.

References are:

1. October 2nd, 1942 - Inventory.
2. February 1st, 1943 - Memo from Mr. Green re tools.
3. March 12, 1943 - Memo that tools had been stolen.
4. November 22nd, 1944 - memo re missing articles.

Further to memorandum of November 27 on Files 4522 and 4410, it appears that according to information received from the D. C. Security Commission, that a sewing machine, trunks, baby bed, etc. called for on releases dated Oct. 9, 1943 and March 23, 1944, were shipped on Nov. 15, 1943 and May 12, 1944 respectively.

A report from Mr. M. H. Anderson relative to Messrs. Lundstrom, Smith and W. Bell, is attached hereto.

Dear Sir:-

I have received your letter in connection with our effects which are left at the house formerly occupied by the brother-in-law Mr. Matsumoto.

The articles which you mention that have been sent out were the property of my brother-in-law. I cannot tell you what the shipment consisted of as I myself do not know what he received.

But would you be so kind enough to let me know what has happened to my mechanic tools as I am unable to buy new ones and I am in no position to do so. But if they are in your hands, would you kindly send them out. They consisted a dye set three metal boxes and two wooden boxes. I would very truly appreciate these to be sent out.

Yours very truly
J. Amadatsu
