Attention: Mr. Eastwood

Dear Sirs:

Re: Kinaburo MASHUDA, decd.

In regard to your enquiry relating to the above.

On referring to our file we find that this man registered with us as a Farm labourer and no assets whatsoever are disclosed.

In view of his decease we do not feel that we are in a position to authorise you to dispose of any personal effects this man may have had as this would be required to be done after application has been made to the Official Administrator in the district where he was residing at the time of his demise.

It might be that if the Official Administrator was satisfied that there were no beneficiaries that any amount realized could be paid to the Custodian and the funeral expenses could then be considered, or it might be well for your claim to be made direct to the Official Administrator.

Yours truly,

F. G. Sheara,
Director.
