PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 4579

July 19, 1946.

RE: Iwasa SUGIMAN, Reg. No. 05449

CHATELS: The above, who made his declaration to the Custodian on April 21/42 and was evacuated on July 18/42, declared the following chattels left at 249 Princess St.:

1 bureau	1 carpet
kitchen stove	Singer treadle sewing machine
gas stove	chinaware
3 beds & mattresses	kitchen utensils
piano	100 lbs rice
2 gals. Japanese sauce

As no goods belonging to the above were found at 249 Princess St. we wrote and advised the above of this fact in two letters, one written on Oct. 19/42 and the second on Nov. 10/42, at which time he wrote a footnote on the last mentioned letter to the effect that he had left some of his things in both 604 E. Cordova St. and 215 E. Cordova St. These were sold according to Chattel Schedule on file for the net sum of $39.13 and this sum credited to the account of the above. It will be noted in a letter from the above dated July 16/46 that he states he took the piano and the sewing machine with him at the time of his evacuation.

The file reveals the above owned no specified articles.

ACCOUNTS The account of the above was credited with the sum of $4.50 being a RECEIVABLE refund of 1% wage deductions for the first six months of 1941.

The account of the above was also credited with the sum of $75.00, being the payment of an account owing to him by Zenkuro KITAMURA.

He also declared an account of $100.00 owing to him by T. OIKE, but this account has never been collected.

No property interests other than those mentioned above are found on this file.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

Dear Sir:

In your Registration with the Custodian you declared personal property at 249 Princess Street. With the purpose of offering protection, our representative visited your former residence, and was informed that you disposed of your chattels prior to your evacuation. We, therefore, assume that you have no personal property remaining in the restricted area of British Columbia. If this is correct, please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter for our record. Your co-operation will be appreciated.

RE: Chattels stored at Taifuku Nippo Sha

With reference to chattels stored in the Taifuku Nippo Sha, 213-215 E. Cordova St.

We assume no responsibility for anything stored in this building. Between the date of evacuation and the date we removed the chattels, shipments were made by Mr. IWASAKI on his visit to Vancouver and also by Mr. A. H. Young, who held the keys to this building. I have made this quite clear to Mr. Young, who agrees, and mentioned that he had written to Mr. IWASAKI disclaiming responsibility for any chattels that may or may not have been left stored in this building.

Dear Sir:

Last November while we were still in Slocan, we received a letter from you written as the following:

This is to advise you that we have credited your account on our books with $75.00 in settlement of the above claim by you against Zenkuro Kitamura now deceased.

If the money can be claimed now, we would wish to have the amount of $75.00 sent to us. Will you check up in this record and give us an immediate reply? My file number is 4579/8245/7011 and my reg. no. is 05449.

Mr. Iwase SUGIMAN,
Reg. No. 05449,
464 Talbot St.,
LONDON, Ont.

Dear Sir:

We have your letter (undated) requesting remittance of the sum of $75.00 collected from Zenkuro KITAMURA on your behalf.

We would like to remit your balance and close your account but can not do so until we are able to reconcile some outstanding unexplained issues. When you registered with the Custodian you declared the following chattels at 249 Princess Street:

1 bureau	Singer sewing machine
kitchen stove	chinaware
gas stove	kitchen utensils
3 beds and mattresses	100 lbs. rice
piano	2 gallons of Japanese sauce
	1 carpet

When we pointed out to you in our letter of October 19th, 1942, that your chattels were not found at that address, you did not reply, necessitating a further letter from us on November 10th, 1942, and only then did we get a very sketchy reply, but no details as to your chattels.

In the meantime all the things that were left stored in the Honpa Buddhist Temple, and also the Tairiku Nippo Sha, have been removed and have been sold at auction. There was no evidence of a piano or sewing machine in either place, so we must assume that you either sold or made other disposition of these articles prior to your evacuation. If this is correct, will you please confirm this assumption. Other goods such as dishes, pictures, 2 beds, gas plate and linoleum belonging to you were found, some at 604 East Cordova St. and some at 215 East Cordova St., so that these may be the goods you declared as left at 249 Princess St. Please also advise if this is correct.

Re: File No. 4579

I am in receipt of your letter of July 10th requesting explanation regarding the chattels declared registered with the Custodian.

Please be advised that the piano and sewing machine which were registered among the chattels were disposed of prior to my evacuation.

The articles such as dishes, stove, beds etc. which were found at 604 East Cordova St. and 215 East Cordova St. are the goods which I declared as left at 249 Princess St. I understand they have been removed and sold at auction.

I will be much obliged if you will please remit the sum of $75.00 collected on my behalf from Mr. Zenkuro Kitamura and also the balance from the auction sale of my chattels.

I thank you very much for your kindness.

LONDON, Ont.

Dear Sir:

We enclose herewith Custodian cheque in the sum of $118.63 which is your entire credit balance with this office and we are accordingly closing your file.

Your file has been reviewed and the following is noted. You advised us in your letter of the 16th instant that the piano and sewing machine declared by you were taken with you at the time of your evacuation. The remainder of your chattels found at 604 East Cordova Street and 215 East Cordova Street, Vancouver, were sold at auction for the net sum of $39.13, and this sum was credited to your account with the Custodian.

Your account with the Custodian was credited with the sum of $4.50, being a refund of 1½ wage deductions for the first six months of 1941.

Your account was also credited with the sum of $75.00, being repayment of a debt owing you by the late Zenkuro KITAMURA.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the protected area which vested in the Custodian, and in order that you may confirm this and acknowledge the cheque, we are enclosing a stamped addressed envelope for convenience in replying.
