Dear Sir: Re: Masao + Rintaro Hayashi

Replying to your letter of February 25th - in connection with fishing nets of above Japanese.

I have sold only the one big net
of which you have a record in your office.
The list of nets is the same as the one
I sent you around July - 1942, with prices set by R. Hayashi.

Am enclosing another list.
You will notice by the list that these nets, with the exception of one, are short lengths.

yours truly

Dear Sir:-

Re: HAYASHI, Masao
HAYASHI, Rintaro

Many thanks for yours of February 29th from which we see that you have sold one net and still hold the remainder. While we do not wish to interfere with any arrangements these Japanese made with you, we are anxious to liquidate Japanese property in the near future and particularly to dispose of nets for which we understand there is a good demand. Is there any fear of these nets deteriorating if you are unable to sell them before the current fishing season? Perhaps you could enlist the help of our Mr. Harris at Steveston to get them cleaned up.

Dear Sir: Re Masao Hayashi

In reply to your letter of 25th inst. re Barbour Twine of above Japanese.

This Twine was never in my possession. It was stored in Rintaro Hayashi's house (next door to me), who is a brother of Masao Hayashi, and the family's goods were all stored in Rintaro Hayashi's house.

This Twine was taken away
by Mr. Harris in June 1944, when he removed Rintaro Hayashi's keto. He gave me a receipt for the keto and Twine and it is likely the Twine has been credited to Rintaro Hayashi.

RE: Masao KAYASHI

Dear Sir:

We have been reviewing the file of the above and it is noted that a memorandum from Mr. Guy Harris, dated May 9th, 1944, states that the following goods in your possession, would be picked up on May 11th, 1944:

- 1 Box 5/40 Barbour twine
- 1 Box 5/40 and 6/40 Barbour twine

There is no record on the file that this twine was picked up. Will you please let us know if this twine is still in your possession or what disposition has been made of it.

THE SECRETARY: Case No. 517, Masao Hayashi.

MASAO HAYASHI, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. HUCKVALE:

Q Mr. Hayashi, you have claimed for certain nets and other fishing equipment which were left by you in British Columbia?

A Yes.

10 Q Will you look at that statement, please, (indicating),
and tell me if you have read it?

A Yes.

Q And have you signed it?

A Yes.

Q And is that statement true and correct according to your best knowledge, recollection and belief?

A Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: I tender that as an exhibit, sir.

(STATEMENT OF PERSONAL PROPERTY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

20

MR. HUCKVALE: Q Now you tell us that you left those nets in the Imperial Cannery net house?

A Some of those were left at the Imperial Cannery.

Q And where were the others left?

A At the Sunnyside Cannery on the Skeena River.

Q How did you treat those nets in any way before you stored them?

A They were treated with bluestone and washed and dried and then stored in the net house.

30 Q Were they packed?

A Yes.

MR. HUCKVALE: Now I want to point out, sir, that when the Custodian's file in this particular case was given to me, it contained no net statement and it contained no personal analysis. I have never seen them.

MR. RICH: Well I have one here.

MR. HUCKVALE: Well it should have been given to me.

10 MR. RICH: If you had asked for it, it would have been.

MR. HUCKVALE: It should have been given to me whether I asked for it or not and when I gave my friend back these copies, I made a note on it with regard to that.

MR. RICH: He may have made a note on it, but I didn't see any note and he says I should have given it to him, he could very easily have asked for it and he would have been furnished with whatever he wanted. It is here on the file.

MR. HUCKVALE: I have never seen it.

20 MR. RICH: You should have asked for it.

MR. HUCKVALE: I did ask for it.

MR. RICH: Well, I only got the file back on this Sunday.

MR. HUCKVALE: You got it back long before Sunday; at least I sent it back long before then.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: In any event, you are filing the analysis of personal property claim.

MR. RICH: Yes, I will.

MR. HUCKVALE: If my learned friend will go through all of these files, he will note that I make that remark

W. Hayashi,
In Chief.

on a number of these cases.

MR. RICE: My learned friend can give me a list of what he wants. I never refused him anything.

MR. HUCKVALE: I put it on there.

MR. RICE: I didn't know who put it on there.

10 Certainly there was no request to me asking for any file or any statement. Just because my learned friend puts in pencil "no statement here", I don't know what that means. I don't know who put it on. But if there is anything that I have got on these files here that he wants, I will be glad to provide him with it.

MR. HUCKVALE: If he will go through his files, he will notice I have made a note in every case where they are absent. I have even 'phoned him two or three times about the personal property analysis.

MR. RICE: Anything my learned friend has asked me for, he got it.

20 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Well you are not going to be prejudiced.

MR. HUCKVALE: I tell my learned friend now if he goes through the files and goes through the statements there; he will notice that every time I have made a note when the analysis was not present.

30 MR. RICE: I don't know who noted it. It is not initialled. There is just a pencilled note on these and there are pencilled notes all over these files, your Honour, and I don't know who made them. They may have been made in the Custodian's office in Vancouver and not by my learned friend at all.

5
M. Hayaashi,
In Chief.

And I have no way of knowing by whom they were made because there were a lot of pencilled notations on the files when they came to my office.

MR. HUCKVALE: If the pencilled note is there, I made it, that is understood with regard to the fact that there was no personal property analysis on the Custodian's files.

10 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: All right, Mr. Huckvale, just proceed with your examination, and if you want time to look over these documents we will give time to you.

MR. HUCKVALE: I would like to look into it. I don't think there is anything in it. It isn't an analysis at all, really. And they just make the remark and it shows on there that these chattels are not properly accounted for. I just want to make that statement.

20 MR. HICK: I will file the analysis of personal property claim.

(ANALYSIS OF PERSONAL PROPERTY CLAIM MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

MR. HUCKVALE: Q: Now you are also claiming apart from nets and other fishing gear, you are claiming for certain household articles?

A: Yes.

Q: How will you take a look at that form (indicating)?

A: Yes.

Q: Have you signed that?

A: Yes.

30 Q: And is that form true and correct, to the best of 6

M. Hayashi,
In Chief.
Cross-Exam.

your knowledge, recollection and belief?

A Yes.

MR. HUCKVALER: I will tender that, sir.

(STATEMENT OF PERSONAL CHATTELS MARKED

MR. HUCKVALER: Q Now these household chattels of yours,
Mr. Hayashi, were they fairly new at the time you were evacuated?

10 A Yes, some of the goods were quite new and some of them were older.

Q Now, have you ever received from the Custodian any list of the things that he sold?

A I have never received any full list of property but I was advised that certain things had been sold.

Q Have you ever received any of those orange coloured auction sheets?

A No, I have never received any of those.

Q All right; will you answer my friend, please.

20

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. RICH:

Q Did you leave any nets with Mr. Urquhart to sell for you?

A: No.

Q You never left anything with Mr. Urquhart?

A No, I never left anything with Mr. Urquhart.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: What is his name?

MR. RICH: U-r-q-u-h-a-r-t.

Q You left most of your chattels though with your property?

A: Yes, that is 30 with my father.

Q You left them with your brother?

A Yes.

Q That is your brother, Rintaro?

A Yes.

Q To your knowledge did Rintaro give Mr. Urquhart authority to sell the chattels, his own or yours?

MR. HUCKVALE: If we are dealing only with chattels according to the analysis which I have just seen, there is no question about these things not being accounted for because the Custodian acknowledges receipt of them.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: According to this analysis?

MR. HUCKVALE: Yes, according to this analysis which I have just seen.

MR. RICE: I am taking the ones that are missing.

MR. HUCKVALE: There are none missing, that is the whole point.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: This is dealing with notes and personal chattels?

MR. HUCKVALE: Yes, and there is not a thing missing.

MR. RICE: I should perhaps state, your Honour, that I am submitting that the chattels that were sold, both notes and personal property, were sold at their fair value, and that anything that is lost, stolen or mislaid ---

MR. HUCKVALE: There is nothing lost, stolen or mislaid.

MR. RICE: The Custodian is not responsible for and that the claim of the claimant here for the articles he is claiming for is exorbitant.

M. H. Ayashi,
Crosby-Ryan.

MR. HUCKVALE: I merely point out that the Custodian does not even submit on here that there is anything lost, abandoned or anything else.

MR. RICH: Well, I am submitting that if there is anything that is lost, abandoned or stolen the Custodian is not responsible for. The property was turned over to his brother and not the Custodian.

MR. HUCKVALE: The analysis shows no such thing.

MR. RICH: His evidence does, though.

10 MR. HUCKVALE: You make the analysis; I don't.

I have no further questions, sir.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: All right.
