According to letter received from Mr. Matt Brown on March 18, 1946, everything was shipped to MINATO, with the exception of the golf clubs and bag, and these were sold at MINATO's request by Mr. Brown and the proceeds sent to him direct.

The account of this man was credited with $118.28 as proportionate share of the assets of the Royston Saving Association.

The account of this man was credited with $6,401.30 as payment in full of shareholder balance standing to his credit on the books of the Royston Lumber Company at date of vesting in the Custodian.

In his declaration he reported $400.00 in Victory Bonds and $190.00 in War Savings Certificates, all in his own possession. These did not come under the control of this office.

Real Property: None.

This money has nothing to do with Kinosuke MINATO'S interest as holder of 10 shares in the Royston Lumber Company, whose assets have been liquidated, but not their capital stock.

Mr. Keiji MINATO,

Hinto Mine, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Re: Newton Saving Association.

We are in receipt of your letter of the 12th instant from which we note that your liability as surety for unpaid balance of Kensaburo ONIZAKI'S (File 12355) loan from the above Association is shared on a 50-50 basis with Tsumehiko UYEDA (File 12358).

In a letter dated the 16th August, 1943, Mr. G. K. Uchiyama (File 13977) mentioned that Kinoshige MINATO (File 4851), would meet his son-in-law's (Tsumehiko UYEDA) liability under this guarantee and it is possible that confusion of names (two K. Minato's) has resulted in your being charged with more than your share.

Our record of the liquidation of the above Association's assets shows that:

You received credit for 25 shares	$125.00
You received credit for proportionate share of surplus	$ 13.78
You received credit for total of:	$138.78
Of this total $51.25 was distributed in 1942, i.e.
$20.50 was credited to your account
$30.75 was credited against Kensaburo ONIZAKI'S debt	$ 51.25
Net balance now credited to your account	$ 87.53

However, your account has at the same time been debited with $133.76, representing your share of unpaid balance of Kensaburo ONIZAKI'S debt (principal and interest). You have therefore been charged with a total of $164.51 ($30.75 plus $133.76). As neither Tsumehiko UYEDA nor Kinoshige MINATO have paid anything we are today writing to the latter and asking him whether he is willing to meet his son-in-law's liability to the extent of half this total, or $82.25, and we will advise you in due course of his reply.

Yours truly,

R. G. Bell,

Dear Sir:

Re: Tsunehiko UYEDA - Reg. No. 06213.

We enclose copy of our letter of today to Mr. Keiji MINATO, which you will find self-explanatory.

It would appear that, due to confusion of names, Mr. Keiji MINATO has been charged with the whole, instead of half, the liability accruing under the guarantee he gave jointly with your son-in-law, Tsunehiko UYEDA, of Mr. Kensaburo ONIZAKI'S loan from the Royston Saving Association. Mr. Onizaki's notes, now on file, totalled $302.50, to which had to be added interest amounting to $44.96, or a total of $347.46. As much as possible was recovered from Kensaburo ONIZAKI, leaving a balance of $164.51 collectable under the guarantee of K. Minato and T. Uyeda and our purpose in writing is to ask whether we have your authority to debit your account with $82.25 in liquidation of your son-in-law's share of the above liability.

We would appreciate your prompt reply and we enclose a stamped addressed envelope for your convenience.

Re: Chattels and Accounts.

This file is up for review and in reply to your query of the 31st December, 1945, regarding your chattels we have to advise that our records show everything declared by you to have been shipped to you on the 24th May (11 pkgs.) or 1st October, 1942 (4 pkgs.), except the following:

1 box Clothing, etc.
1 Singer sewing machine
1 bag Golf Clubs

which were placed in Cumberland Storage. There is no evidence of removal from there but we are today asking Mr. Matt Brown for confirmation of this.

For your information we enclose an extract of your account, showing the sum of $6,437.33 standing at your credit at the present time.

While the assets of the Royston Lumber Company have been liquidated, making available the funds from which the above payment was made, the Liquidator appointed by the Custodian is not yet in a position to make any distribution of the capital stock of the Company, and your interest in that stock, represented by the 10 shares in your name still remain to be dealt with.

As part of his preparation for repatriation (June 17/46) the above evacuee declared ownership of two shares in Comox Golf Links, Comox, B. C., the par value of which was said to be $50.00 each.

In reply to our query the Secretary-Treasurer of the Courtenay Golf Club Limited confirmed Mr. Minato's ownership of the 2 shares, for which no certificates had been issued. He further advised that the shares had no market value but that some had changed hands @ $5.00 per share and he offered to get that price for Minato's shares.

The attached Certificate is for the shares in question (Nos. 174 & 175) which the Secretary-Treasurer desires to have blank endorsed to enable him to sell them.

Dear Sirs:

Re: Kinosuke MINATO - Reg. No. 06224.

We are in receipt of your letter of the 14th instant enclosing Certificate for two shares in the Courtenay Golf Club Limited in the name of the above.

This certificate is returned herewith blank endorsed and to comply with our usual procedure we would be obliged if you would put these shares up for sale in such a way as to secure the advantage of maximum competition in bidding. In view of their small value paid advertising is not practical but if in your opinion the Club's Notice Board will provide the necessary publicity a notice posted there for a reasonable period--say not less than a fortnight--it will meet our requirements.

Yours very truly,

R. G. Bell,
Office of the Custodian.

Mr Minato is the registered owner of 2 shares par value $5.00 each in the Courtenay Golf Club Ltd. for which no certificate has ever been issued, due no doubt to an oversight on the part of the Secretary at that time. May 7th 1935.

The Company does not pay dividends so the shares have no marketable value. For succession duty purposes we place a nominal value for them of $5.00 per share. Some have changed hands at this price and if you are wanting to sell them I expect I could get $5.00 a share for you.

Yours truly

Dear Sir:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 17th July and to thank you for the information given.

From your letter it appears to us that the Joint a/c.
should, in your opinion, be divided equally between:

Kinosuke Minato, Registration #06224 - Our file #4851 and Estate of Kamosuke Kaminishi - Our file #12774

If this is your belief please write us stating definitely that such is the case and we will proceed to have the funds divided.

We are writing today to Mr. G.K. Uchiyama asking him to confirm this from his knowledge of the books and operations of the Reyston Lumber Company Limited.

Yours truly,

B. Good,
Comptroller.

Dear Sir:

Re: Joint a/c. K. Kaminishi Estate (file #12774)
Kinosuke Minato (" #4851)

I received your letter dated 19th inst., which was forwarded from Minto City and reached me on 26th and noted contents and attached copy of letter.

Yesterday I went to East Lillooet and met Koichi Kaminishi and it satisfied me for what had happened between him and Mr. Minato after he left me, referring to my letter to you dated the 15th April, 1947, I wish retract the same as it was based on what I heard from Mr. Minato.

Regarding to the share of joint a/c. to be on a 50/50 basis, my memory getting poor to recollect exactly as years already passed, but I believe it was, as Mr. Minato has mentioned the same in his conversation last he called on me prior to his departure, beside I have confirmed from Koichi Kaminishi and he has no dissent whatever on this particular point, therefore, it leads me to believe and satisfy with the basis.

Yours truly,

"G. K. Uchiyama"

Please notice that I have changed my address as above.
