Minto Mine, B.C.,
December 18, 1944

Dear Mrs. Watts:

I received your letter on the eighth and received the radio today. We were all very glad, but surprised to receive it today for it isn't the usual mail day. Everything is in good condition. Lloyd didn't want to go to school today but wanted to stay home and listen to the radio. The transfer brought it when we were just having breakfast. Lloyd says it's the best Christmas present.

We paid $1.40 from Skidath to Minto, was eight dollars enough for sending it to Skidath. I hope you received the cheque.

Do you want me to send back the blanket you wrapped the radio for us?

By the way thanks for the pictures of Leona you sent with your letter. She's changed hasn't she?

It was candy day at the store today and we had to line up to get our turn. Do you get much candy there?
