PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 9042

May 10th, 1946.

RE: Tatsuo YAMASHITA, Reg.No.05867

CHATELS: The above, who made his declaration to the Custodian on April 19/42 and was evacuated on April 28/42, declared nets and household effects at the Celtic Cannery. Nets as per net statement of Feb. 29/44 were sold for the sum of $126.00, which sum was credited to the account of the above with this office. The household effects were sold at auction for the net sum of $48.88 and this sum credited to the account of YAMASHITA. Full details are given on Chattel Schedule and Chattel Summary on file.

SPECIFIED ARTICLES: According to information supplied to this office YAMASHITA was the registered owner of a fishing vessel the "T.Y." which was sold through the Japanese Fishing Vessel Disposal Committee for the net sum of $443.00, and this sum was paid to him through his Attorney, Mr. U. SAKAMOTO, on Aug. 3/42. Full details are given on Specified Articles Summary on file.

MONEYS RECEIVABLE: The above, in his declaration to the Custodian declared two accounts owing to him. One owed by Mr. Young in the sum of $35.00, and one owed by Mr. Evans in the sum of $100.00. The file reveals that no attempt had been made to find out any more details about these accounts until our letter of March 25th and April 18th, 1946, to YAMASHITA asking him for the addresses of these two men. No reply has been received from YAMASHITA to either of our letters, so no further action by the Custodian is deemed necessary.

LIFE

INSURANCE: The file reveals that YAMASHITA carried an insurance policy with the Monarch Life Insurance Co. in the sum of $2500.00, policy No.P96963, the beneficiary being his wife, Sei. This policy was in his own possession and did not come under the control of the Custodian. It is noted that there is on file a copy of a letter from the Sun Life Assurance Co. dated Dec. 11/42 stating that they were sending to their head office in Montreal an application for the cash surrender value of Policy No. 2,220,900 signed by the above and his son Yasue. This did not come under the control of the Custodian.

No property interests other than those mentioned above are found on this file.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

CHATTAL SUMMARY

File No. 5042

March 25th, 1946.

RE: Tatsuro YAMASHITA, Reg. No. 05867

The above, who made his declaration to the Custodian on April 19th, 1942, and was evacuated on April 28th, 1942, declared fourteen nets stored in the net house of the Celtic Cannery and household effects stored in the Cannery warehouse, as set out on the Chattal Schedule on file.

All nets found by us in the Celtic Cannery net house were inventoried on November 10th, 1942. None of these nets were taken to our net house. On June 25/43, we received from the above, in compliance with our request, a completed net form. This form mentions only 6 nets whereas he had declared 14 nets on his J.P. form. On the same day that we received this net form, we received one from his son Yasuo, File 2220, listing 5 nets, although Yasuo had declared no chattels when he made his declaration to the Custodian on March 31st, 1942, merely stating that furniture, etc., was registered in the name of his father. Two nets tagged with the name of the above, were sold direct to the Imperial Cannery for the sum of $95.00. 2 Nets and a box of lead line were sold to private individuals for the total sum of $31.00, and both these amounts were credited to the account of the above with this office. Three nets are unaccounted for. One of these was inventoried and missing. It may have been sold and proceeds credited to net expenses and the other two were not found by us.

Household effects were moved from the Celtic Cannery warehouse on July 4th, 1944, by our Steveston representative, Mr. G.M. Harris, to our auction room. These were sold at auction for the net sum of $48.28, and this amount was credited to the account of the above. Disposition of chattels is shown fully on the Chattal Schedule on file.

Not found, 6/10/46

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

VANCOUVER, B. C.

Dear Sir:

Re.M.V. "T.Y." NW 3187 NW 010D

For a period of over 5 months this Committee has operated facilities, designed to assist Japanese fishing vessel owners, to dispose of their vessels at fair prices.

In this period over 1000 vessels have been released through the offices of the Committee; and it has now become vitally necessary to promptly dispose of the remaining vessels in order that the Navy personnel, occupied in their custodianship, be relieved for other duties.

Having received an offer for your vessel "T.Y." License No. NW 3187, which is considered a fair value, the Committee has sold this vessel for the sum of $ 450.00 in accordance with the attached Bill of Sale.

Please sign the attached Bill of Sale, together with the Claim Assignment form, also attached, and return to us.

On receipt of these documents properly executed, we shall remit the net value of the sale, with a statement thereof, to any address designated by you.

Yours very truly,

JAPANESE FISHING VESSELS DISPOSAL COMMITTEE.

Executive Assistant.

Re: Life Insurance

16th December, 1942.

TO: Mr. R.P. Alexander

FROM: Mr. S.M. Gibson

I am attaching hereto files as indicated above. Attached to each, excepting the last two noted above, is correspondence from the Sun Life Assurance Company in connection with payment of money to Japanese persons with respect to surrender values of Life Insurance Policies. As for the last two files mentioned, Nos. 6343 and 2185, I dealt with the matter as per copy of my letter of December 14th in those files.

I have been instructed verbally in connection with this matter but if I am to be responsible to instruct the Sun Life or any insurance company in connection with payment of moneys to persons of the Japanese race, I would appreciate receiving definite written instructions in line with your policy concerning this.

I am afraid that at the present time we might overlook or not know about claims against some of these people, and if in such cases it later is found that they owe money and I have instructed the insurance company to pay funds out to them, I may find myself in an awkward position.

As a matter of fact, as I see it, this is not a matter to be dealt with by this Department at all. We are not responsible for Life Insurance but we are instructed to pay premiums when asked by the Policyholder to do so and providing that he has left the policy with us for safe-keeping or has declared it, and also providing that he has funds on deposit here with which to meet the cost of that Life Insurance.

Reg. No. 05867,
Box 136,
TAMPA, Fla.

Dear Sir:

In accordance with your request we now enclose Custodian cheque in the sum of $174.88, being your entire credit balance with this office, and we are accordingly closing your file.

Your file has been reviewed and the following is noted. When you made your declaration to the Custodian on April 19th, 1942, you declared nets and household effects left at the Celtic Cannery. Nets found at the Celtic Cannery tagged with your name were sold for the sum of $126.00. Your household effects were removed from the Cannery to our warehouse and sold at auction for the net sum of $48.88. These two sums were credited to your account with the Custodian.

According to information supplied to this office you were the registered owner of a fishing vessel, the "T.I.", which was sold through the Japanese Fishing Vessel Disposal Committee for the net sum of $443.00, and this sum was paid to you through your Attorney, Mr. U. SAKAMOTO, on August 3rd, 1942.

You declared two amounts of money owing to you, a sum of $35.00 owed by a Mr. Young and a sum of $100.00 owed by a Mr. Evans, both of Vancouver. We wrote you on March 25th and April 18th, 1946, asking you to supply us with the addresses of these two men. As we have received no reply to either of these letters we assume you have received payment of these accounts and no further action will be taken by the Custodian.

You declared a life insurance policy with the Hazareon Life Insurance Company in the sum of $2500.00, policy No. P96063, the beneficiary being your wife, Sei. It is also noted that you applied to the Sun Life Insurance Company on December 11th, 1942, for the cash surrender value of policy No. 2,240,900, the application being signed by yourself and your son Yasuo. These policies did not come under the control of the Custodian.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the protected area which vested in the Custodian and in

TO: Mrs. Hearsh

FROM: Mr. R.B. Macdonald

RE: Tatsuo YAMASHITA, Reg. No. 07867

This file has been completely reviewed and everything is in order with the exception of two claims registered by the above against a Mr. Young and a Mr. Evans at the time he made his declaration to the Custodian on April 19th, 1942. For some unknown reason nothing has ever been done about these, and we have just now written to the above asking him for the full name of these men and their addresses. When and if we receive this information we shall endeavour to collect these debts, but until this has been done, we are not doing the reporting letter on the Personal property summary, as some information about these claims will have to be included in each of these. I have attached this file to the file of the son Yasuo, which we have just closed, so that you will know that both files have been reviewed together.

THE SECRETARY: Case No. 753, Tatsuzo Yamashita.

TATSUZO YAMASHITA, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. RUSSELL:

10 Q Mr. Yamashita, I am showing you a summary of evidence in support of claim. You gave the instructions and information upon which this claim was completed, did you? A: Yes.

Q You are familiar with the contents?

A Yes, I am.

Q That is your signature at the end?

A Yes.

Q This is true to the best of your knowledge, information and belief? A: Yes.

(SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1).

Q Mr. Yamashita, you have a son by the name of Yasuo, have you not? A: Yes.

20 Q And you are claiming both on behalf of yourself and on behalf of your son? A: Yes.

Q Your son is making no separate claim?

A No. It is only a small claim on his behalf.

Q Well, is he making any claim at all?

A No, he is not claiming on his behalf, his own behalf.

Q In your J. P. form I think you listed some fourteen nets? You said you had fourteen nets which you left in B. C.?

30 A: When I was being registered there was quite a lot of

T. Yamashita,
In chief.

commotion going around and when they told me to declare my chattels I put just fourteen nets; I just declared fourteen nets as they told me to.

Q Well, you are now claiming in your summary of evidence ten nets, I believe?

A Yes.

Q You have no claim for the other four nets?

A I think there was a mistake at that time.

10 Q At the time of making your registration, is that right?

A: Yes.

Q Your son has also said, I think, that his furniture was registered in his father's name, that is in your name, is that correct?

A Well, he had no special furniture because we were all living in the same house.

Q I see. I think that is all, sir.

MR. RICE: I am submitting, your Honour, that the 20 nets were sold for their fair market value. I am submitting that the other chattels sold or disposed of by the Custodian were sold at their fair market value. I am submitting that if there are any articles for which the Custodian can be held in any way responsible for to this claimant the claim made to the same is exorbitant.

I wish to tender as exhibits the following documents: An analysis of personal property claim.

(ANALYSIS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2).

30 MR. RICE: Two net statements, one for this claimant,

4
T. Yamashita,
Cross Exam.

and the other respecting the nets that belonged to his son.

(STATEMENTS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 3).

MR. RICE: And an extract taken from the records of the British Columbia Packers Company, Limited, at the Imperial Cannery net house of certain chattels left there by the claimant.

(STATEMENT MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4).

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. RICE:

Q I show you a J.P. form completed on the 19th of April, 1942 (indicating); will you look at that document and tell me if it is one that you had completed and if it was signed by you?

A Yes.

Q I show you another J.P. form, dated the 31st of March, 1942, purporting to have been completed by you/son. Do you know your son's signature?

A Yes, I know.

Q Will you look at that form and tell me if it is completed by your son? A: Yes.

MR. RICE: I tender both of these J.P. forms as one exhibit, your Honour.

(J.P. FORMS MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 5).

MR. RICE: Q: You have only one son, have you?

A No, I have two sons.

Q This is your son Yasuo, is it?

A Yes.

Q I show you two fishing net inventories, apparently completed in the one handwriting, one purporting to be a statement of your nets, the other the nets of your son Yasuo. Will you look at these documents and tell me if you completed them or had them completed for you, or on your behalf and under your instructions?

30

A I believe it is my son's writing.

Q Well, were they completed by your son, and was yours completed for you or on your behalf and under your instructions? A: Yes, they were.

10 Q You and your son had these net statements completed and then you forwarded them to the office of the Custodian at Vancouver? A: Yes.

MR. RICE: I tender both of these net statements, your Honour; one completed by the claimant Tatsuo, Tatsuo Yamashita, and the other one by Yasuo Yamashita.

(INVENTORIES MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 6).

MR. RICE: Q: I observe from this summary of evidence that you have filed here this morning that the fourth net on the list, which has an estimated value of $50.00 was only valued at $40.00 in the statement you have submitted as Exhibit 6. In your own statement, the third on the list, it values the net at $40.00, but in the summary of evidence the same net is valued at $50.00. Will you explain what has raised the price on that net from what it was valued at in your net statement?

A I considered I estimated it too low in my inventory.

Q When did you make your inventory? Apparently it was received in the Custodian's office in 1943,

6
T. Yamashita,
Cross Exam.

June, 1943; when did you prepare it?

A In Alberta.

Q When?

A: I don't remember clearly.

Q Well, I am telling you that according to the Custodian's record, he received it on the 25th of June, 1943.

Would it be June, 1943, that you prepared it?

A That is probably about that time; I don't remember very well.

10 Q But you say the price of nets has gone up since you prepared that statement, and that is why you are asking $10.00 more for that net today, is that your evidence?

MR. RUSSELL: That is not the evidence.

MR. RICE: Pardon?

MR. RUSSELL: That is not the evidence.

MR. RICE: I think that is the evidence. He said himself that it has gone up.

MR. RUSSELL: He said his estimate has gone up.

20 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: He thought he estimated it too low.

MR. RICE: Well, that is his evidence; it isn't mine.

A It isn't a case of the nets having gone up in price; I just consider I valued them too low.

Q Oh, I see. You have another net here in the summary of evidence that you have submitted this morning, valued at $30.00, a net described as the fifth on the list of nets, yet in your net statement you valued the same net at $25.00; that has gone up in price too, has it?

30 A That answer also applies to this net. At the time

7
T. Yamashita,
Cross Exam.

I was estimating my nets I was told by a white acquaintance that I should value them as low as possible.

Q How many other things have gone up in price, would you mind telling us? A: I don't say the prices have gone up.

Q Your estimate has gone up? A: I just think the estimates were too low.

Q All right.

10 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: With whom did he prepare that statement here (indicating)?

A My wife and I.

Q That is referring to the net statement in Exhibit 1. That is all. Mr. Russell, I notice that the claim as originally filed was for $802.12, and Exhibit 1 shows it as $445.12; is that correct?

MR. RICE: The claim to the fishing vessel has been abandoned.

MR. RUSSELL: The claim to the vessel has been abandoned.

20 THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: Oh, I see. That makes the difference.

MR. RUSSELL: That is the difference, sir.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: All right. Anything else, Mr. Russell?

MR. RUSSELL: No, sir, thank you.

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: All right, that is all.
