FROM No. P-1308	TO:
NAME KIYONAGA, Shoji	Immigration Building,
CAMP Petawawa Internment Camp,	Foot of Burrard St.,
Petawawa, Ontario.	Vancouver, B. C.
DATE June 2, 1942

Sirs;

When I was detained at the Immigration Building on April 25th, I stored my baggages in the Baggage Room on the ground floor of your building. One of these baggages disappeared when I went down to claim it around May 13th. I immediately informed both the officer commanding the immigration detachment and Sergeant Webb of this baggage disappearance and both of them promised to investigate the matter. Upon my departure from the Immigration Building this baggage had not been found and the authorities assured me that they would try to find it and forward it to me. Subsequently since my arrival at the Petawawa Internment Camp, I enquired you through our spokesman, Mr. T. Tanaka, for whereabouts of my baggage; but as yet I have not received any reply.

This particular baggage is a travelling case, that measures 18" in width, 12" in height, and 6" in depth, covered with grained black leatherette, finished in rounded edge design, and fitted with two nickel-plated side locks. This case was locked. The contents comprise Japanese dictionary and books, one Swiss-made wrist watch, underwears, and toilet goods.

I would appreciate very much if you will kindly investigate as soon as possible for whereabouts of this case and express it to me. I trust you will favour me with your prompt reply.

Yours very truly,

Shoji Kiyonaga

Re: Loss of baggage claim by KIYONAGA SHOJI.

Sir:-

At the time mentioned in the letter of the above mentioned Japanese I was Sgt. of the Immigration Guard and as such I formed the escort for any of the Japanese that wished to get into their baggage placed on the third floor of the Immigration building.

I recalled this man asking about his bags but told him to wait a while to see if it would turn up as I believe this man came from Hastings Park and their baggage did not arrive with them and it may have been misplaced. But to the best of my knowledge I never saw the bags as mentioned in the letter from this man.

I never entered the baggage room nor did any other member of the Guards so so without at least one Japanese being present.

This man also states that the baggage was stored on the ground floor this statement is not true. Fus. St. James will verify this statement.

1. I recall the circumstances of the missing baggage of K. Shoji. He asked me about it when I first arrived at the Immigration Building. A thorough search of the building was made but it could not be found. It is possible it never arrived, or was stolen.
