CHATTEL SUMMARY

Re: Mrs. Moto (Choichiro) YURUGI
Registration Number 08030

In her declaration of April 23, 1942, Mrs. Yurugi declared chattels, see schedule. In a memorandum of October 13, 1944, this office requested Mr. Harris, Custodian's agent, to make a check of the chattels. He replied on November 22, 1944, that Mr. Kitchener states there is no record of any chattels left by Mrs. Yurugi. We find, however, two wooden boxes and one tin box with no lid were found in the Steveston storage in the name of C. Yurugi. These boxes were opened by the Custodian's representative in October 1945. Dishes of any value were sent to auction and other items were discarded, see our memorandum of this date.

The only items sold that were sent to auction were a box of crockery and kitchenware, sold in the net amount of $2.12.

The above Summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.
