Dear Madam:

Re: Chattels

Although in your Registration you have not declared any chattels, we received a request to ship to you six packages from House No. 1 of the Phoenix Cannery of Steveston, B. C. We understand that these goods were shipped on the 17th of October, and we should now like you to confirm that you have no other chattels remaining in any protected area of British Columbia.

Thanking you for your reply in this connection,

JAPANESE SECTION

Dear Gentleman:

I am dropping a few lines in connection with the letter you have sent me, the Re. Chittels on Nov. 24. First of all, as you have noted in your letter about those six packages, we have asked you to send them understand by reading, that you have stated, that you already have sent what aid you October 17. In fact, we only have received four. Up to this date, we have been waiting for the other two. I arrive. The trunk, straw box, wooden box, paper box, these four, we have received for sure, and the remainder, 3/4 bed set, mattress, and spring, and the box containing Chinaware, I haven't received. Therefore, they should be here with others, if you have sent me on the same time. Hoping you will check these up and please make sure where they are. I'll reply me. In case, they are still in Stenaston, I'll be very grateful. If you would send me soon.

In the latter part of your letter, you have stated that, I have no other chattels remaining. In the first place, when we left Stenaston, evacuating. The Phoenix Laundry manager talk to all his people & have their goods in the house, as that they are. He, being a very nice gentleman, we, all people believed him, and have left our belongings, as they are in the house without packing. In spite of that, I have thought, or maybe, believed, that it isn't necessary for me to pass these things in the house to Custodian. By these reasons, I have come here, without declaring. But, I have heard that all these belongings have moved by the Custodian to one big building Custodian, having responsibility of Japanese goods, left behind.

I am sure, that you must have gathered my rest of things.

My brief copies of my belonging left in House 2 where:-
Mostly all children, utensils, pots & pans, ^{bottles} etc.
Kitchen stove: Pantry: Washing tub: Washing board:
2 big ~~antenna~~ bedding & 6 cushions: A box containing woolen,
and wild material: 3 tables: 3 chairs and benches: 6 windows blinds: A box of Japanese God: 4 Japanese pretty decorations dolls and everything: A box containing 7 net and a ^{tin} ^{trunk}: bottles 1 dozen:
2 hot water bottle, and rubber bag: Japanese bath: large medicine and small wooden boxes: ^{about 100} ^{small} ^{books} many, many small things.

One straw box for my friend was also left in the house.
These things, which I had a copy, should have left in the house, when you were moving.

I would like to know, what has become to them.
As the Custodian has ~~never~~ cleared the house. I am sure, the Custodian has responsibility of my belongings.
Your special request to me, was to sign my name, putting my file number, and registration number, but as I ~~am~~ ^{am not} ⁱⁿ satisfaction to what you wrote. I can't do this to-day.

Another thing, was about a trunk you sent me, and I received. A brown overcoat was missing from the trunk.

Trusting you would check these up and reply.

I thank you.

Yours truly
Mrs. Gen Isaji

Please refer to your memo of the 5th of November. This person asked for the release of the following:

- 1 trunk
- 1 clothes basket
- 1 large wooden box
- 1 cardboard box
- 1 bed and spring -
- 1 wooden box

You will recall that the Security Commission wrote us on the second stating that certain miscellaneous items were missing and we wrote to the Security Commission that we have no knowledge of the contents of packages and could not find the miscellaneous items which she said were missing. We then wrote to Mrs. Tsuji that 6 packages had been shipped to her on the 17th of October. She has now replied that she has received only 4 packages. She states that the bed and spring as well as the wooden box containing china-ware have not been received. Could you please investigate.

Regarding other chattels she said that the Phoenix Cannery Manager told her to leave all her goods in the house, which she did. She now claims that she left the following articles behind:

- | | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| kitchen utensils | 3 chairs and a bench |
| pots and pans | 6 window blinds |
| 3 kettles and chinaware | 1 box containing Japanese god, |

Dear Sirs:

I received your letter requesting for a remittance of $39.85 which fell due on October 18, 1943, on my son's policy. #2273288. Tadao Tauji.

I wrote to the Sun Life Assurance Company, that since my son is in the internment camp and I in this town receiving maintenance, it is impossible for us to go on paying the premiums. I wrote that I would like to cease payment on my son's policy until I am again able to furnish the funds on the policy. Yesterday I received a reply from the Sun Life Assurance Company stating that I could cease the premium payments but since my son's in the internment camp, such a request will have to be arranged through the Office of the Custodian.

Re: Tamejiro NAKANISHI &
Mr. Gen TSUJI

It seems probable that many of the chattels appearing on List No. 58, June 26th, 1942, in the name of Tamejiro Nakanishi, taken from Phoenix Cannery No. 1 to Warehouse No. 3 basement, belong to Mrs Gen Tsuji. She wrote on November 26th, 1942 that she left a lot of chattels in House No. 1, Phoenix Cannery, although she did not declare anything.

A bed and spring which were supposed to have been shipped on October 17th, 1942 to the above now appear to have been left with the Catholic Mission in Steveston and were removed from there on January 18th, 1944 to the Kindergarten and sold at public auction.

Dear Sirs:

I am in receipt of your letter of March 18, 1944, which asks whether or not I am the depositor of the funds which was in the Japan & Canada Savings Company. Also if I should be the depositor, the request to have the Pass Book sent to your office. The account is under my name but the possessor of the funds is Mr. T. Nakanishi of Loretto, Manitoba, R.R. 1, Box 19. This fact is evident in the letter which I am enclosing. It is a letter written in Japanese sent from Mr. Nakanishi to me. Please have it read by someone. As for the Pass Book, I cannot send it to your office because I am not the possessor of the funds, so please write and consult with Mr. Nakanishi about it and also about the whole affair.

Dear Madam:

We thank you for your letter of the 27th of March, 1944, informing us that the funds in the Japan & Canada Trust Savings Co. belong to Toyokichi NAKANISHI, and that you wish them transferred to his account. However, in the first place, they have to be credited to your account in this office as you were the depositor. After they have been credited to your account, we can have them transferred to the account of Toyokichi NAKANISHI as requested by you.

Unfortunately we have not got any facilities for translating the Japanese letter, which you enclosed with your letter under reply. We are, therefore, returning the same to you and if you care to send us a translation we will have it placed on file.

We are enclosing a copy of a letter which we have written to NAKANISHI, which will assist you in understanding the steps that have to be taken in transferring these funds to him. We must have your "Pass Book" as proof that you are the original depositor. If you are afraid of the book getting lost, please have it registered, which you can do for a few cents.

We are quite sure that if you will take this letter to the B. C. Security Commission Supervisor at Greenwood he will assist you.

Trusting to hear from you at a very early date.

Dear Sir:

Upon evacuation to Greenwood in April 1942. I left some belongings in Steveston which I did not register with the Custodian but would deem it a great favour if you could locate them and forward them to me, if at all possible.

I left some kitchen utensils consisting of 1 hamburger machine, 1 steel frying pan and many other articles, in House #1, Phoenix Cannery, STEVESTON, B.C.

The above articles are stored in the attic of this house. As there were no way of entering the attic, I made an opening to it at the back of the house by removing some panels, large enough to get in. I replaced the panels again but I am sure it can easily be located. Please note that the opening was made from the outside of the house.

I would like all kitchen utensils sent as quickly as possible but do not want the saw forwarded as I am in no need of it here.

Would appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience and your courtesy is much appreciated.

#75 Universal Grinding Machine, known as a "Hot Butter Cutter".

If convenient, will you please arrange shipment via Richmond Transfer and C.P.R. Express if the weight is 30 lbs. or less, C.P.R. Freight if more. The reason for this request is that this woman claims she can become self-supporting by using this machine to make needles. If Custodian Release Forms are required, same will be secured at Greenwood before the machine is delivered.

If at the same time shipment of some of the other items on Custodian Release of April 24th can be made without interfering with your program, please arrange. The articles described would seem to be useful for her proposed activities.
