In reviewing our files we note that Satsuki NAGATA moved his effects from 333 Boyne Street to 348 Boyne Street before leaving this area. This was done without our knowledge and makes it difficult for us to clear up his file.

According to our records three shipments of effects were made from 348 Boyne Street, one of which was to Satsuki NAGATA. These, together with a few items recovered and subsequently sold at auction to your account would appear to account for both your chattels and NAGATA'S.

In passing we may say that the inventory you gave the Custodian contains many items similar to those on Mr. NAGATA'S list.

Your file has been reviewed and the following has been noted:

On January 8th, 1945 and on March 27th, 1945 we wrote you relative to three claims lodged against you, namely:

Bank of Nova Scotia	$21.95
Dr. Bruce Cannon	3.25
Dr. Sinclair (Estate)	78.00

We have received no acknowledgment to either of these letters.

It is also noted that you declared on April 22nd, 1942 that you possessed no personal property in the Restricted Area, whereas on several occasions you have signed Custodian Release Forms for the shipment of effects left in the hands of your son, Shigetoshi URANO, particularly on January 4th, 1944 you referred to "all my furniture."

In view of the fact therefore, that you appear to have assets
