MEMO FOR MISS SULLIVAN

This memorandum is very important. In the R.C.M.P. letter dated May 28 he states that he encloses three certificates in the name of Masao HOSHINO and in the memo which you were kind enough to prepare, you set out these three certificates as placed in the safety deposit box under Masao HOSHINO. A mistake has been made because on examining the Exhibit Report which is attached to the R.C.M.P. letter of May 28, 1942, two only of these certificates are for Masao HOSHINO, and the other one is Teruo HOSHINO. Have we an internee for Teruo HOSHINO or is this man an evacuee? In any case our records should be corrected and if we have an internee for Teruo HOSHINO, particulars of this War Savings certificate should be entered in that file and crossed off in file no. 716, Masao HOSHINO.
