Dear Sir:

We have for acknowledgment and reply your letter of Feb. 8th, which we have delayed answering until we made further investigations.

We enclose herewith our cheque for $80.53, which is your total credit balance with the Custodian at this date, receipt of which will you kindly acknowledge by return.

There are still a few items remaining to be sold such as your Guernsey kitchen range and cross cut saw. Everything that was stored in the basement of Mr. J. FUKUSHIMA's house has been removed. We have found no trace of the gramophone that you mention and no other trunk in addition to the one shipped to you on November 17th, 1943.

Turning now to your fishing equipment; when you registered your belongings with the Custodian on April 22nd, 1942, you declared $200.00 worth of fishing nets and lines and one row boat at the Acme Cannery. Inquiry by this office from the manager of the Vancouver Cannery reveals that he personally bought and paid for your lines before evacuation, and that others were sold to Vancouver brokers. We have sold and credited to your account two skiffs, $17.00, and one net, $25.00. Two other nets found in your name were valueless and could not be sold.

Mr. Yukio HIGO,
Registration No. 02025,
c/o D. Wilde,
Welling, Alta.

Dear Sir:

Re: M. V. "Miss Acme" NW.3159

This is to advise you of the sale of the above-indicated vessel for the total sum of $315.00. This was the value placed on this boat by an experienced, independent marine surveyor.

No commissions or administration costs are charged against these vessels, but the costs of wharfage, fire insurance, watchmen's wages and the cost of expert valuation are deducted from the monies received from the sale. These amounted to $42.77.

The balance of $272.23 has been placed to your credit in our trust account.

Yours very truly,

F. Matheson,
Specified Articles Department.

Re: Yukio HIGO, #02025.

The above named requests the Custodian to forward him $100.00 from available assets, but in view of the fact that he was seeking a request for financial assistance for himself and other members of the family, which request was granted subject to assignment, we wish to advise that the amount of assistance given them this year has been $80.00. As this assignment was subject to prior redemption from earnings to be made this year in the beet fields, it would be in order to have $100.00 sent to this man, subject to available liquid assets being in excess of $250.00.

This man is a single man, son of Saichiro #02023, and I mention this as it might be desirable to examine the account of Higo senior at the same time.

Case No. 871 - Yukio Higo, File 5328

Claim: "Y.H." N.W. 3159 Gillnet Boat - purchased new in 1932 for $1,200.00
Gross Claim: $800.00

Sale: Date: February 13, 1943
Location: Nelson's Wharf
Purchaser: Nelson Bros. Fisheries Ltd.
Sale Price: $315.00 ($350.00 - 10%)
Expenses: 42.77 (proportionate share)
Net Credit: 272.23

Valuation: Phillipson: $350.00 (JFVDC price: $403.00)
Gould: 350.00

This was one of the boats in Nelson Bros. Fisheries Ltd. custody. Unsold in February, 1943, it was appraised by John Gould and was sold by the Custodian at 10% deduction from the appraised price.

Age: Phillipson estimated the age at 12-to 14 years, which is 2 to 4 years older than the age shown in claim.
The boat was not licensed in Yukio Higo's name until 1940.
It is noted that claimant, born in 1918, was 14 years of age when he purchased this boat. Possibly actual purchaser was his father.

Owner's: There are two JFVDC "catalogue sheets" for this boat.
Valuation: On one the owner's valuation is $700.00. On the other it is $800.00.

Another boat owned by this man was sold by himself in April, 1942, through the JFVDC. This other boat is valued in the "catalogue sheet" at $1,200.00, but was sold for $750.00.

Expenses: This was one of the boats in Nelson Bros. custody. Gould's appraisal possibly the only Custodian expense.

Equipment: No record of what equipment was on boat when impounded.
Phillipson's valuation is for boat with drum, indicating possibility that drum was on boat. Not known if Gould's valuation includes drum.
The two valuations are the same.

Repairs: No record of damage or repair to this boat while in custody of Navy or of Nelson Bros.

 Claimant.

30

MARK H. FRANCH, Esq., Official Reporter

2.
Yukio Higo
In Chief.

YUKIO HIGO, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. CHERNIAK:

MR. CHERNIAK: I have an amendment to make here,
Your Honour. We found that the person who originally prepared this confused the two boats for which claim is made.

THE COMMISSIONER: Are there two boats?

MR. CHERNIAK: There were two boats for which claim was made but I am amending it and withdrawing the claim of the boat 'Aqua' which was sold through the J.F.V.D.C. However, the information relative to these boats was mixed up at the time of making the claim. This will be clarified when I make my statement or file my statement. Suffice to say that the claim is for a boat 'Miss Aqua', valued at $600.00, Custodian's sale price $515.00 and the loss is therefore $85.00, or, rather, $485.00.

Q I show you a typewritten statement referring to the boat 'Miss Aqua', was this prepared in accordance with your instructions?

A Right.

Q Is this your signature? A Yes.

MR. CHERNIAK: I tender this as Exhibit 1, Your Honour.

(PERSONAL PROPERTY CLAIM, EXHIBIT 1.)

MR. CHERNIAK: I think my learned friend would possibly like to file his appraisal on the boat.

MR. FERG: That is 'Miss Aqua'?

Tukio Higo
In Chief.

MR. CHERNIAK: Yes. On behalf of my learned friend, I file as Exhibit 2 the Survey Report on the 'Miss Acme', which is signed by John Gould and dated February, 1945, no day is shown but the valuation is shown as $350.00

(SURVEY REPORT, EXHIBIT 2.)

MR. CHERNIAK: And on behalf of my learned friend I will file as Exhibit 3 a sheet entitled 'Summary taken from Vessels Records' referring to the Miss Acme and showing the J.F.V.D.C. valuation at $403.00, the Custodian's valuation at $350.00, and the date of sale as February 13th, 1945, the purchaser Nelson Brothers, Fisheries, Limited and the selling price at $315.00.

(SUMMARY TAKEN FROM VESSELS RECORDS EXHIBIT 3.)

MR. CHERNIAK: I would like to bring Your Honour's attention to the dates of the appraisal which states February, 1945, $350.00, and the sale on February 13th, 1945, at $315.00. Exhibit 1 filed on behalf of the claimant sets out that he purchased this boat, the Miss Acme in 1932 and powered it with a 7 h.p. Vivian motor. The cost price was $1,200.00. He did a complete overhaul to the engine, cabin and partitions and equipped it with a net drum complete with net roller at a cost of approximately $350.00. He replaced a piston on the engine and the piston ring was replaced every three years at a cost of approximately $50.00

THE COMMISSIONER: When was this done?

Yukio Higo
In Chief.

MR. CHERNIAK: 1939, Your Honour. He stated that he turned the boat over to the Navy at New Westminster and reported same to the Custodian. Although this boat was 10 years old he completely overhauled the hull and also made repairs to the engine. He believes the fair market value of this boat at the time of evacuation was at least $800.00

10

CROSS-EXAMINED BY MR. FERG:

Q Mr. Higo, you did not have an independent valuation made of this boat? A What do you mean, my own valuation?

Q You didn't bring anybody from outside to value the boat? A No.

Q You made this valuation of $800.00 yourself?

A Yes.

Q It is your own estimation?

A Yes.

20

Q We don't know anything about boats down here; about what is the life of a fishing boat of this type? A It depends on how you take care of it, some boats last thirty years, some twenty years and some fifteen years.

Q How long have you been fishing?

A Ten years.

Q This was the first fishing boat you ever owned?

A I had another boat.

Q The Aene? A Yes.

30

Q Was the Aene an older boat than this one?

Yukio Higo
Gr-Exam.

A- It is a newer boat.

Q The Agma? A Yes.

Q And this was an older boat than the Agma?

A Yes.

Q You had one other boat previous to this one?

A Yes.

Q And you fished with this boat for ten years?

A The other boat my brother fished.

Q But you fished for over ten years?

A Yes.

Q And used this boat? A Yes.

Q And this boat was continuously in service for the ten years previous to evacuation?

A I overhauled the boat during the ten years.

Q Yes, I understand that, in other words you kept it going? A Yes, it was in good shape.

MR. FERG: All right. My submission is, Your Honour that the boat was sold for its fair market value.

RE-EXAMINATION BY MR. OHEWNIAK:

Q In fixing your valuation on this boat did you know or were you aware of the values and sale prices of boats during the time that you were fishing, during those ten years? Shall I ask the question again?

A I can't get you.

Q I meant by that - during the ten years where were you living? A Sea Island.

Q And do I understand that Sea Island is an area given over almost exclusively to fishermen?

A Yes.

6.
Yukio Higo.
Re-Exam.

Q Did you know, while you stayed there, the price of other boats bought by other people?

A Yes.

Q And your valuation at $800.00 is what you consider to be a fair market value for this boat?

A Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right. That is all.
