Dear Sir:

In an undated letter received from you on the 19th October, you asked us to forward you your War Savings Certificates.

The eight $5.00 War Savings Certificates declared by you on the 22/4/1942 were reported by you (15/6/1942) to have been handed to your mother prior to your internment. On the 25/6/1942 we received from your mother eight $5.00 War Savings Certificates but these turn out to be in the name of Takeo NAKASHIMA. Can you explain this and/or give us a list of the numbers of your Certificates?

Dear Sir,

Received letter stating that my War Savings Certificate was in Lake N. Hashina's name. Mr. Inman's former friend of Hallcrest Lumber Company gave in the wrong name when reporting for our Certificate every month. If you know how find out I wish you will write Hallcrest Lumber Company which has moved to Lake Cowichan after we have evacuated the Island. If you cannot find out say that I do not know what to do myself.

Here is another thing I want to know from the Canadian. "Why did they take my Certificate when I was returned with Lake on it instead of Lake on it. Don't you think that's a mistake too?"

Yours truly

Dear Sir:

We are in receipt of your letter of the 8th ultimo regarding your War Savings Certificates.

We note that the 8 Certificates left in your mother's hands and by her turned over to this office were in fact your Certificates and that the name Takeo NAKASHIMA appearing thereon was a mistake of the foreman of the Mill at which you were working and through whom the Certificates were purchased.

If you will sign the enclosed Statutory Declaration before a Notary Public, who should also sign it, and return it to us, we shall be pleased to mail you the eight Certificates, which we are holding on your behalf.
