Dear Sirs: Your Reference File No. 5378

Permission was given to Fred Eijiro Yamakami to store his furniture and household effects in our warehouse without cost and at his own risk. Mr. Yamakami looked after the storing himself and his effects are now exactly as he left them. We never had any list of articles stored and cannot undertake to account for same.

The writer recently advised Mr. Yamakami that his furniture should be moved to a drier warehouse before next winter. As he was a former employee of some years' standing, it was our wish to assist him at the time he had to leave the Coast.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:-

In your registration with the Custodian,
you declared personal property at 1810 Burrard Street.
Our representatives visited the premises and were informed that you had moved all of your chattels from this address. We, therefore, assumed that you moved your effects to the warehouse of R. A. Wyllie & Son Limited, Vancouver, and as this is regarded as safe and satisfactory storage, we have no intention of disturbing them.
If we are incorrect in our assumption, please advise us.

Mr. Fred Eijiro YAMAKAMI,
Reg. No. 01373,
Suite 732,
984 Main St.,
WINNIPEG, Man.

Dear Sir:

We are in receipt of your letter of the 10th instant and your outstanding account with the B.C. Electric Co. is being paid by us. The balance of your credit amounting to $3.24 is remitted to you in our cheque enclosed herewith.

Your file has been reviewed and the following has been noted. In your registration with the Custodian you declared chattels at 1810 Burrard St., and in the warehouse of R. A. Wyllie & son. No chattels were found at 1810 Burrard St., and as mentioned in our letter to you dated April 16th 1943, we assume that you removed everything from that address. We have a letter from R. A. Wyllie informing us that they had chattels of yours in their storage and that they had recommended to you their removal. We would have no objection to the removal provided we are advised at the time.

You declared a bank account amounting to $100.00 in the Bank of Montreal, Hastings & Main St., Vancouver. This did not come under control of the Custodian.

You also declared a $1,000.00 life insurance policy with the Sun Life Assurance Co. This did not come under control of the Custodian.

We received from the Provincial Collector the sum of $4.50 representing a refund of 15 wage deduction for 1941.

You sent us a receipt for a camera which was mailed by us on February 22, 1943 to Mr. Wilson Wyllie to make his own arrangements for the forwarding of your camera to you.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the protected area which vested in the Custodian, and in order that you may confirm this, we are enclosing a stamped addressed envelope for convenience in replying.

Yours truly,
